"Flexible scheduling" will again be used in Weeks 11-17. In Weeks 11-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game.

For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to December 29. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday or Monday nights.

^^The dates and start times for Week 16 will be announced no later than following Week 8.

DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK & JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairs of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A FORTY-TWO-YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS & PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of four decades of 49ers football, including 44 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the organization's first Stanley Cup in 1991. In doing so, she became just the third woman to have her name engraved on hockey's famed championship trophy.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc., in 1993.

As Co-Chairs of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

THE YORKS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team and became just the third woman to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.
- John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing.
- John began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH.
- Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee.
- John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of both the League's Audit and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman.
- The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers and the 49ers Foundation were previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Sports Philanthropy.
- For the past 27 years, the 49ers Foundation has educated and empowered Bay Area youth through a host of innovative, community-based strategies. The 49ers Foundation has distributed more than $40 million back into the community.
- In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium.
- The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School. Each student selected into SLI gains access to the six-year program, which is meant to strengthen students STEM related skills to prepare them for eventual entry to top-tier colleges. In fall 2016, the program - now serving its full capacity of 360 students - expanded to Santa Clara High School (SCHS) and, in Spring 2020, the inaugural class will graduate from high school.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of professional football's greatest stars, including 28 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of both the League's Audit and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the borders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. Under his direction, the League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games at Wembley Stadium in London, England. San Francisco has played in London twice, defeating the Denver Broncos in 2010 and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in fostering tremendous relationships with former players and coaches to help celebrate more than seven monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports.

Levi's Stadium opened in 2014 with one of the premiere features of the venue being the 49ers Museum, which houses the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. The two-level, 20,000 square foot space is dedicated to showcasing the past, present and future of the 49ers organization and its commitment to education and innovation.

Under the guidance of Denise and John, the team hosts its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana and the late Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory. As the team said goodbye to Candlestick Park in 2013, the 49ers commemorated many great memories by honoring the Top 10 moments in the storied history of the venue by welcoming back the alumni who helped make them all possible.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round, and they have made it their mission to embrace the Faithful as family.

Levi's Stadium is the culmination of their vision to create an unparalleled game day experience for 49ers fans. The venue not only provides fans the ultimate place to enjoy 49ers football, but it also plays host to a number of world-class sports and entertainment events throughout the year. Through the integration of innovative technology, sustainable practices and groundbreaking design elements, Levi's Stadium accurately reflects the best of the Bay Area while bringing fans closer to the game.

Visitors to Levi's Stadium immediately notice wider, open concourses that look back into the lower bowl so fans don't miss a minute of the action while waiting for food. A significant increase in the number of points of sale for concessions and merchandise and in the number of restrooms was done to limit congestion. From their seats, visitors can marvel at more than 19,000 square-feet of video board space, while using the Levi's Stadium App to order food, beverages and merchandise or to watch replays of the action on the field in real-time. Those who visit the NRG Solar Terrace on the roof of the stadium's suite tower are treated to unbelievable views, while being shaded by 49 solar panel arrays that helped make the venue the first stadium home to an NFL team to open with LEED Gold certification. Levi's Stadium is also the first home of a NFL team to earn dual LEED Gold certifications, achieving its second distinction for operations and maintenance of an existing building in 2016.

Levi's Stadium features three signature locations - The 49ers Museum, Michael Mina's Bourbon Steak and Bourbon Pub restaurants, and the 49ers Team Store. Packaged with the venue's special events programs, these elements make Levi's Stadium a year-round destination.

Levi's Stadium garnered international recognition by receiving the prestigious honor of Sports Business Journal's 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and the 2015 Sports Venue of the Year at the StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. The venue has also received several recognitions from the sustainability industry - including the 2017 StadiumBusiness Environmental Award - for its environmentally friendly design and operations plan, both of which were mandated by the York family.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the 49ers community impact and the 49ers Foundation are recognized among the most impactful in all of professional sports. The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers and the 49ers Foundation were previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Sports Philanthropy.

For the past 28 years, the 49ers Foundation has educated and empowered Bay Area youth through a host of innovative, community-based strategies, including direct programming and supporting the 49ers Academy, Fresh Lifelines for Youth, City Year of San Jose, the Center for Youth Wellness, and Tipping Point. The 49ers Foundation has distributed more than $46 million back into the community. The York family believes that, if a child can learn to learn, they will continue to educate themselves for the rest of their lives.

Within the 49ers Foundation's direct programming, 49ers EDU is a direct reflection of the York family's passion and commitment to providing and improving educational opportunities for young people in the Bay Area. The program provides myriad opportunities to engage learners, teachers and families in standards-aligned and community-building educational programming—all free of charge. In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium, and the corresponding field trip program that runs through it to this day. The program offers free on-site STEAM education programming for students in grades K-8 by integrating innovative concepts that support classroom learning in the community and beyond.

Since its inception, 49ers EDU has engaged more than 210,000 students in STEAM conversations through its standards-aligned field trip program – at no cost. The mission of 49ers EDU is simple: to show students and teachers in kindergarten through eighth grade that education can go beyond textbooks and traditional lessons, and to light a fire for young people for STEAM concepts, so they have a stronger proclivity to pursue these subjects throughout their education. Fortified with a team of dedicated educators, 49ers EDU teaches over 360 students a day the principles of STEAM through something they love -- football. The program also hosts a professional development program for teachers and has a family learning series that brings parents and kids together to explore STEAM.

The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School. Each student selected into SLI gains access to the six-year program, which is meant to strengthen students STEM related skills to prepare them for eventual entry to top-tier colleges. In fall 2016, the program – now serving its full capacity of 360 students – expanded to Santa Clara High School (SCHS) and, in Spring 2020, the inaugural class will graduate from high school.

Football has been in the York family for over 40 years and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank is the evolution of the family's continuing efforts to promote health and wellness through the game of football. 49ers PREP is more than just football, it's the 49ers Foundation's boots-on-the-ground approach to serving Bay Area youth through sport. The direct impact of 49ers PREP can be seen in the over 100,000 participants who have engaged in the program since 2014. In 2018 alone, 49ers PREP programming provided more than 170 free, non-contact, co-ed football camps and clinics to more than 30,000 kids of all ages, teaching the importance of health and wellness. 49ers PREP additionally launched last year a free flag football program for girls and boys with over 500 participants on 70 teams, across 7 leagues throughout the Bay Area. New for 2019, 49ers PREP launched additional flag football leagues in the Bay Area and Hawaii. The goal set forth by the York family is to continue to teach more children the importance of teamwork, goal-setting and how to live a healthy lifestyle in a fun, safe and educational environment.

In recognition of their community involvement, Denise and John have been honored with a number of accolades including the Children Discovery Museum's Legacy for Children Award, City Year's Service Leadership Award, Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves and Fishes Dinner, and annual inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal.

Their passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John has been honored with Loyola University's Stritch Medal – the highest honor awarded by the school – for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. The couple was honored with the Youngstown Hearing and Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They continue to support the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown, Making Kids Count and the Mahoning Valley United Way, while also being intimately involved with the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which awards college scholarships to deserving Youngstown area high school seniors.

Denise continues to provide mentoring and tuition assistance for at-risk youth throughout all levels of education. This past year, along with her usual contribution, Denise "adopted" Williamson Elementary School in Youngstown through the United Way Success after Six program, and her donation sponsored the after school program. She also works with the local food bank and supports Rescue Mission, Akron Children's Hospital Mahoning Valley, Beatitude House, Youngstown Neighborhood Development, Angels for Animals, Alchemy Acres, YWCA Scholarship Program, Women in Entrepreneurship Program at Youngstown Business Incubator and made a substantial contribution to the new Youngstown State University Veteran's Resource Center. Over the last few years, and again this year, Denise has been the sponsor of the Ohio Nonviolence Week in conjunction with the Simeon Booker Courage Award. Denise is also passionate about cancer-related causes, including The Serenity Garden at the Joanie Abdu Comprehensive Breast Care Center.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife, and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy -- begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr., and his parents -- by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their twin daughters, Jenna and Mara, have worked in the Napa Valley wine industry for several years and are active participants with the 49ers Foundation and Community Relations efforts. Their son, Tony, was an entrepreneur whose true passion lied in philanthropy, which led him to support a number of non-profit efforts and work closely with incarcerated youth. The York children share their parents' passion for community service and are very active in the 49ers Foundation. Denise and John, have two grandchildren, Jaxon and Brixton, the sons of Jed and his wife, Danielle.

JED YORK

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

15TH NFL SEASON | 15TH WITH 49ERS

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As chief executive officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. Now in his 15th year with the team and 10th as CEO, York has been a driving force behind the 49ers success on and off the field during that time. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

During York's tenure, the team has experienced great success having won two NFC West Division titles, advanced to three consecutive NFC Championship Games and a Super Bowl. His strong leadership was also instrumental in providing the team and its fans a state-of-the-art new home. On April 19, 2012, the Santa Clara Stadium Authority broke ground on Levi's Stadium and enlisted the 49ers to manage the construction process, which achieved a ribbon cutting just two years later.

Designed to set a new standard for the stadium experience, Levi's Stadium has become known as one of the most iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world. The building has garnered international acclaim having been named 2015 Sports Venue of the Year by the Sports Business Journal and Venue of the Year at the 2015 StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. Leveraging technology and sustainability, Levi's Stadium has also generated international acclaim for its environmental responsibility. For its green innovation - inclusive of being the first NFL stadium to twice be LEED certified - Levi's Stadium was named the 2016 Green Sports Alliance Environmental NFL Innovators of the Year and the 2017 StadiumBusiness Awards Environmental Stadium of the Year.

In its first five years of operation, Levi's Stadium has already successfully hosted Super Bowl 50, WrestleMania 31, the Copa America Centenario and CONCACAF Gold Cup, the 2015 NHL Stadium Series, the International Championship Cup featuring soccer powers such as Manchester United and FC Barcelona, multiple Pac-12 Football Championship Games, and stadium concert tours headlined by Beyoncé and U2. Most recently, the venue hosted the 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. Most recently, York recognized the unique opportunities Levi's Stadium presented the team and its fans, and he directed the organization to capitalize.

From the time Levi's Stadium was just a concept, creating the ultimate game day experience for 49ers fans was at the core of the York family's vision. The unique approach taken to designing the venue and bringing that vision to life incorporated one of the Bay Area's most notable natural resources - innovative technology. As York has repeatedly stated, Levi's Stadium may not be the biggest stadium, but it will be the smartest.

With technology woven into its backbone, the building not only allows visitors to customize their own individual experience through the use of the Levi's Stadium App, but it is also able to seamlessly evolve throughout the decades to come. In addition to groundbreaking design elements that bring fans closer to the game, the venue is a showcase for the region's sustainable efforts and world-class wine and cuisine. Fans have also come to recognize Levi's Stadium as a year-round destination that features a restaurant headlined by an award-winning chef and a museum dedicated to honoring the team's storied history, while also using football as a means to educate Bay Area youth.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season. The 49ers Hall of Fame now has a home inside the 49ers Museum at Levi's Stadium.

Also located inside the 49ers Museum is the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, which provides learning platforms that connect, inspire and engage 60,000 K-8 Santa Clara and greater Bay Area students annually. Featuring content-rich lessons in science, technology, engineering, art and mathematics, the highly interactive center promotes physical activity and valuable life skills. Since the program's inception in 2014, the program has provided trajectory and mindset-changing experiences to more than 250,000 participants.

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr. D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations. York currently serves on three key committees, Stadium, Digital Media and NFL Network, assigned to address facets of National Football League business.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well as student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo, Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, the Commonwealth Club, the Chegg Foundation, Dignity Health Foundation, Bay Area Council, Silicon Valley Leadership Group, Operation HOPE, the Council on Foreign Relations, as well as the Advisory Council for the University of Notre Dame.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

Since coming to San Francisco, Lynch has been vigilant in seeking and acquiring the players that embody the team's culture on the field and in the community. While working hand-in-hand with head coach Kyle Shanahan and the coaching staff, Lynch and his personnel staff continue to add players through all available avenues.

SALUTE TO SERVICE AWARD NOMINEE

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, the six-time finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame and San Francisco 49ers General Manager John Lynch has a longstanding appreciation for the United States military.

As someone whose grandfather and great uncle volunteered for the Army the day after the deadly attacks on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, Lynch has the utmost respect for our military service men and women and has committed time and resources towards supporting the United States Armed Forces for decades.

Since 1998, Lynch has frequented various Air Force bases and military hospitals to personally thank those serving in the military, including MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa, FL, Walter Reed Hospital in Bethesda, MD, and various visits to Fort Carson and Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado. In 2002, the John Lynch Foundation hosted the 'Salute the Stars & Stripes' fundraiser honoring then United States Army Commander of U.S. Central Command Tommy Franks.

"Through my foundation, we've been involved in military appreciation for a long, long time," said Lynch. "Military appreciation is so important to me, because we understand that the unbelievable freedoms, ideals and realities that make America - in my mind - the greatest country in the world are given to us because a lot of people sacrificed for them. To me, no one does so more than the military."

During his last season playing in the NFL (2007), Lynch hosted troops from Buckley Air Force Base (Aurora, CO) during the Denver Broncos training camp at Dove Valley. He visited with and shared a meal with military personnel who had either recently returned from serving in Iraq or were preparing for overseas deployment.

Lynch's military appreciation continues to this day. Every year since 2011, he has hosted military families at the annual Lynch Christmas Party in Colorado and during his inaugural training camp as 49ers general manager, Lynch hosted service men and women during the team's Military Appreciation Day.

Al Guido was named President of the San Francisco 49ers on February 15, 2016. Guido oversees all key business initiatives for the team. Guido also concurrently serves as the CEO and co-managing partner of Elevate Sports Ventures, which - launched in 2018 - works to bring comprehensive business solutions to the sports and entertainment industry that identify new revenue opportunities and bring new, innovative ideas to market.

Prior to being named President of the 49ers, Guido served as the team's chief operating officer from 2014-16. In 2017, the stadium played host to the largest soccer tournament on U.S. soil since the World Cup with the Copa America Centenario as well as hosted the prestigious 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship.

Under his direction, the construction and year-one operations of Levi's Stadium exceeded all projections - finishing under budget on construction, with lower public debt than expected, delivering $2.8 million to the City of Santa Clara general fund from non-event revenue in just the first eight months of operations, and fully funding reserve cash balances for the Santa Clara Stadium Authority.

Guido led the sales team that made the stadium a reality, highlighted by the record-setting Stadium Builders License sales campaign for the stadium's seats and suites. The team has signed more than a dozen partners with record-breaking figures in corporate partnership investments, including Levi's® and SAP.

Creating a technologically enhanced game day experience that is influencing sports venues across North America and around the world, the strategy for Levi's Stadium developed by Guido and the 49ers executive management team has garnered international recognition, most notably the Sports Business Journal 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and Venue of the Year at the 2015 Stadium Business Awards in Barcelona, Spain. Leveraging technology with sustainability, Levi's Stadium has also generated international acclaim for its green efforts under Guido's direction. For its green innovation and implementation - inclusive of being the first NFL stadium to be twice LEED certified - Levi's Stadium was named the 2017 StadiumBusiness Environmental Stadium of the Year and the 2016 Green Sports Alliance Environmental Innovators of the Year.

Prior to being elevated to his former role as chief operating officer in 2014, Guido worked on behalf of the 49ers and the Santa Clara Stadium Authority as the senior vice president of global sales for Legends beginning in 2010. As the firm which led the sales effort for the 49ers and the Stadium Authority during Levi's Stadium construction, Legends achieved record-setting records for the franchise.

Before joining Legends, Guido served as sales manager for the Dallas Cowboys. In that role, he managed the sales department for Cowboys Stadium (now AT&T Stadium) that broke industry records for PSL sales totaling over $600 million.

Guido joined the Cowboys after having served as the senior director of ticket sales for the Phoenix Coyotes of the National Hockey League. During his term, the Coyotes achieved the first revenue increases in the 10-year history of the franchise and finished in the top five in the NHL for new business sales.

A native of Washington Township, NJ, Guido began his career in the sports and entertainment industry with Comcast-Spectacor, owner and operator of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers, NHL's Philadelphia Flyers, AHL's Philadelphia Phantoms, Comcast SportsNet and the Wachovia Complex. Heading into its sixth year of operations, Levi's Stadium has become the premier outdoor destination for sports and entertainment on the West Coast. Hosting over 100 major events to date with an average of 20 events per year, Levi's Stadium has provided entertainment for fans across numerous platforms. Still in its infancy, the facility has already garnered numerous awards from around the globe.

Levi's Stadium boasts a seating capacity of 68,500 with the ability to expand to more than 75,000 for special events, and is best known as the home of the five-time Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. Drawing more fans closer to the experience than ever before, Levi's Stadium features nearly 45,000 seats, or roughly two-thirds of stadium capacity, in the lower bowl. Overall, the stadium includes 1.85-million-square-feet of space and offers 9,000 club seats and 174 suites that provide a distinctively California experience.

For 49ers games, Levi's Stadium features unique tailgating options designed to enhance the game day experience, highlighted by Michael Mina's Tailgate, the Faithful Mile presented by Global Syn-Turf and the Red Zone Rally at the Great America Pavilion. Michael Mina's Tailgate is an exclusive, members-only experience housed within the Bourbon Steak and Bourbon Pub restaurants located inside the venue. The Tailgate is tailor-made for 49ers season ticket holders and features an upscale, five-course menu themed for each opponent. The Faithful Mile, a 60,000-square-foot tailgating area accessible to all 49ers ticket holders free of charge, features bars presented by Bud Light, regular rotation of food trucks and entertainment. Red Zone Rally is an all-inclusive pregame party for all 49ers home games, providing pass-holders top-of-the-line food and beverage offerings inside a private, air-conditioned space with free access to ride the Flight Deck roller coaster.

One of the most technologically advanced stadiums in the world, Levi's Stadium is a showcase for innovation in Silicon Valley. Accompanied by its own mobile app, the 49ers App, the venue brings the comforts of watching a game at home right to your seat. In addition to mobile ticketing and parking, in-seat delivery for food and beverages for club seat holders, and the ability to watch video replays in real-time on a handheld device, the stadium features a best-in-class cellular and Wi-Fi infrastructure that allows guests to stay connected throughout their visit.

Levi's Stadium is home to over 200 original pieces of art and more than 500 original historic photographs. The museum-quality artwork featured through the club and suite levels of the venue is comprised of mixed mediums such as acrylic, charcoal, enamel, oil, pastel, pen and ink, stencil, metals and sculptures. Of the 23 original artists showcased in the Levi's Stadium collection, 20 hail locally from California. The photographs in the collection are from the archives of the 49ers and their esteemed group of team photographers along with many local libraries and historic centers.

In July 2016, Levi's Stadium was awarded LEED Gold Certification for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing Building after opening the stadium in 2014 with LEED Certification as New Construction, making the venue the only one of its kind to twice be recognized for achieving the industry standard for sustainable design and construction. Equipped with a green roof, state-of-the-art solar elements made up of 1,162 photovoltaic panels throughout the venue, low-flow plumbing fixtures and the first rooftop farm at an NFL stadium, the stadium has been widely recognized as a leader in sustainable design. Additionally, Levi's Stadium has established a new standard for sports and entertainment venues by using 85 percent recycled water for all of its non-potable water needs.

Levi's Stadium was awarded the 2017 Facility of Merit by the NFL and the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security for its efforts in performing above and beyond normal operations to demonstrate an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security. MOBILE TICKETING

Bringing the convenience of home to the in-venue experience, the 49ers App -- featuring the functionality of the Levi's Stadium App -- provides club seat holders with the ability to order food, drink and merchandise for in-seat delivery via their personal Internet-enabled handheld device.

TECHNOLOGY

Levi's Stadium is a showcase for innovation in the Silicon Valley through partnerships with local, national and international technology providers that help deliver world-class Wi-Fi capability, mobile connectivity, IPTV, digital displays, HD scoreboard and video displays, and paperless ticketing.

- The most technologically advanced stadium is accompanied by its own app. The 49ers App brings the comforts of watching a game at home right to your seat -- but only at Levi's Stadium. This includes a game center with mobile ticketing and parking passes, in-seat food and beverage delivery, as well as multi-angle replays (within 5-10 seconds) and game statistics. The app also provides detailed maps for each level of the stadium, bluetooth enabled wayfinding.
- XFINITY by Comcast provides free Wi-Fi to guests throughout the stadium. When a fan is in their seat, they are never more than 10 feet away from a Wi-Fi signal thanks to the venue's ground-breaking infrastructure of Internet access points strategically positioned beneath seats throughout the seating bowl -- one access point for every 100 seats.

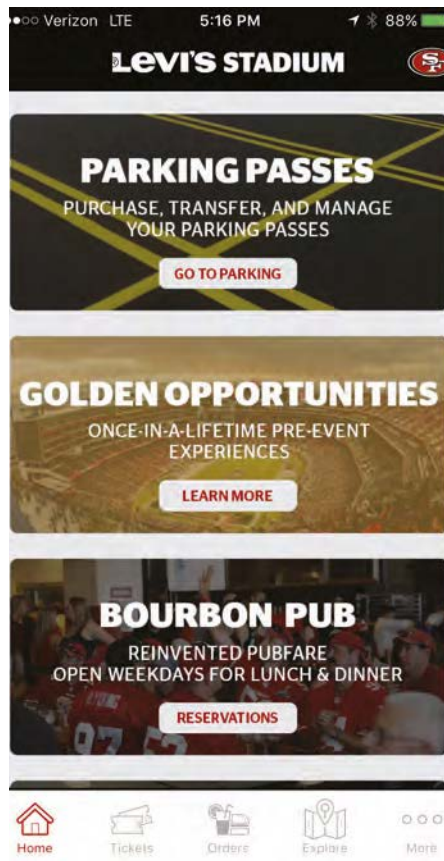

NETWORK INFRASTRUCTURE

- Over 400 miles of data cable connects the stadium, including 70 miles of cable to support Wi-Fi.
- More than 12,000 physical network ports have been installed.
- Levi's Stadium features a backbone of 40Gb/s of available Internet bandwidth, easily scalable to event attendance, which is four times greater than the standard for NFL stadiums recommended by the National Football League for 2017.
- The stadium contains more than 1,300 Wi-Fi access-points supporting 2.4 and 5GHz channels and the most current Wireless standards including 802.11ac; Wi-Fi is accessible in every location and free to all.

IN-STADIUM "BROADCAST"

- The in-stadium "Broadcast" rivals that of a Network TV broadcast, featuring 13 stadium cameras (most NFL stadiums have four to six). The stadium has the ability to share camera feeds with the broadcasting TV network. At least six different replay angles can be viewed per play. The game day production team consists of 40-plus people.
- The stadium is equipped with two HD 13 video boards at the North and South ends of the stadium that measure 200 feet by 48 feet, producing more than 19,000 square feet of viewing space. They are among the largest in the NFL. The boards also feature tremendously sharp, cutting-edge LEDs. The boards can be sectioned in order to show multiple pieces of content simultaneously.
- Levi's Stadium is one of a handful of stadiums in North America that is truly 4K-capable. The content team is currently capturing in 4K, not broadcasting, as they are preparing for future capabilities.
- Nearly 2,000 screens are connected to the stadium's IPTV system, which allows for incredible flexibility and customization throughout the venue. Content includes menu boards, game broadcasts, statistics and other important information as deemed necessary.

Stay connected with the official 49ers mobile app, now featuring the functionality of the Levi's Stadium app, available on iOS and Android.

SUSTAINABILITY

In August 2014, Levi's Stadium became the first professional football stadium to open with LEED Gold Certification for New Construction, the recognized standard for measuring sustainability for design and construction. Less than two years later in July 2016, Levi's Stadium continued to set benchmarks as the leading sports venue in sustainability by achieving LEED Gold Certification for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing building - making it the first-ever NFL stadium to be LEED Gold certified under the two respective rating systems.

The stadium is designed to reduce energy demand and generate more electricity annually, via on-site photovoltaic (PV) systems, than is consumed during the 10 scheduled 49ers games each season.

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN ELEMENTS

- NRG, the exclusive sustainable energy provider of the 49ers and the stadium, installed a number of state-of-the-art solar elements that account for 1,162 SunPower photovoltaic panels throughout the venue.
- The NRG Solar Terrace, the venue's 27,000-square-foot "green roof," is located atop the stadium's SAP Tower which houses a majority of the venue's 173 suites. This living roof features 16 species of vegetation native to the Bay Area to lower the building's cooling and heating needs by regulating ambient temperatures in SAP Tower.
- In 2016 Levi's Stadium partnered with Farmscape — California's largest urban farming company — to bring the first-ever rooftop farm to an NFL stadium: The Faithful Farm. The 7,000 sq. ft. rooftop farm located on the NRG Solar Terrace supports nearly 40 rotational crops — including tomatoes, summer squash, peppers, eggplants herbs and more — generating an annual yield of more than 7,500 pounds, all of which are harvested and used for dishes served at Levi's Stadium. Excess produce from the Faithful Farm also contributes to the stadium's humanitarian efforts with Hunger at Home and the Salvation Army, helping to provide healthy, vegetable-based dishes to individuals in need.
- Three SunPower solar array-covered bridges, the NRG Energy Bridges, are the first of their kind in the NFL.
- Electrical vehicle charging stations (NRG EV Charging Stations) are located on the west side of the stadium to power maintenance and operations electrical vehicles year-round. NRG is currently building the nation's first comprehensive, privately funded electric vehicle charging network and the charging stations are available to Levi's® Stadium guests on event days.
- Low-flow plumbing fixtures such as toilets, urinals and sinks use 40 percent less water than conventional fixtures. On top of low-flow water fixtures, the stadium uses 85 percent reclaimed water for flush fixtures in addition to irrigating landscape and the playing field — a standard within the sports and entertainment venue industry.
- The playing field is surrounded by a 23,000-square-foot artificial turf track that reduces watering needs by approximately 20 percent and reduces the amount of natural grass needed for each field resurfacing.
- The stadium's sustainable initiatives also include public transit access (Caltrain, ACE & Capitol Corridor - VTA, Amtrak), convenient bicycle parking and a walking path from the San Tomas Creek Trail.
- Construction materials utilized contained more than 40 percent recycled content overall, based on cost. More than 75 percent of construction waste was recycled and diverted from landfills.

SUSTAINABLE STADIUM OPERATIONS PROGRAMS

- The Solid Waste Management Reduction Program presented by Bud Light is a comprehensive waste diversion program that is striving for net-zero landfill. All garbage, recycling and compostable materials from inside the venue and the surrounding parking areas are sorted on-site and placed into compactors to be processed.
- The Building Management System allows the venue to conserve energy usage through HVAC monitoring, lighting distribution and the use of automatic sensors.
- The Preventative Maintenance Program tracks all equipment and systems to enact their manufacturer's recommendations and scheduled preventative plans.
- The Ongoing Commissioning Program ensures that the venue operates under the LEED existing building guidelines for new projects and build outs.
- The Green Cleaning Program ensures that the janitorial contractor, ABM, uses sustainable green certified products for all cleaning essentials and equipment.
- The Sustainable Purchasing Program for ongoing consumables, foodstuffs, durable goods ensures that local, organic, recycled and compostable items will be purchased from vendors.
- The Integrated Pest Management Program uses Planet Orange green pest eradication products.
- The Indoor Air Quality Management Program consists of perpetual monitoring of indoor air quality based on the LEED-approved HVAC system.
- The Landscape Management Program includes using native, drought-resistant plants that are hydrated with 100 percent recycled water.
- The Exterior Hardscape Management Program utilizes cleaning equipment when washing the exterior skin of the building and sidewalks. All organic materials collected are composted.
- The Energy Metering & Benchmarking Program utilizes a comprehensive, live-time electrical metering building management system, that allows the stadium to load-shed as needed through the use of motion sensors and pre-programmed computer BMS control.
- The Recycled Water Program is setting a new standard for stadiums. Recycled water accounts for about 85 percent of all water used in Levi's Stadium and is used for playing field irrigation, the "green roof," flushing toilets, and cooling tower make-up water.

FAITHFUL MILE PRESENTED BY GLOBAL SYN-TURF

Fans enjoy the Faithful Mile presented by Global Syn-Turf, a 60,000-square-foot dedicated tailgating area equipped with two expansive bars presented by Bud Light, food areas, beer carts, mobile merchandise locations, 49ers partner activations and entertainment on the Pepsi Stage. The spacious pre-game fan zone is accessible to all 49ers ticket holders free of charge.

FAN EXPERIENCE OVERVIEW

Levi's Stadium delivers an unparalleled game day experience to fans in a multitude of ways.

STADIUM DESIGN

- Featuring over 45,000 seats, Levi's Stadium's lower bowl is one of the largest in the NFL (roughly two-thirds of stadium capacity). The seating is designed this way to bring the majority of fans closer to the field.
- The design also eliminates the traditional club mezzanine level, which brings fans sitting in the upper deck lower to the field.
- The location of Levi's Stadium offers convenience to patrons in both access and parking. There are 13 freeway interchanges located near the stadium's site, which means fans have ample access points to the freeway.
- There are more than 20,000 parking spaces located within a short walking distance from the stadium. Tailgating is an integral part of the game day experience in Santa Clara and Levi's Stadium provides the most diverse tailgating lineup in the NFL with free access to the multi-faceted Faithful Mile presented by Global Syn-Turf, the all-inclusive Red Zone Rally at Great America Pavilion and the upscale, members-only Michael Mina Tailgate located within the Bourbon Steak and Bourbon Pub restaurants.

LEVI'S STADIUM FEATURES

This program is not only unrivaled in the NFL, but in all of professional sports. The Denise DeBartolo York Education Center is a four classroom learning venue, including the state-of-the-art Chevron STEM Zone, housed in Levi's Stadium. In its inaugural year, the 49ers Denise DeBartolo York Education Center consisted of only one innovative and creative space located inside the 49ers Museum. With the STEAM program's popularity, increasing demand, and ownership's commitment to providing accessible STEAM programming, the 49ers expanded their learning venue outside the museum and into the stadium. The additional space can be used as one classroom or be divided into three separate learning venues designed to seamlessly mirror the aesthetic of the original classroom and its intent to drive student-centered learning.

KYLE SHANAHAN

HEAD COACH

16TH NFL SEASON | 3RD WITH 49ERS

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017, after spending the previous two seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons.

During his second season at the helm of the 49ers, the 2018 team overcame adversity early in the season after top free agent acquisition RB Jerick McKinnon tore his ACL prior to Week 1 and starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo in Week 3, putting an end to both of their seasons. Despite the setback, Shanahan, his coaches and the young core of the team stepped up to the challenge and endured the ups and downs of the season. Second-year TE George Kittle set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377) while recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started the final eight games of the season and accumulated the fourth-most passing yards by a quarterback in his first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). On the defensive side of the ball, DL DeForest Buckner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance after leading the pass rushing unit with a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000.

In his first season as head coach, Shanahan led the team to a 6-10 record, which was a four-game improvement from the previous year. After a difficult stretch to start the season, the 49ers won six of their final seven games, including victories in five-straight games to close out the season. With six wins on the season, San Francisco set the NFL record for the most wins by a team in NFL history that started 0-9. The 49ers closed the season as one of the hottest teams in the NFL, posting a perfect 5-0 record in December. San Francisco was the only team in the league to have a perfect record over the last month of the regular season as Shanahan became the fourth rookie NFL head coach in franchise history (Buck Shaw - 1950; Frankie Albert - 1956 & George Seifert - 1989), and the first in the NFL since Tony Sparano in 2008, to go undefeated in the month of December.

San Francisco's offense reached new heights under Shanahan in 2017. The 49ers ranked 12th in the NFL, averaging 349.2 yards per game, the highest output by the team since 2012 (361.8 - 11th). The team also finished the year with 3,925 net passing yards, the most in a single season since 2000 (4,239). QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who went 5-0 as a starter and engineered four, second half comeback wins, set the franchise record for most passing yards in his first five starts. QB C.J. Beathard set the single-season franchise record for attempts (224), completions (123) and passing yards (1,430) by a rookie quarterback. The offense also featured WR Marquise Goodwin who set career highs in both receptions (56) and receiving yards (962), as well as Pro Bowl selections for FB Kyle Juszczyk (second) and T Joe Staley (sixth).

SHANAHAN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Shanahan was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Coordinator of Year by The Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America in 2016.
- In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan's offense has ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.
- Shanahan was 26 years old when he was named the wide receivers coach of the Houston Texans, becoming the youngest position coach in the NFL at that time. At 28 years old, he was named the offensive coordinator of the Texans and was the youngest coordinator in the NFL.
- Shanahan served as a ball boy for the 49ers when his father, Mike, was the offensive coordinator for the team from 1992-94. Mike helped guide the 49ers to a 49-26 victory in Super Bowl XXIX.

Defensively, San Francisco battled through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, but the 49ers defense improved as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held opponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while allowing 100 rushing yards just once in that span. The defense was led by DL DeForest Buckner who tallied 61 tackles and tied for second on the team with 3.0 sacks. The defense also had good productivity from rookies, including DL Solomon Thomas, who led the team with 10 tackles for loss while notching 3.0 sacks, and CB Ahkello Witherspoon, who tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2017. K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers - 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing only 4.2 yards per return.

Shanahan has 15 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan has directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.

Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by The Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and average yards per play (6.7).

Atlanta QB Matt Ryan, who was named Associated Press Most Valuable Player, Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, Most Valuable Player/Offensive Player of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America and FedEx Air Player of the Year, threw for a single-season franchise record and career-high 4,944 passing yards and 38 touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL in both categories, in 2016. He led the NFL with a passer rating of 117.1 on the season and threw a career-low seven interceptions. WR Julio Jones recorded 83 receptions for 1,409 yards (17.0 average) and six touchdowns in 14 games played. His 1,409 receiving yards were the second-most in the NFL this past season. Both Jones and Ryan earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and 2017 Pro Bowl honors.

On the ground, Atlanta averaged 120.5 rushing yards per game and tallied 20 rushing touchdowns in 2016. RB Devonta Freeman registered 227 carries for a career-high 1,079 yards and 11 touchdowns, on his way to earning his second-consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

In Shanahan's first year in Atlanta, the Falcons offense ranked seventh in the NFL, averaging 374.1 yards per game, ranked sixth with a 273.7 passing yards per game average and led the league in time of possession (32:19) in 2015. Julio Jones led the NFL with a career-high 1,871 receiving yards, while notching a career-high 136 receptions to share the League high with the Steelers WR Antonio Brown. Jones' receiving yards marked the second-highest total in a single season in NFL history, behind WR Calvin Johnson's 1,964-yard performance in 2012.

Shanahan joined the Falcons after spending 2014 as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game. Under Shanahan's direction, RBs Isaiah Crowell and Terrance West combined to rush for 1,280 yards on 319 carries (4.0 average), while WR Andrew Hawkins posted career highs in receptions (63) and receiving yards (824).

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of the Washington Redskins. In 2013, the Redskins finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (369.7) and fifth in rushing yards per game (135.3). Second-year QB Robert Griffin III threw for 16 touchdowns and a career-high 3,203 passing yards, while WR Pierre Garçon set a franchise record and led the NFL with 113 receptions for a career-high 1,346 yards. RB Alfred Morris also rushed for 1,200-or-more yards for the second-consecutive season (1,275).

The 2012 Redskins won the NFC East division championship as Washington became the first team in NFL history to register 3,400-or-more passing yards (3,422) and 2,700-or-more rushing yards (2,709) in the same season. Washington led the NFL, averaging 169.3 rushing yards per game and finished second in rushing touchdowns (22). Griffin won the 2012 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award after setting NFL rookie records in passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27), and rushing yards by a rookie quarterback (815). He completed 258 of his 393 passes (65.6 completion percentage) for 3,200 yards and 20 touchdowns. Fellow rookie Alfred Morris ranked second in the NFL with a single-season, franchise-record 1,613 yards and 13 touchdowns.

In 2011, Shanahan worked with QB Rex Grossman, who finished with the second-best statistical season of his career, having thrown for 3,151 yards, 16 touchdowns and a career-high 57.9 completion percentage. WR Santana Moss also had his best professional season in 2010 under Shanahan, notching a career-high 93 receptions for 1,115 yards and six touchdowns.

Before joining Washington, Shanahan spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. In 2009, he worked with QB Matt Schaub, who registered career highs in completions (396), completion percentage (67.9), passing yards (4,770), touchdowns (29) and passer rating (98.6). His completions and passing yard totals led the NFL that season. Additionally, WR Andre Johnson led the NFL in receiving yards in both 2008 (1,575) and 2009 (1,569) and led the NFL with 115 receptions in 2008. TE Owen Daniels registered career highs in both receptions (70) and receiving yards (862) with Houston in 2008. Shanahan spent his first season with Houston (2006) as the team's wide receivers coach and moved to coach the quarterbacks in 2007 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator in 2008. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

Born December 14, 1979, in Minneapolis, MN, Shanahan played wide receiver at Duke University before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000, where he spent two seasons. He and his wife, Mandy, have three children - Stella, Carter and Lexi. Shanahan's father, Mike, who served as the 49ers offensive coordinator from 1992-94, was the head coach of the Denver Broncos (1995-2008) and the Washington Redskins (2010-13), where he accumulated an overall win total of 178 victories (eight postseason), including victories in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII.

RICHARD HIGHTOWER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

13TH NFL SEASON | 4TH WITH 49ERS

Richard Hightower is in his 13th season in the NFL and third as the 49ers special teams coordinator. He returned to San Francisco in 2017 after previously serving as assistant special teams coach with the team in 2015.

From 2017-18, the 49ers kicking unit ranked first in the NFL in field goal percentage (96.0) and second with 72 made field goals (LAR - 74). In addition, San Francisco's punt coverage ranked second over that timespan, holding opponent punt returns to an average of 5.7 yards per return (Ind. - 4.3).

Under Hightower's tutelage in 2018, San Francisco's special teams units flourished. K Robbie Gould set the 49ers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (97.1) as he connected on 33 of 34 field goal attempts and finished the season with 126 points. He also set the franchise record for most consecutive field goals made (33) and finished the season connecting on each of his final 23 attempts. Gould was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December and was a two-time recipient of the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award (Week 2 & 15). Rookie WR Richie James Jr. was named All-NFC kick returner by the PFWA as he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff return, which ranked seventh in the NFL. James Jr. also registered the team's first kickoff return for a touchdown (97 yards) since 2011.

In 2017, the 49ers special teams units excelled under Hightower's guidance. In his first season with the 49ers, veteran K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers - 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing 4.2 yards per return. The 4.2 opponent punt return average was the eighth-best in the NFL since 2001.

As an assistant special teams coach with Chicago in 2016, the Bears kickoff coverage team finished seventh in the NFL in opponent drive start average. Deonte Thompson led the NFL in kickoff returns with 35 and ranked second with 810 yards. Punt returner Eddie Royal scored on a 65-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football against the Philadelphia Eagles while Sherrick McManis led the Bears in special teams tackles and finished top 10 in the NFL, recording 13 stops.

In 2015, Hightower first joined San Francisco as an assistant special teams coach. That season, Hightower helped the 49ers punt coverage unit rank eighth in the NFL allowing just 6.4 yards per return, while working with rookie punter Bradley Pinion. Kicker Phil Dawson was 10th in the NFL with an 88.9 field goal percentage (tied for the fourth highest percentage of his 17-year career at the time).

Hightower spent the 2014 season working on offense in Cleveland assisting the wide receivers after working as an assistant special teams coach for four seasons in Washington (2010-13). With Washington, he worked under longtime special teams coordinator Danny Smith. Hightower also spent two seasons (2012-13) as the assistant defensive backs coach with the Redskins. Over his four seasons in Washington, the Redskins were third in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 21.2 yards per return, including leading the league in 2010 and 2011. Hightower's coaching on special teams helped Lorenzo Alexander lead the NFL with 21 special teams tackles en route to being named the NFC's special teams player in the Pro Bowl, in 2012. Hightower was also instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath, who broke an NFL record by hitting his first 17 field goal attempts and led the NFL with a 94.4 field goal percentage.

As assistant defensive back coach, Hightower helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in interceptions (37) and tied for second in the NFL in interception returns for touchdowns (seven) over the two-year span. DeAngelo Hall led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (three). In 2012, the Redskins were first in the NFC in passes defended and had four returned touchdowns.

From 2006-08, Hightower was on Houston's coaching staff as a coaching assistant (2006-07) before being elevated to special teams assistant (2008). In Houston, he served under widely respected then-special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, who had more than 30 years of experience coaching special teams at the time. In 2008, Houston was 11th in the NFL in kickoff coverage (22.3 yards per return). Punt returner Jacoby Jones finished fifth in the NFL and second in Texans single-season annals with a 12.1 average, including a franchise single-season record two punt return touchdowns. Kicker Kris Brown set franchise records for points (124), field goals made (29) and field goal percentage (87.9). In 2007, the kickoff return unit featuring Jerome Mathis and Andre Davis became only the fourth team in NFL history to score four touchdowns on kickoff returns in a single season.

In between his time in Houston and Washington, Hightower spent the 2009 season as wide receivers coach at the University of Minnesota. Under his tutelage, Eric Decker was named a First-Team All-Big Ten selection that season before being selected by the Denver Broncos in the third round (87th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

A native of Houston, TX, Hightower earned his BA in marketing from the University of Texas where he was a three-year letterman and special teams standout for the Longhorns. He went to Austin as an academic scholar and later earned an athletic scholarship after walking on. Following his senior season, then head coach Mack Brown and his staff voted Hightower the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award.

Hightower and his wife, Lanet, have two sons Jaxson and Kaden and a daughter, Reagan.

ROBERT SALEH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

15TH NFL SEASON | 3RD WITH 49ERS

Robert Saleh (SAH-luh) is in his 15th NFL season and third as the 49ers defensive coordinator.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37.0 sacks, the most by the team in a single-season since 2013 (38.0 sacks). The defense ranked in the top half of the league in rushing yards per play (4.09 - seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5 - 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42 - 11th), net passing yards per game allowed (233.3 - 11th), yards per game allowed (346.6 - 13th), rushing yards per game allowed (113.4 - 14th) and passing yards per play (6.45 - 14th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017.

The 49ers defense was anchored by DL DeForest Buckner who led the team with a career-high 12.0 sacks, ranked second with 67 tackles and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12.0 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since LB Aldon Smith registered 19.5 sacks in 2012. Rookie LB Fred Warner started all 16 games and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies. Warner became the first rookie in the NFL since 2000 to begin his career with four consecutive games with 10-or-more tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics.

In 2017, Saleh led a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards per play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016-17 (Cle. - 0.76 yards per play; NYJ - 0.72 yards per play). The defense also finished the season holding their opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). It also marked the first time the 49ers held five straight opponents to under 100 yards rushing since Weeks 11-15 of the 2012 season. The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing ranked tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage.

Saleh's defense continued to improve throughout the season. Over the final eight weeks of the season, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640), tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62), fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (91.4), seventh in net yards allowed per game (314.4) and tied for eight in rushing touchdowns allowed (four).

In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain LB Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at MLB and led the team in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, LB Telvin Smith registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, the fifth lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the Jaguars and ranked fifth in the league with 133 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss. According to Jaguars team statistics, Smith registered a career-high 128 tackles in 2015.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped in the starting lineup and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, in 2014. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, LB J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions, two tackles for loss and five passes defended.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his three seasons with the Seahawks, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of LB K.J. Wright, LB Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP LB Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh spent six seasons with the Houston Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). In Houston, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to both rank among the league's top 10 tacklers, according to Gamebook Statistics.

Saleh joined the Texans after three seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He began his career as an offensive assistant/tight ends (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line (2003) at Michigan State University before spending one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line at Central Michigan University and a brief stint (2005) at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

A native of Dearborn, MI, Saleh attended Northern Michigan University where he started at tight end for four years. Saleh and his wife, Sanaa, have six children: four sons, Adam, Zane, Michael and Sam, and two daughters, Mila and Ella.

JOE WOODS

DEFENSIVE BACKS/PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

16TH NFL SEASON | 1ST WITH 49ERS

Joe Woods is in his first season as the 49ers defensive backs/passing game coordinator. He joined San Francisco after spending the previous four seasons with the Denver Broncos, two as the team's defensive coordinator (2017-18) and two as defensive backs coach (2015-16).

Throughout his NFL coaching career with the Broncos, Oakland Raiders (2014), Minnesota Vikings (2006-13) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-05), Woods has coached eight players to 15 total Pro Bowl selections. Additionally, his defensive back units have helped lead the NFL in passes defenses three times (2004 & 2015-16).

In 2018, Denver's defense finished in the top five in both passes defended (82) and interceptions (17). LB Von Miller and rookie LB Bradley Chubb combined for 26.5 sacks as Miller's 14.5 were the second-most in a single season in his career and Chubb's 12.0 set the Broncos franchise record for the most sacks by a rookie.

In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2017, the Broncos finished third in the NFL in total defense, allowing 290.0 yards per game. Denver and the Minnesota Vikings were the only two teams to rank in the top five in run defense (89.4 yards per game) and passing defense (200.6 yards per game) that season. Denver's fifth-ranked run defense improved by more than 40 yards per game after finishing 28th in the NFL the year prior. Woods' defense also held each of their opponents to less than 300 net yards passing.

Prior to his promotion to defensive coordinator, Woods coached Denver's defensive backs to first-place rankings in the NFL in passing yards per game allowed in both 2015 (199.6 yards per game) and 2016 (185.8 yards per game). The Broncos also held opponents to the lowest completion percentage (57.8), yards per attempt (5.99) and passer rating (74.3) during those two seasons. From 2015-16, the Broncos secondary led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (seven), as Denver's defensive backs found the end zone on six interception returns and one fumble return in that timespan.

Each of Denver's four starting defensive backs made at least one Pro Bowl playing for Woods from 2015-16, including CB Chris Harris Jr. (2015-16) and CB Aqib Talib (2015-16), who were also named AP First-Team All-Pro selections in 2016. S T.J. Ward (2015) and S Darian Stewart (2016) also earned Pro Bowl honors while playing for Woods.

In 2016, the Broncos secondary held opponents to the fewest net passing yards per game (185.8), yards per attempt (5.8) and passing touchdowns (13) in the NFL. Quarterbacks registered a 69.7 passer rating against Denver in 2016, as the Broncos joined the 2013 Seattle Seahawks as the only teams between 2012-16 to hold opponents under a 70.0 rating for an entire season.

Woods joined the Broncos as the team's defensive backs coach in 2015 as Denver finished first in the NFL in net passing yards per game allowed (199.6 yards per game), while the defensive backfield accounted for 11 interceptions, 56 passes defended, nine forced fumbles and four touchdowns. The Broncos registered three interceptions and allowed only one passing touchdown during Denver's postseason run that ended with a 24-10 victory over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl 50 at Levi's Stadium.

Woods coached the Oakland Raiders defensive backs in 2014, working with veteran S Charles Woodson, who led the team with 160 tackles and four interceptions in his 17th NFL season. He also worked with CB D.J. Hayden, as he finished the season with 47 tackles and one interception making starts in eight of his 10 games played for the Raiders.

Before joining the Raiders, Woods spent eight seasons coaching defensive backs for the Minnesota Vikings (2006-13). The Vikings finished in the NFL's top 10 defenses in four of his first five years with the team, winning consecutive NFC North Division titles from 2008-09 and making an appearance in the NFC Championship following the 2009 season.

With Minnesota, Woods worked with first-round CB Xavier Rhodes, who appeared in 13 games (six starts) and set a Vikings rookie record with 23 passes defended in 2013. CB Antoine Winfield earned all three of his Pro Bowl selections (2008-10) throughout his career playing for Woods, recording 14 interceptions and 58 passes defended in his six years with the Vikings. Woods originally went to Minnesota in 2006 as then-defensive coordinator Mike Tomlin added him to his staff after the two worked together in Tampa Bay from 2004-05.

During his two years with Tampa Bay (2004-05), Woods coached a secondary that was led by CB Ronde Barber and CB Brian Kelly. Barber, who was named to the NFL's 2000s All-Decade team, earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors following each of his two seasons playing for Woods. In 2005, the Buccaneers had the NFL's top defensive unit (277.8 yards per game), which included the league's sixth-ranked passing defense (183.1 yards per game). Tampa Bay finished 11-5 and won the NFC South Division title. Barber set a single-season franchise record for most tackles (120) by a cornerback and led the club with five interceptions.

In 2004, Tampa Bay led the NFL after allowing 161.2 net passing yards per game. The Buccaneers also held opposing quarterbacks to a 77.2 passer rating. Barber was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after finishing the season as one of just four NFL cornerbacks to register at least three interceptions and 3.0 sacks on the season.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Woods was the defensive backs coach for three seasons (2001-03) at Western Michigan University. He held the same position at Hofstra University from 1998-2000, helping the school make consecutive trips to the 1-AA playoff quarterfinals. Woods also served as defensive backs coach at Kent State University (1997) and Grand Valley State University (1994-96), and spent the spring of 1994 coaching linebackers at Northwestern State University. He began his coaching career as a defensive backs coach at Muskingum College in 1992 and later became a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan University in 1993.

Woods played cornerback and safety during his collegiate career at Illinois State University. He was a team captain as a senior in 1991 and earned First-Team All-Gateway Conference honors following his final season. He also earned a degree from the school in criminal justice in 1992. A native of North Vandergrift, PA, Woods and his wife, Ellen, have three children: two daughters, Brianna and Danari, and one son, Geno.

JON EMBREE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS

14TH NFL SEASON (3 PLAYING/11 COACHING) | 3RD WITH 49ERS

Jon Embree is in his third season as the 49ers assistant head coach/tight ends coach.

In 2018, TE George Kittle was named Second-Team All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl in only his second season as he led the team with 88 receptions for 1,377 yards and five touchdowns, setting the NFL record for the most receiving yards in a single season by a tight end. Kittle also became the first tight end in franchise history to surpass 1,000 receiving yards in a single season. His 88 receptions also set the franchise record for the most receptions by a tight end in a single season.

In 2017, the 49ers tight ends combined for 66 receptions for 866 yards and six touchdowns. Rookie TE George Kittle led the tight end group with 43 receptions for 515 yards and two touchdowns. His 515 receiving yards ranked second in the NFL among rookie tight ends and were the most by a 49ers rookie tight end since the merger in 1970. Additionally, TE Garrett Celek set a new single-season career high with four touchdown receptions.

In 2016 with Tampa Bay, Embree helped TE Cameron Brate establish career highs in three major categories with 57 receptions for 660 yards and eight touchdowns, which tied for the most in the NFL. Combined with one touchdown each from TE Austin Seferian-Jenkins, TE Brandon Myers and TE Alan Cross, Buccaneers tight ends caught 11 touchdowns, the most for the team since 1985, when Tampa Bay tight ends combined for 13 touchdown receptions.

In 2015, Seferian-Jenkins was limited to seven games, but still improved his receiving numbers from his rookie season, recording 21 receptions for 338 yards and four touchdowns. Seferian-Jenkins' 16.1 receiving average was the second-highest of any tight end in the NFL (New England TE Rob Gronkowski - 16.3 yards per reception) with at least 20 receptions. Embree also oversaw the development of Brate in his first year, who started the season on the team's practice squad but finished the year with 23 receptions for 288 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2014, Embree worked with Seferian-Jenkins who recorded 21 receptions for 221 yards and two touchdowns in nine games. His reception total and receiving yards were the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie tight end, while his two touchdown receptions tied for the third-most.

Prior to Tampa Bay, Embree spent the 2013 season as the tight ends coach with Cleveland Browns. With Embree's guidance, TE Jordan Cameron earned a Pro Bowl berth and ranked second in the NFL in receiving yards (917) by a tight end behind New Orleans TE Jimmy Graham (1,215) and third in receptions (80) by a tight end behind Graham (86) and Atlanta Falcons TE Tony Gonzalez (80).

Embree joined the Buccaneers after spending two years (2011-12) as head coach at the University of Colorado and one season (2010) as the tight ends coach for the Washington Redskins. That season, TE Chris Cooley ranked second in the NFL in receptions (77) by a tight end behind Dallas Cowboys TE Jason Witten (94) and third in receiving yards (849) by a tight end behind Witten (1,002) and San Francisco 49ers TE Vernon Davis (914).

Embree first entered the NFL coaching ranks in 2006, where he spent three seasons (2006-08) as the tight ends coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2008, TE Tony Gonzalez paced all NFL tight ends with 96 receptions for 1,058 yards and 10 touchdowns. In 2007, Gonzalez led all tight ends with 99 receptions for 1,172 yards while adding 5 touchdowns. In 2006, Gonzalez ranked second among all tight ends in both receptions (73) and receiving yards (900). Gonzalez was named to the Pro Bowl and All-Pro in each of his three seasons working with Embree.

Prior to joining the NFL, Embree spent 13 years at the collegiate level, including three seasons at UCLA, where he served as assistant head coach/wide receivers (2003) and assistant head coach/tight ends (2004-05).

From 1993-2002, Embree was at the University of Colorado where he spent 10 years serving in a variety of roles. He was the tight ends coach for two seasons (1993-94) before moving to defensive ends coach for four years (1995-98). Embree returned to his role as tight ends coach for two years in 1999 before spending two seasons as the wide receivers/kickers coach (2001-02).

Embree began his coaching career at Colorado as a volunteer assistant coach in 1991 before spending one year as the receivers/tight ends coach at Douglas County (CO) High School.

Originally a 6th round pick (166th overall) of the Los Angeles Rams in 1987, Embree appeared in 13 games over two seasons with LA before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989 while with the Seattle Seahawks.

A native of Englewood, CA, Embree lettered four seasons (1983-86) as a tight end at the University of Colorado and ended his career in the top five in both career receptions (80) and yards (1,116) along with five touchdowns. He graduated with a degree in communications in 1987. Embree and his wife, Natalyn, have three children: two sons, Taylor and Connor, and one daughter, Hannah. JOHN BENTON

OFFENSIVE LINE

16TH NFL SEASON | 3RD WITH 49ERS

John Benton, a veteran of 32 years of coaching experience, including 15 seasons in the NFL, is in his third season as the 49ers offensive line coach.

Under Benton's tutelage in 2018, the 49ers offensive line was anchored by veteran T Joe Staley and 2018 first round draft choice Mike McGlinchey, who both started all 16 games. The 49ers offensive line, featuring Staley, McGlinchey, OL Mike Person, C/G Weston Richburg and OL Laken Tomlinson, combined to make 79 of 80 starts. The line helped pave the way for RB Matt Breida, who ranked fourth in the NFL averaging 5.3 yards per carry.

In 2017, the 49ers offensive line continued to improve throughout the season. Anchored by T Joe Staley, who was selected to the Pro Bowl, the offensive line helped the 49ers offense rank 12th in the NFL, averaging 349.2 yards per game. San Francisco also registered 3,925 net passing yards, the most by the team since 2000 (4,239).

In 2016, Benton served as an assistant offensive line coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Under the guidance of Benton and assistant head coach/offensive line coach Doug Marrone, the Jaguars offensive line allowed 34 sacks, the fewest sacks allowed in a single season since 2007 (31) and 17 fewer than the team allowed in 2015. Seeing improvement as the season progressed, the Jaguars offense ranked fifth in rushing yards per game (124.5) during the second half of the 2016 season (weeks 9-16).

Prior to Jacksonville, Benton spent two seasons (2014-15) as the offensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins. In 2015, the Dolphins averaged 4.35 yards per carry, good for ninth in the NFL while RB Lamar Miller tied a career high with eight rushing touchdowns.

In 2014, Benton's offensive line helped the Dolphins offense produce 361 first downs, tied for the second-most in franchise history and the most since 1985, when the team had the same amount. The line paved the way for Miller, who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark (1,099) for the first time in his career, and helped protect QB Ryan Tannehill, whose 4,045 passing yards were the most by a Miami quarterback since Dan Marino (4,453 yards) in 1994. Miller and Tannehill combined to become the first duo in franchise history to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season.

Prior to Miami, Benton served as the offensive line coach for the Houston Texans for eight seasons (2006-13). With the Texans, Benton's offensive line was instrumental in establishing one of the NFL's top-ranked offensive attacks, setting franchise marks for rushing yards (2,448) in 2011, and passing yards (4,654) and total offense (6,129 yards) in 2009. Behind All-Pro T Duane Brown and All-Pro C Chris Myers, Houston's offensive line helped All-Pro RB Arian Foster become the 13th fastest player in NFL history to reach 5,000 career rushing yards. Additionally, Foster registered three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (2010-12) and a franchise-record 25 career 100-yard rushing games.

In 2012, Benton's offensive line anchored Houston's third consecutive 2,000-yard rushing season as Foster led the NFL with 15 rushing touchdowns. Foster surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the third consecutive season behind the play of Myers and Brown. Houston's offense ranked seventh in yards per game (372.1) and eighth in points per game (26.0) while allowing 28 sacks, the fourth fewest in the AFC.

The Texans offensive line helped pave the way for a franchise record 2,448 rushing yards in 2011. Excelling in the playoffs, the Houston run game averaged 159.5 yards per game in helping the Texans reach the Divisional round. For the first time in franchise history, the Texans had two players eclipse 900 rushing yards in the same season as Foster recorded 1,224 yards and RB Ben Tate notched 942 yards on the ground. Both Foster and Tate rushed for 100-or-more yards in the same game twice during the 2010 season, making Houston just the sixth team since 1985 to accomplish the feat. In Benton's system, Myers was selected to his first Pro Bowl while Brown was selected as a Second-Team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

Benton's unit paved the way for another record-setting season for Houston's offense in 2010. The Texans ranked third in the NFL with a franchise-record 6,186 yards of offense (386.6 yards per game) and helped Foster lead the NFL in rushing yards (1,616) and total touchdowns (18; 16 rushing, two receiving), each setting a new single-season franchise record.

In 2009, the line provided protection for the NFL's passing leader, QB Matt Schaub, who threw for 4,770 yards and 29 touchdowns. The offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average 383.1 yards per game. The passing attack led the NFL with 290.9 yards per game while Benton's offensive line group gave up the fifth-fewest sacks in the league (25).

Benton's line featured the same starting lineup for all 16 games, a first in Texans history, in 2008. The offensive line paved the way for rookie running back Steve Slaton to set a then-franchise record with 1,282 rushing yards, while the offense ranked third in the NFL with 6,113 total yards.

In 2007, Benton's offensive line group allowed 22 sacks, the lowest total allowed in franchise history. In his first season in Houston, Benton oversaw an offensive line that surrendered 25 fewer sacks (43) than in 2005 (68).

Prior to joining the Texans in 2006, Benton spent two seasons (2004-05) with the St. Louis Rams, coaching an offensive line that was anchored by All-Pro T Orlando Pace. In 2005, the Rams offensive line helped All-Pro RB Stephen Jackson rush for 1,046, the first 1,000-yard season of his career.

Prior to the NFL, Benton spent 17 years coaching at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colorado State (1987-90) before moving on to California University (PA), where he coached the offensive line and served as the recruiting coordinator (1990-94).

Benton returned to Colorado State in 1995, where he spent nine years as offensive line coach (1995-99) and co-offensive coordinator (2000-03).

A native of Durango, CO, Benton was a four-year starter as an offensive lineman at Colorado State (1983-86) and earned honorable mention All-WAC honors during his junior and senior seasons. He was named to the WAC's All-Academic team as a senior in 1986. Benton and his wife, Nicole, have two children: Gabrielle and Paige.

Johnny Holland is in his third season with the 49ers and second as the run game specialist/outside linebackers coach. He previously served as the team's linebackers coach in 2017.

In 2018, Holland helped the 49ers run defense rank seventh in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per play (4.09). The defense also improved from t-21st in the NFL in 2017 to 14th in rushing yards allowed per game (113.4). The 113.4 rushing yards allowed per game were the fewest allowed by the team since 2014 (100.8). Under Holland's tutelage, LB Mark Nzeocha set career highs in tackles (17), sacks (1.0), forced fumbles (one) and passes defended (one).

Holland worked with the 49ers linebackers in 2017, passing on wisdom from his seven-year playing career and almost two decades of coaching experience. Rookie LB Reuben Foster finished second on the team with 72 tackles and LB Brock Coyle played in all 16 games, setting career highs in starts (10), tackles (62), forced fumbles (one) and passes defended (one), while also adding 0.5 sack.

In 2016, Holland was the inside linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns. He worked with a linebacking corps that was led by LBs Christian Kirksey and Demario Davis. In his first season as a full-time starter, Kirksey registered a career-high 143 tackles, the fifth-most in the NFL according to game book statistics. After signing with the Browns as a free agent, Davis finished second on the team with 99 tackles.

Holland went to Cleveland following three seasons (2013-15) in the Canadian Football League (CFL). He served as the linebackers coach with the B.C. Lions from 2014-15 and the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2013, helping guide the Roughriders to a Grey Cup win in his lone season with the team.

Before his time in the CFL, Holland was linebackers coach with the Oakland Raiders (2012) after one season (2011) with the Virginia Destroyers of the United Football League (UFL), helping the team win the league championship.

Holland served as linebackers coach for five seasons (2006-10) with the Houston Texans. Under Holland's tutelage, LB DeMeco Ryan (2006) and LB Brian Cushing (2009) each earned Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. In 2009, Cushing registered 133 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, four sacks and four interceptions as the Texans reached nine wins, the highest total in franchise history at the time. In 2006, Ryan finished with 156 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, the most by an NFL rookie in 20 years.

Prior to working in Houston, Holland spent three seasons with the Detroit Lions. He began with Detroit as a defensive assistant from 2003-04 before moving to linebackers coach in 2005. He also spent three seasons with Seattle as the team's assistant special teams/assistant strength and conditioning coach (2000) and linebackers coach (2001-02).

Holland began coaching in the NFL as a defensive quality control coach with the Green Bay Packers from 1995-97. In 1998, he coached the Packers special teams and later spent one season (1999) as the team's linebackers coach. He was part of Green Bay's staff that won back-to-back NFC Championships, including a victory in Super Bowl XXXI.

Originally a second-round (41st overall) draft pick by the Packers in the 1987 NFL Draft, Holland played seven seasons (1987-93) with the Packers where he registered 100-or-more tackles in each of his final six seasons. In 1992, he led Green Bay with 145 tackles and helped the team to its first playoff victory in 11 years. Holland was inducted in the Packers Hall of Fame in 2001.

A native of Hempstead, TX, Holland was a four-year letterman (1983-86) at Texas A&M University where he led the Aggies in tackles in each of his final three seasons. He was enshrined in the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1993 as well as the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000.

2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND WITH 49ERS

Chris Kiffin is in his second season as the 49ers pass rush specialist. He joined San Francisco after spending the 2017 season as the co-defensive coordinator at Florida Atlantic University.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37.0 sacks, the most by the team in a single-season since 2013 (38.0 sacks). The 37.0 sacks were also an improvement from 30.0 sacks in 2017. Under Kiffin's guidance, DL DeForest Buckner was selected to his first Pro Bowl as he registered a career-high 12.0 sacks. His 12.0 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (LB Aldon Smith - 19.5 sacks). Additionally, DL Ronald Blair III and DL Cassius Marsh ranked tied for second on the team and each set career-highs with 5.5 sacks apiece.

With Florida Atlantic in 2017, Kiffin played a vital role in improving the total defense from being ranked 123rd to 63rd nationally, while the Owls finished the season second in interceptions (20), 23rd in red zone defense (77.0%), 24th in sacks (38) and 34th in scoring defense (22.7 points per game). Under Kiffin, LB Azeez Al-Shaair led the Conference USA in tackles (147) and broke FAU's career total tackles mark (354). Al-Shaair, as well as S Jalen Young, who finished second nationally in interceptions (seven), and CB Shelton Lewis all earned First-Team All-Conference USA honors. Kiffin was named a finalist for the Broyles Award, recognizing college football's top assistant coach.

Kiffin spent the 2012-16 seasons as the defensive line coach/defensive recruiting coordinator at the University of Mississippi. As defensive line coach, Kiffin worked with DE Marquis Haynes in 2016, who entered the year ranked as the 81st-best collegiate player overall by NFL.com. Haynes finished his junior season with seven sacks, 11 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles. In 2015, Kiffin coached Hornung Award finalist and First-Team All-American DE Robert Nkemdiche, who was later taken in the first round (29th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals. Ole Miss defensive linemen combined for 24.0 sacks in 2015, led by 10.0 from Haynes, then a sophomore, who tied a school record.

In 2014, Nkemdiche was an All-America selection by multiple outlets following his junior season after registering seven tackles for loss and three sacks. Haynes led the team with nine tackles for loss and set an Ole Miss freshman record with 7.5 sacks on his way to Freshman All-America honors. The year prior, Nkemdiche ranked third on the team and second among SEC freshmen in tackles for loss (eight) and was named 2013 First-Team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman. In his first season at Ole Miss in 2012, Kiffin coached DE C.J. Johnson who notched 6.5 sacks, while NT Issac Gross was named First-Team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman after he registered 10 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.

Kiffin spent the 2011 season at Arkansas State as the school's defensive line coach. The Red Wolves led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.5 yards per game) and scoring defense (20.8 points per game), ranking in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. At ASU, DE Brandon Joiner earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year honors as he tied for third in the nation in sacks (13) and 10th in tackles for loss (19) under Kiffin. He also coached DL Dorvus Woods, who earned Second-Team All-Sun Belt honors.

Prior to his time at USC, Kiffin was an offensive quality control coach at the University of Nebraska for two seasons (2008-09) after spending the 2007 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Mississippi. Before his first stint at Ole Miss, Kiffin was a quality control intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2006 where he worked with the defensive line during offseason OTAs and mini-camps. KRIS KOCUREK

DEFENSIVE LINE

13TH NFL SEASON (2 PLAYING/11 COACHING) | 1ST WITH 49ERS

Kris Kocurek (KO-SIR-ick) is in his first season as the 49ers defensive line coach. He joined San Francisco after spending the 2018 season as the defensive line coach with the Miami Dolphins.

With the Dolphins, Kocurek coached DE Robert Quinn and DE Cameron Wake who registered 6.5 and 6.0 sacks respectively. Quinn's 6.5 sacks in his first season with Miami were his second-most in a single season since 2015.

Prior to Miami, Kocurek spent nine years with the Detroit Lions, first as the team's assistant defensive line coach (2009), followed by eight seasons as defensive line coach (2010-17). In his first season leading the defensive line, Kocurek played a vital role in DT Ndamukong Suh's Defensive Rookie of the Year award and helped develop him into a three-time AP First-Team All-Pro (2010 & 2013-14) and three-time Pro Bowl (2011 & 2013-14) selection. Suh's 36.0 sacks as a member of the Lions are the most in franchise history among defensive tackles.

While Kocurek was the Lions defensive line coach from 2010-17, Detroit's defensive linemen registered 250.0 sacks, which was the fourth-most by a defensive line in the NFL during that timespan. His defensive linemen also ranked fourth in forced fumbles (57) and ninth in passes defended (82) over that eight-year period as well.

Under Kocurek's tutelage in 2017, DE Ezekiel Ansah tied for eighth in the NFL with 12.0 sacks. During that same year, DE Anthony Zettel started all 16 games and finished with a career-high 6.5 sacks in his second NFL season while DT A'Shawn Robinson ranked eighth among NFL interior defensive linemen with 53 tackles and tied for the league lead with six passes defended.

The 2016 Lions earned an NFC Wild Card berth as Kocurek helped develop undrafted free agent, DE Kerry Hyder, into the team leader with 8.0 sacks in 16 games played.

In 2015, Ansah set a career high with 14.5 sacks for the Lions. His sack total led the NFC and ranked third in the NFL, as Ansah earned his first Pro Bowl selection and AP Second-Team All-Pro honors. Ansah also forced four fumbles, which was tied for second in the NFL.

In 2014, Kocurek assisted a Lions defense that finished the season ranking first in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (69.3). Detroit's 69.3 rushing yards allowed per game was the second-lowest in the NFL over the previous 10 seasons, trailing Pittsburgh's 2010 defense (62.8). The Lions ranked eighth in the NFL with 42.0 sacks that season as Detroit earned an NFC Wild Card berth after an 11-5 finish.

Suh earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection in 2013 after ranking second among NFL defensive tackles with six passes defended to go along with 5.5 sacks. The Lions defense allowed 99.8 rushing yards per game, ranking sixth in the NFL. Ansah led all NFL rookies with a team-high 8.0 sacks.

In 2012, Suh was second among NFL interior defensive linemen with 8.0 sacks and earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors and his second Pro Bowl selection, while DE Cliff Avril led the team with 9.5 sacks.

The 2011 Lions finished tied for 10th in the NFL with 41.0 sacks. Detroit went 10-6 and earned an NFC Wild Card spot. Suh again earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors as Avril led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with 11.0 sacks. His sack total was the second-highest of Avril's career in a single season.

Kocurek was promoted to defensive line coach in 2010, where he helped the Lions finish sixth in the NFL with 44.0 sacks, an improvement from 29th in the league (26.0 sacks) the year prior. He worked closely with Detroit's first-round pick, Suh, who led the team and all NFL defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks that season, the most by an NFL rookie interior defensive lineman since 2003, when Minnesota's Kevin Williams registered 10.5. Suh's 10.0 sacks were the most by a Lions defensive tackle since Henry Thomas had 10.5 in 1995. Suh's 66 tackles were fourth on the team and fifth among NFL defensive tackles. He became the first rookie defensive tackle to ever earn AP All-Pro honors and the first rookie defensive lineman to do so since Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999. He was also named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, becoming the sixth defensive tackle to win the honor and first since Miami's Tim Bowens in 1994.

Kocurek originally entered the NFL in 2009 as Detroit's assistant defensive line coach. He helped DT Sammie Hill start as a rookie after being a fourth-round selection from Division II Stillman College. Hill finished the season with 26 tackles and two fumble recoveries in 13 games.

Prior to Detroit, Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Stephen F. Austin State University (2008), assistant head coach/defensive line coach at West Texas A&M University (2007) and defensive line coach at Texas A&M University-Commerce (2006). At West Texas A&M in 2007, the Buffaloes won the Lone Star Conference and led the league in scoring defense (19.5 points per game). At Texas A&M University-Commerce in 2006, Kocurek helped the team's defense lead the LSC in scoring and total yards allowed. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M University-Kingsville (2004-05) and a graduate assistant at Texas Tech (2003).

A native of Caldwell and Deanville, TX, Kocurek was originally drafted in the seventh-round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks as a defensive lineman, and spent two seasons (2001-02) in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans. Kocurek played collegiately at Texas Tech, where he was a three-time All-Big 12 selection (1998-2000). He was selected team captain and named the team's defensive player of the year as a senior in 2000. He earned his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech and his master's at Texas A&M University-Kingsville.

The units also registered a blocked punt recovered for a touchdown, blocked two kicks, returning one blocked extra point attempt for the first defensive two-point conversion since the NFL implemented 2015 rule changes.

In 2012, the Bills led the NFL in punt return average (17.1 average), registered two return touchdowns and ranked fourth in kickoff return average (27.0). In 2011, the Bills kickoff coverage units held opponents to 20.4 yards per return, also leading the NFL. The punt return unit finished tied for first in the AFC and third in the NFL with a 12.7 average.

Prior to his time in Buffalo, Kwan spent six seasons with the Detroit Lions (2004-09), his second stint with the team. In those six years, the Lions blocked 16 kicks, the second-most in the NFL over that timespan. Kwan served as Detroit's special teams coordinator from 2008-09. In 2009, the Lions ranked fifth in the NFC in average starting field position (27.0 yard line) and tied for fourth in the NFL with three special teams takeaways. In 2008, the Lions led the NFL with five special teams takeaways and a plus-four turnover margin. That same season, K Jason Hanson kicked a NFL-high eight field goals from 50-or-more yards.

From 2001-03, Kwan worked as a special teams assistant/defensive quality control coach for the Arizona Cardinals. He went to Arizona following his first stint with the Lions from 1997-2000 as an offensive and special teams assistant. He first entered the NFL in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the San Diego Chargers and served as an offensive and special teams assistant with the Chargers from 1991-96.

A native of Phoenix, AZ, Kwan played baseball collegiately at San Diego State University for three years and earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He spent one year at South Mountain Community College (Phoenix, AZ) prior to attending San Diego State where he was the first freshman to be named captain of the baseball team.

Kwan attended Phoenix Camelback High School where he set school career records for batting average, runs scored, stolen bases, on-base percentage and walks. In his junior year, Camelback was the top-ranked team in the state and was ranked 16th in the nation. He earned all-state honors twice as a shortstop and doubled as the school's quarterback, where he set the school single-game passing record (327 yards).

RUNNING BACKS

24TH NFL SEASON | 3RD WITH 49ERS

Robert Turner Jr. is in his third season as the 49ers running backs coach after spending the previous two seasons (2015-16) in the same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. A veteran of 24 NFL seasons, Turner is responsible for overseeing three of the top nine rookie rushing seasons in the NFL since 1970 [Alfred Morris - 1,613 rushing yards in 2012 (fourth); Clinton Portis - 1,508 rushing yards in 2002 (seventh); Mike Anderson - 1,500 rushing yards in 2000 (eighth)].

Last season, the 49ers rushed for 1,902 yards and seven touchdowns on 423 carries. The team's 118.9 rushing yards per game ranked 13th in the NFL and seventh in the NFC in 2018. RB Matt Breida led the team with 153 carries for 814 yards (5.3 average) and three touchdowns. His 5.3 average ranked fourth in the NFL in 2018 and was the highest rushing average by a 49ers running back (minimum 100 carries) since 2006 (RB Frank Gore - 5.4 average). Additionally, FB Kyle Juszczyk earned Pro Bowl honors for the third consecutive season.

In 2017, the 49ers rushed for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns on 408 carries. San Francisco ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in both rushing touchdowns (15) and carries of 10-or-more yards (53). FB Kyle Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season and first time as a member of the 49ers and rookie RB Matt Breida averaged 4.43 yards per carry, ranking 10th in the NFL (minimum 100 carries).

In 2016, the Falcons ranked fifth in the league in rushing yards per game (120.5) and tied for third in the NFL with 20 rushing touchdowns. RB Devonta Freeman registered 1,079 rushing yards and 13 total touchdowns, the fifth most among running backs, to earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Freeman also ranked fifth among running backs with 54 receptions for 462 yards. Part of a two-pronged attack, RB Tevin Coleman registered 520 rushing yards, 421 receiving yards and 11 total touchdowns on the year.

In 2015, Freeman earned his first All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections as he was one of seven players to eclipse the 1,000 rushing yard mark (1,056) and tied for the NFL lead with 11 rushing touchdowns. Freeman's 1,634 total yards from scrimmage ranked fifth among all players during the 2015 season.

Prior to Atlanta, Turner spent five years (2010-14) as assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Washington Redskins. In 2014, RB Alfred Morris registered his third consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,074 yards) under Turner with eight touchdowns en route to be named to the Pro Bowl for the second straight year.

In 2013, Washington ranked fifth in the NFL with 135.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 61 rushes of 10-or-more yards, the fourth most in the league. Morris finished the year ranked fourth in the NFL with 1,275 rushing yards to earn his first career Pro Bowl berth.

In 2012, Washington set a franchise record with 2,709 rushing yards, led the NFL 169.3 rushing yards per game and ranked second in yards per carry (5.22) and rushing touchdowns (22). Turner helped Morris set a franchise record with 1,613 rushing yards, as a rookie. Morris' 1,613 rushing yards were the fourth most by rookie in NFL history (Eric Dickerson - 1,808 yards in 1983; George Roberts - 1,674 yards in 1981; Ezekiel Elliot - 1,631 yards in 2016).

In 2011, Turner oversaw the development of rookie RBs Roy Helu and Evan Royster. Helu finished the year as the team's leading rusher with 640 yards, the second-highest yardage total among rookies that season. In Weeks 12-14, Helu became the first rookie running back in Washington history to post three consecutive 100-yard games. In weeks 16 and 17, Royster rushed for more than 100 yards in each game, making Helu and Royster the first rookie running back tandem in NFL history to each post consecutive 100-yard rushing games in a season.

During his first season in Washington, Turner helped develop RB Ryan Torain into a feature back as he posted career highs in attempts (164), rushing yards (742) and touchdowns (four). Under Turner, Torain ran for 172 yards against Tampa Bay in Week 14, the 10th-highest total in Redskins history.

Turner came to Washington after spending the previous 15 seasons (1995-2009) as the running backs coach of the Denver Broncos, where he was part of teams that earned two Super Bowl championships (Super Bowl XXXII and Super Bowl XXXIII), three AFC West titles (1996, 1998, 2005) and seven playoff berths (1996-98, 2000, 2003-05).

Turner worked with 2017 NFL Hall of Fame inductee RB Terrell Davis, who was named AP Most Valuable Player (1998) and AP Offensive Player of the Year (1996, 1998) while helping lead the Broncos to back-to-back Super Bowl titles. During his 7-year (1995-2001) NFL career, all under Turner's tutelage, Davis rushed for 7,607 yards and 60 touchdowns, while delivering 1,140 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns in only eight playoff games.

Davis' 97.5 rushing yards per game in the regular season is the third-highest total in league history among running backs who recorded rushing attempts in at least 75 games, while his 142.5 rushing yards per game in the postseason is the highest average in league history for running backs who had registered rushing attempts in at least five playoff games.

During his 15 seasons in Denver, the Broncos produced the most rushing yards (32,829) and the most total yards (86,523) in the NFL. Over that span, six different running backs rushed for at least 1,000 yards in a single season, including Davis (four times), Tatum Bell, Reuben Droughns, Clinton Portis (twice), Mike Anderson (twice) and Olandis Gary.

Turner helped the Broncos record 11 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons during his tenure, a total that includes a four-year streak of having a different 1,000-yard rusher each year (2003-06). Under Turner, the Broncos ranked among the NFL's top five in rushing during 10 of his 15 seasons, with 16 different running backs posting at least one 100-yard rushing game in the regular season or playoffs.

Before his arrival in Denver, Turner was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and running backs coach for four seasons (1991-94) at Purdue. During his tenure, the Boilermakers running game and entire offense improved each season, going from 106th in the nation in 1990 to 12th in 1994, a season in which the team rushed for a school record 36 rushing touchdowns. That year, Turner guided All-Big Ten second-team selection Mike Alstott (1,188 yards and 14 TDs), the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1976. In 1991, Turner coached the Big Ten Freshman of the Year RB Corey Rogers.

Prior to Purdue, Turner served as the running backs coach for two seasons (1989-90) at Ohio State University, during which time the Buckeyes went to two bowl games and had one of the most prolific running games in the Big Ten.

Turner's 1990 backfield was highlighted by Big Ten and National Freshman of the Year Robert Smith, who finished the season with 1,126 yards and eight touchdowns. In 1989, the Buckeyes led the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (241.0), total offense (418.1 yards per game) and scoring (29.5).

Before his stint at Ohio State, Turner coached the running backs at Fresno State (1983-88) and at his alma mater, Indiana State (1975-82). At Fresno State, he coached future pros RB Lavale Thomas (Packers), RB Anthony Mosley (Bears) and RB Aaron Craver (Dolphins, Broncos, Chargers, Saints).

Turner began his collegiate coaching career at Indiana State, where he spent eight years (1975-82) on staff. He began as running backs and quarterbacks coach while also working as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator in 1975. In 1976, Turner became defensive backs coach in addition to strength and conditioning coordinator for two seasons before working as the team's running backs coach and special teams coordinator for four years (1978-81). During his final year at Indiana State in 1982, he coached defensive backs and served as special teams coordinator.

During his tenure on Indiana State's coaching staff, Turner recruited and coached two All-American defensive backs in Wayne Davis (1984) and Vencie Glenn (1985), both of whom went on to be second round draft picks. He also helped ISU running back Vincent Allen post a 1,000-yard rushing season (1,022) in 1975.

Turner began his coaching career at Haworth (Kokomo, IN) High School as an assistant with the football and basketball teams from 1972-74.

A native of East Chicago, IN, Turner was an all-conference defensive back at Indiana State, where he played both football and basketball. Turner ranks tied for second in school history with 16 career interceptions, a total which includes nine in 1969, which is tied for second most in a single season in team history. He earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana State in health and physical education in 1972 before receiving his master's degree from the school in education/administration in 1976.

Turner attended East Chicago Washington High School, where he played four sports (football, basketball, baseball and track). In 1993 he was inducted into the Indiana High School Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team and was selected to the East Chicago Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

Turner and his wife, Kimberly, have three daughters: Nacole, Krishna and Kiaana.

In his first season on the Texans staff in 2017, Hopkins was named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro for the first time in his career after finishing with 96 receptions for 1,378 yards and a franchise-record 13 touchdowns, making him one of 14 players in NFL history, at that time, to post those numbers in a season and the third-youngest ever to do so. Hopkins finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL in receptions (96), fourth in receiving yards (1,378), first in receiving touchdowns (13), fourth in receiving first downs (69), first in receptions of 25-or-more yards (17) and third in 100-yard receiving games (five).

In 2017, Hopkins (13 receiving touchdowns) and WR Will Fuller V (seven) combined for 20 receiving touchdowns, which was the most by any pair of teammates in the NFL on the season and the most by any pair of teammates in franchise history. The Texans had two receivers with seven-or-more touchdown receptions in a season one other time in franchise history (2008). Fuller V registered 28 receptions for 423 yards (15.1 average) and a single-season career-high seven touchdowns in 10 games. He scored a touchdown on seven of his first 11 receptions of the season.

The Texans scored 30-or-more points six times in 2017, which tied the franchise record for the most games with 30-or-more points in a season (2012). Houston also threw for the third-most passing touchdowns in a single season in franchise history (28) and the most completions of 25-or-more yards in a single season in franchise history (38).

Welker played 12 seasons in the NFL with the San Diego Chargers (2004), Miami Dolphins (2004-06), New England Patriots (2007-12), Denver Broncos (2013-14) and St. Louis Rams (2015). He appeared in 175 games (102 starts) and registered 903 receptions for 9,924 yards and 50 touchdowns. On special teams, he returned 183 kickoffs for 4,138 yards (22.6 average) and one touchdown along with 264 punts for 2,584 yards. He also saw action in 13 postseason contests (11 starts) and added 88 receptions for 866 yards and five touchdowns.

One of the most decorated undrafted players of all time, Welker was a four-time AP All-Pro [First-Team (2009 & 2011) & Second-Team (2007-08)] honoree, selected to the Pro Bowl five times (2009-13) and led the NFL in receptions three times (2007, 2009 & 2011). He also holds the record for most receptions by an undrafted wide receiver in NFL history (903) to go along with 9,924 career receiving yards and 50 career receiving touchdowns. Welker appeared in three Super Bowls (XLII, XLVI & XLVIII) throughout his career and registered 26 receptions for 247 yards.

Welker was selected to the Pro Bowl or All-Pro Team in every season with the Patriots. He holds numerous franchise records for New England, including the five highest single-season reception totals in Patriots history (2007-09 & 2011-12) and the franchise record for receiving yards in a season (1,569 in 2011). Additionally, he holds the franchise records for most receptions in a single game (16), most receiving yards in a single game (217), longest reception (99 yards) and most career receptions (672). Welker was the first player in NFL history to put together five seasons with 100-or-more receptions and is still the only player in NFL history with five years with 110-or-more receptions.

From 2004-06, Welker put up the second most all-purpose yards (6,216) in NFL history in a player's first three seasons, trailing only Gale Sayers, and still holds the Dolphins all-time records for total kickoff returns (166), kickoff return yardage (3,756) and total punt returns (127). Welker spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons with the Broncos, where he participated in his third Super Bowl, and then played eight games for the Rams in 2015 before retiring from the NFL.

Welker attended Texas Tech University where he registered 259 receptions for 3,019 yards and 21 touchdowns to go along with 79 rushes for 456 yards and two touchdowns. As a punt returner, he scored eight touchdowns in his college career, which was tied for the NCAA record. In 2003, Welker won the Mosi Tatupu Award, given annually to the best special teams player in college football, and was named to the Sports Illustrated All-Decade Team as a punt returner. ADAM PETERS

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

17TH NFL SEASON | 3RD WITH 49ERS

Adam Peters is in his 17th season in the NFL and third as vice president of player personnel for the 49ers. He joined the 49ers after spending the previous eight seasons (2009-16) with the Denver Broncos.

In 2016, Peters was named the Broncos director of college scouting after spending two seasons as the team's assistant director of college scouting (2014-15). Peters spent three years as a national scout (2011-13) after originally joining the Broncos as a regional scout in 2009.

As a member of Denver's personnel department, Peters helped the team acquire 27 players through the draft and college free agency that were vital members of the Super Bowl 50 championship roster.

Peters joined the Broncos after spending six years (2003-08) with the New England Patriots. In his first two seasons with the Patriots as a scouting assistant, he was a part of two Super Bowl championship teams (XXXVIII in 2003 and XXXIX in 2004). In 2005, Peters handled pro scouting duties for the team before serving as an area scout in his final three seasons (2006-08) with the Patriots.

Prior to the NFL, Peters spent one season (2002) as a football operations graduate assistant at UCLA after playing defensive end for the Bruins from 1999-2001. He transferred to UCLA from West Valley Junior College (Saratoga, CA), where he played tight end for two seasons (1997-98) and earned all-conference honors.

A native of Cupertino, CA, Peters attended Monta Vista High School where he was a two-sport standout in football and baseball during his prep career. Peters is married to his wife, Jennifer, and the couple has one daughter, Alexandra.

MARTIN MAYHEW

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

30TH NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/21 FRONT OFFICE) | 3RD WITH 49ERS

Martin Mayhew is in his third season with the 49ers and first as the vice president of player personnel. He spent the previous two years (2017-18) as the team's senior personnel executive.

Mayhew joined the 49ers after spending the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team's general manager. Taking over as general manager following the team's winless season in 2008, he aided Detroit's ascent to a 10-win season in 2011. Mayhew was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford and DE Ezekiel Ansah, as well as 2010 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year DT Ndamukong Suh, who was selected to four Pro Bowls as a member of the Lions. He was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

In 2015, Detroit had five players selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 2000 (WR Calvin Johnson, Tate, Stafford, Suh & Quin). The previous year, Mayhew constructed a Lions team that won 11 games for the fourth time in franchise history. That year, Detroit finished second in total defense and third in points allowed, led by their top-ranked rush defense that allowed just 69.3 yards per game, which stands as the ninth fewest rushing yards allowed per game in NFL history.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel. In 2003, he was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel and was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Originally a 10th round selection (262nd overall) by the Buffalo Bills in the 1988 NFL Draft, Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL. During his career with Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96), he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) and registered 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, four forced fumbles and 1.0 sack. In 1991, Mayhew started and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

A native of Tallahassee, FL, Mayhew graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and earned his law degree from Georgetown University's Law Center in 2000. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles football and track teams. During the 1999 season while attending law school, Mayhew spent nine months as an intern in the Redskins personnel department. He also had two separate internship stints with the NFL league office in both the labor operations and legal departments before joining the Lions in 2001. He is a member of The Florida Bar.

Keena Turner is in his 23rd season in the front office of the 49ers and his second as vice president & senior advisor to the general manager.

For more than three decades, Turner has been a part of the 49ers as both a player and member of the team's front office. He has spent the previous 10 seasons (2008-17) as the vice president of football affairs. Turner has held several roles throughout his career including director of alumni coordinators (2006-07), an alumni coordinator (2004-05) and player development director (2001-03). He also worked in the player relations department (1998-2001) and the player and community relations department (1991).

Prior to joining the 49ers, Turner spent three seasons (1992-94) as the linebackers coach at Stanford University under head coach Bill Walsh. Upon leaving Stanford, Turner embarked on his radio and television career, while also working in community relations for DeBartolo Entertainment. He went on to serve as a color analyst for 49ers preseason games for 15 years (1995-2009) and was a co-host for the 49ers Preview Show. He also was the radio/TV color analyst for the San Jose SaberCats (IFL) for 15 seasons.

Originally selected in the second round (39th overall) in the 1980 NFL Draft by San Francisco, Turner played in 153 games (118 starts) with the 49ers over 11 seasons (1980-90). A member of the 49ers 10-year Club, Turner was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1985 and is a four-time Super Bowl champion (XVI, XIX, XXIII and XXIV).

Following his playing career, Turner was inducted into the Purdue University Intercollegiate Hall of Fame in 2011 and the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame Northern California in 2012. In 2019, he was also inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Turner's dedication to excellence has not been limited to the playing field. He has been a constant supporter of Family House in San Francisco for over 30 years and he created, implemented and judged a student essay contest for the Tracy Middle School system emphasizing the importance of academics. Turner has also hosted The Keena Turner Boys and Girls Clubs Golf Tournament for each of the last 24 years and the event has raised over $5 million.

KWON ALEXANDER

6-1 | 227 | LOUISIANA STATE

8.3.94 | OXFORD, AL | 5TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

GOLDMINE

- On Friday, October 30, 2015, Alexander was relaxing at his apartment with teammates, just days away from what would be just his seventh career NFL game, when he received one of the most dreadful calls one could experience. His little brother, Broderick, had been involved in a confrontation with a man who decided to pull out a gun and use it. "He's gone," Kwon heard his mother say over the phone. Broderick was less than a month away from his 18th birthday. He had always looked up to Kwon, and the two shared a bond as strong as ever. "I walked straight out to the patio, laid down on one of the lounge chairs by the pool, pulled out my phone and started looking at text messages," Alexander said in an article he composed for The Players Tribune. "I found Lil' Brod's old messages and started scrolling through them – until I saw one from him that jumped off the screen. 'I love you bro.' I stared at it for I don't know how long, and then I put my phone down, looked up at the sky and cried until I couldn't cry anymore." Alexander then booked a flight home to be with his family as they made plans for Broderick's funeral, but his mother wouldn't allow it. They agreed that even Broderick, as his number one supporter, would have wanted him to play. So, two days later, Kwon not only played, but he played the game of his life. In the first quarter of the game, with his team down 3-0, Alexander caught up to a streaking Falcons WR Julio Jones and in one instance ripped the ball clean out of his hands and took off the other way for a 20-yard return. Next, in the second quarter, Alexander intercepted a pass by Falcons QB Matt Ryan and returned the ball for 15 yards. At the end of the victory, his then-career-high 11 tackles, forced fumble, fumble recovery and interception earned him not only the game ball, but the respect of his teammates. "All I wanted was to be with my family, but I had a second family right there to pick me up," Alexander said. "It was highest of highs and the lowest of lows, at the exact same moment."

ALEXANDER'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- Although he grew up in the same town as teammate DL Dee Ford, the two did not meet until they were both acquired by the team in March 2019. By the time Alexander had reached high school, Ford had already migrated to nearby St. Clair County H.S. "I knew who he was once we got to the NFL, so that's all that matters," Ford said.

- In June of 2019, Alexander hosted a free football camp in Hobson City, AL for kids ages 8-17. His camp featured football drills, free food and giveaways and was sponsored by The Kwon Alexander Foundation, a non-profit organization, that supports youth in need in the greater Anniston, AL community. Kwon and his foundation host mentorship programming and educational workshops throughout the year.
- Alexander held a kickball game with friends and family in 2018 that served as the opening event for the Kwon Alexander Foundation. "They have to work for it, hang around the right people and keep their grades straight," Alexander said. "Giving back is very important to me, especially for people where I come from. We didn't have anybody to give back when I was growing up. It's a big thing to them if they see a positive role model." At his kickball event, the Tampa Bay police department held conversations with youth in the community. Alexander's event also partnered with the Heart Gallery of Tampa, an organization that raises awareness of Tampa's waiting foster children and engages the community in their welfare and secure placement.

- Before the 2017 season, Alexander arrived at Buccaneers camp with a new look. Said Alexander, "I wanted to brand myself. I love red. So I said, 'I'll try something different and dye my hair red.' Everybody loved it, so I kept it." Now a member of the 49ers, you might see Kwon sporting a different shade of red in his hair.

11.15.93 | ELK GROVE, CA | 5TH YEAR | ACQUIRED D-I IN '15

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Armstead and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- In April of 2018, Armstead worked with Leataata Floyd Elementary and 916 Ink to host a trip to the Imaginarium, where the young students developed their artistic abilities, while learning how to be better at communicating. The event was in conjunction with Armstead's foundation, which focuses on assisting at-risk youth, particularly through the means of education.
- Armstead returned to his hometown of Sacramento this past off-season to host the second charity weekend for his foundation, Armstead Academic Project, which promotes equal opportunities through education. The festivities kicked off as teammates DeForest Buckner, Ronald Blair III, Richard Sherman, Sheldon Day, Jaquiski Tarrt and Ahkello Witherspoon joined Armstead for a charity gala and silent auction which raised more than $100,000. Armstead then led a youth camp the following morning, where the children were able to get hands-on lessons from the NFL players. Throughout the day, Armstead stressed the importance of hard work, sportsmanship and teamwork.

ARMSTEAD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Lists his parents, Guss and Christa, as the most influential people in his life. He also gives credit to his grandfather, Willie B. Armstead, an Air Force veteran, for instilling the value of integrity that his parents have passed along to him. "A lot of things he instilled in my dad have carried down to me. Having a family member who is more courageous than you can imagine and who served his country is a huge honor."
- Played both basketball and football at Oregon before focusing only on football in 2014.

- In 2017, Armstead returned to his hometown of Sacramento to hold his Annual free youth football camp. The camp was held in Elk Grove, CA and sponsors made it possible for 200 scholarships to be offered to interested kids. The kids participated in both football and conditioning drills with the players and then were allowed to ask questions to discuss not only football, but school, healthy choices, and other topics. Armstead's goal was to provide campers with a unique experience on the football field, as well as insight into the hard work and dedication that are needed to make it to the NFL. "I want the kids to enjoy themselves while also coming away learning that they can do whatever they put their mind to," said Armstead. "I want to teach them the things that helped me get where I am now like the importance of education, work ethic, and faith."
- If Armstead wasn't in the NFL, he would be playing basketball. He was a three-year starter in basketball at Pleasant Grove High School in Sacramento and played two years at the University of Oregon before focusing solely on football for the 2014 season. He entered his high school senior season listed as the number three prospect in NorCalPrep.com's Top 40 rankings for the class of 2012. "A big part of the recruiting pitch from Oregon was they were going to let me play two sports. We only lost 5 games during my time there. I wanted to go somewhere with the chance to win and be a part of something special."

- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Armstead, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- Armstead's brother, Armond, was forced to retire before ever playing a down in the NFL. After playing collegiately at USC, Armond became an All-Star for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League, helping the team win the league's 100th Grey Cup. He went on to sign with the New England Patriots in 2013, but medical issues forced him to hang up his cleats. "The biggest thing he has told me through this process is, 'at the end of the day, it's just football.' Having a brother who played at this level makes everything less overwhelming."

- In December of 2016, Armstead partnered with his local church to spread holiday cheer. Armstead bought more than 100 toys at Target and gave them away to children at the UC Davis Medical Center.

- During Super Bowl 50's Media Day, Armstead joined Sacramento's ABC10 sports team as a reporter to learn what it is like to cover NFL players during one of the most hectic events of the year. Held at SAP Center in San Jose, Armstead interviewed former teammates, fans, media members and Miss Universe. "It's like a feeding frenzy - everyone running around, and being part of that frenzy was a unique experience," said Armstead during the event.
- For Armstead, the NFL Draft process was a whirlwind tour. He went straight from the National Championship Game to San Diego to prepare for the NFL Combine and then to Sacramento for the Draft itself. However, his favorite part of the process was being drafted by a team so close to his hometown. "It's a dream come true. I'm blessed to be in this situation. Not a lot of other people are that close to home. Being able to play home games in front of my family is perfect for me."

GOLDMINE

- Beathard comes from a family steeped in football tradition. His grandfather, Bobby Beathard, spent 38 years working in the NFL, including 22 seasons as general manager of the Washington Redskins (1978-88) and San Diego Chargers (1989-2000). As a general manager of the Redskins, he served as the architect of Washington's Super Bowl winning teams in 1982 (Super Bowl XVII) and 1987 (Super Bowl XXII). He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.
- Beathard became a father in December of 2016, just months before being selected in the 3rd round by San Francisco. A year later, he celebrated his daughter Lyla's first birthday at the conclusion of his rookie season. Beathard considers his daughter's birth one of the greatest and proudest moments of his life. "The love I have experienced for her over this past year is something I never knew was possible," Beathard said. "I am thankful for all of the joy she brings to my life."

BEATHARD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced BETH-urd.
- Comes from a family rich in football tradition as his grandfather, Bobby Beathard, spent 38 years working in the NFL, including 22 seasons as general manager of the Washington Redskins (1978-88) and San Diego Chargers (1989-2000). He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.
- Comes from a family who is equally as passionate about music as they are about sports. His father, Casey, played wide receiver at Elon College before becoming an accomplished country music songwriter who has penned hit songs for artists such as Billy Ray Cyrus and Kenny Chesney. His older brother, Tucker, was a standout baseball player who turned down a scholarship to Middle Tennessee and is now a rising country music singer and songwriter. Beathard's youngest brother, Clay, also plays quarterback and was named Tennessee's "Mr. Football" for his division in 2014. Growing up, the Beathard brothers formed a band that performed at local talent shows. C.J. played lead guitar and wrote most of the songs, while Tucker played drums and Clay assisted on guitar.
- Played with fellow 49ers 2017 draft choice TE George Kittle at Iowa (2012-16).

- Beathard and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018 after posing for a photoshoot. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Beathard and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The Austen Everett Foundation works to empower kids in their fight against cancer through the strength and support of athletic teams.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Beathard and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- Beathard and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a make-over and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Beathard and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- During his time at Iowa, Beathard earned the nickname "Sunshine" from Hawkeye fans because his long, flowing hair resembled the character with the same nickname from the football movie "Remember The Titans." In 2015, he cut off his hair and donated it to Wigs For Kids, a non-profit organization that makes wigs to support children who have lost their hair due to medical issues at no cost to children or their families.
- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Beathard and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need in 2017. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.
- In August of 2016, Beathard joined his younger brother, singer/songwriter Tucker Beathard, on stage at the first-ever concert at Iowa's Kinnick Stadium. Tucker, one of country music's rising stars, saw his song "Rock On" become a top-10 hit on Billboard's country chart. While performing a new track called "I'll Take On The World With You," which he co-wrote about the bond between he and his siblings, Tucker brought his older brother and former childhood bandmate onto the stage for a moment the two will never forget. "Ever since C.J. started at Iowa, playing a show at Kinnick Stadium was one of those unreachable dreams that you never think will actually come true," said Tucker. "Our whole family lives for sports and music...it's what bonds us together going back to my grandpa and his years in the NFL. It was awesome to be invited to the Back Porch Revival and to see those two worlds collide in front of a stadium full of people. I'll never forget it!"

RONALD BLAIR III

DL

6-4 | 270 | APPALACHIAN STATE

1.21.93 | GREENSBORO, GA | 4TH YEAR | ACQUIRED D-5A IN '16

GOLDMINE

- The 49ers, in partnership with Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), visited the Santa Clara Juvenile Hall to work with residents on frustration management during the 2018 season. Blair III and his teammates held a discussion with the young people, and later divided into groups to engage in football drills that demonstrated the proper way to focus negative energy in a positive manner. After the drills, they held another discussion centered on making right decisions when it comes to frustration management.

- In his hometown of Greensboro, GA, Blair has volunteered at Relay for Life, a branch of the American Cancer Society. The subject of cancer is near to Blair's heart, as his grandmother, Annie Ruth Peek, passed away from colon cancer while he was growing up. In the future, Blair aims to start his own foundation with the goal of creating a community where people who are going through life-changing experiences can call home. "I lost my grandmother to colon cancer. I lost my grandfather to a heart attack. My stepfather was in a car accident and is now a paraplegic. So, those people have a special place in my heart and I want to get involved in helping with causes like those."
- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Blair III and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

BLAIR III'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In June of 2019, Blair III held a free youth football camp in his hometown of Greensboro, GA, for children from grades 3-12. In addition to drills, the kids received camp t-shirts, lunch, gift bags and autographs from Blair III and other NFL players in attendance.
- Blair has volunteered at the Relay for Life in his hometown of Greensboro, GA. One day, he hopes to start his own foundation that would create a community for people going through life-changing experiences.
- Growing up, Blair's first sport was basketball, not football. His father put a basketball in his crib when he was one year old and Blair only switched to football once he realized his size was better suited for the gridiron.

- Blair cites the transition from 8th grade to high school, and specifically a conversation he had with his band director, as a key moment that stoked his competitive fire. Entering the 9th grade, his band director wanted him to continue playing the tuba in the school's band and not play football because he wouldn't see the field as a freshman. That year, Blair became a starter on varsity. "That's definitely one moment that sticks out and helped me develop in the football world," said Blair.
- Blair III and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

Breida and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

- As a senior in 2016, despite receiving consideration for multiple national athletic awards which included the watch list for both the Doak Walker Award and Maxwell Award, it was an award for what he does off the field that Breida felt most honored by. Breida was announced as a finalist for the 2016 Senior Class Award after making the Georgia Southern Eagles' Honor Roll and being involved in the community by reading and speaking to local elementary schools in Statesboro, GA, as well as back home in Florida. "One of the best people I've ever been around," said Georgia Southern Head Coach Tyson Summers when asked about Breida. The 2016 Senior Class Award is given to a senior who has various notable achievements in four areas: community, classroom, character, and competition. That's mom and dad to me. I would do anything for them."

- Breida honors his parents, calling them the reason he is where he is today. "They mean everything to me. I could be somewhere else," said Breida who was adopted the day after he was born by Terri and Mike Breida. GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Buckner and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Beyond Differences inspires students at all middle schools nationwide to end social isolation and create a culture of belonging for everyone.

- When Buckner was 13 years old, his father, George, was involved in a motorcycle accident that left him in a coma for six months. Upon his awakening, George summoned DeForest to his bedside, where the two had a 'man-to-man' conversation, as his mother, Maria, puts it. After the life-changing event and heartfelt conversation, that is when Buckner believes he became a man and took more responsibility with his family. He became a mentor to his younger brother, Kenya, and began to understand the values his father had instilled in him. "He was hard on us, and disciplined us, shaped us," Buckner said. "He taught us about respect, that it's earned and you have to treat everyone around you like you want to be treated."

BUCKNER'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His first name is pronounced duh-FORE-ist.

- In 2017 and 2018, named the recipient of the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man Award. The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named for former linebacker Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches. Became the sixth 49ers defender to win the award on multiple occasions (LB Charles Haley, CB Merton Hanks, S Tim McDonald, DT Justin Smith, LB Jeff Ulbrich and DT Bryant Young) and the second to win the award in back-to-back seasons (DT Justin Smith, 2010-11 & 2013-14).

The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

- In July of 2017, Buckner returned to his hometown of Waianae, HI, to host a free noncontact youth football clinic at Waianae High School. "Having my first camp back in my hometown means a lot to me because this is where it all started," said Buckner. "Where I grew up shaped a big part of my life and having the opportunity to give back to my community means the world to me. I just want the youth in our community to see that dreams do come true."

- During his time at Oregon, Buckner used art as an outlet for his emotions outside of football, even earning the nickname "Dr. DeFo" from his art professor for his passion, focus and patience with his pieces. Buckner enrolled in a class called "Art of the Athlete," which provides engagement for student-athletes through the visual arts and has the student-athletes help in the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art workshops for children with disabilities. During the open exhibition at the end of the class, Buckner was awarded with the highest honor, the breakout artist award for his piece titled "King of Pop" showing himself in a Michael Jackson type pose that was spray painted on vinyl.

- As part of Salute to Service Month, Celek, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

- Celek has a strong passion for the packaging industry, which he majored in at Michigan State, and plans to go into the business in the future. The growing industry looks to cut shipping costs on products and is commonplace in the food and medical fields. "There's so many different areas you can get into, it's crazy. I enjoy the science behind it. It was a great major for me to choose and the possibilities are endless."
- Football runs in the bloodlines of the Celek family. Garrett's older brother, Brent, played tight end for the Philadelphia Eagles. Growing up, the brothers were constantly involved in athletics. "My dad was always pushing us just to be into sports. As long as we were doing something and we were having fun with it, he was the happiest guy in the world," Garrett said. He didn't begin playing football until high school, but Brent's success became motivation for him. "He got a scholarship to Cincinnati my freshman year in high school," Garrett said. "Right then I had my goals set. I've got to do what my brother did. Honestly, I've been trying to follow in his footsteps and because of him I'm here today. I wouldn't be who I am without him."
- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Celek and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- Along with former teammates TE Vance McDonald and DT Tank Carradine, visited Haiti in conjunction with Convoy of Hope during the 2015 offseason, working together to teach healthy eating habits and sustainable agriculture techniques to local families. “We’ve been to an orphanage, we’ve been to a farm, we’ve been to schools. It’s a beautiful country and these are beautiful people. I’m glad I had this opportunity.”

- Along with some of his teammates, Celek headed to San Francisco in October of 2015 to kick off Fleet Week aboard the USS Somerset. During the afternoon on board, Celek participated in drills with the troops, took a tour of the ship, ate dinner with the crew and watched as some local Bay Area natives were sworn into the Navy. “It’s just good to give back to some of these guys because they do so much for us,” said Celek at the time. “We’re all really appreciative of who they are and what they’re about.” In 2016, Celek was honored as the 49ers Salute to Service Award winner for his efforts to honor and support U.S. service members, veterans and their families.

AWARDS & HONORS

2017: Thomas Herrion Memorial Award

GOLDMINE

- Colbert and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Colbert and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Next Door Solutions is a domestic violence agency in Santa Clara County that helps thousands of survivors and families move out of crisis and violence and into safety, stability and self-sufficiency.

COLBERT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In 2017, named the recipient of the 49ers Thomas Herrion Memorial Award, which was established in 2005 by 49ers owners Denise and John York and is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion. The recipient has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive situation and made their dream turn into a reality. The award is voted on by the coaches.
- After spending four years (2012-15) and graduating from the University of Texas, Colbert transferred to the University of Miami to further his education and secured a final season of eligibility.
- Colbert has been an active volunteer in his communities. In previous years, he's volunteered for the Salvation Army and youth football camps in addition to working at concession stands at youth football games.
- In the spring of 2013 at Texas, Colbert was named a member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

- Colbert overcame adversity at age 10 when he was living in Wichita Falls, TX. While racing a friend on his bike, Colbert ran a stop sign and was hit by a car, went through the windshield and suffered life-threatening injuries, falling into a coma for more than a week. His father, Adrian Sr., became motivated to make a change and moved them 90 miles south to Mineral Wells, TX, to escape from the gang environment that Adrian Sr. was apart of in Wichita Falls. After moving to Mineral Wells, Colbert didn't quite feel at home, but found additional support from the Clarke family, who treated him like a son of their own. Colbert was introduced to the family when he was approached by one of the three daughters in the family, Katy, asking if he needed a ride while walking the three miles home from school. He became part of their family, referring to them as parents and sisters, and even put his number in Mrs. Clarke's phone as 'Adrian - my adopted son.' "It made it easier for me to call [Mineral Wells] home," Colbert said. "Not only having my family, but a family that was already established here that loved me just like my family loved me."

- As part of 2017's Salute to Service Month, Colbert, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Colbert is supporting Silicon Valley FACES for My Cause, My Cleats. Dedicated to creating and promoting an empathetic and inclusive community free of bias, bigotry and violence through programs and advocacy, he chose Silicon Valley FACES to support social equality and teach the Golden Rule. "My cause is Social Equality," said Colbert. "I want to help make a positive change in the world and find a solution to the issues I dealt with growing up."

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Colbert and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

SHON COLEMAN

11.25.91 | OLIVE BRANCH, MS | 4TH YEAR | ACQUIRED TR IN '18 - CLE

GOLDMINE

- Coleman and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

COLEMAN'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- After defeating acute lymphoblastic leukemia, Coleman was invited to announce a draft selection in the 2014 NFL Draft. As he left the stage, Roger Goodell told him, "I know I'll see you back here in a couple of years." Two years later, Goodell's words came true, as he was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 2016.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Coleman was diagnosed with leukemia in the spring of 2010. After undergoing treatment at St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, he was eventually cleared to return to the field in 2012. Coleman returned to the hospital in 2016 for his Draft party, where he watched the Draft with patients and medical staffers. "There's a lot of young kids that went through the same things I went through that look up to me," Coleman said. "They are also an inspiration to me. My engine is still running to let people know you can beat the odds and dreams never fade."

TEVIN COLEMAN

RB

6-1 | 210 | INDIANA

4.16.93 | OAK FOREST, IL | 5TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

GOLDMINE

- Although he grew up in suburban Chicago, Coleman's roots began in Liberia, where his parents grew up before migrating to the United States as teenagers. Following the 2016 season, Coleman, along with his father, brother, and a pastor from his church, flew to West Africa on a two-week long mission trip, aiding the poverty-stricken children of the country. The group opened up water wells to provide clean drinking water to the residents and provided a temporary medical clinic. Tevin took a hands-on approach, from evaluating new sites for schools to assisting medical professionals in taking temperatures and blood pressures in the clinic. Helping the children in the country is something that holds great importance to Coleman, because he knows he could have been one of those children, too. Speaking to ESPN, he said, "Everything I have and that my parents gave me, I'm so blessed. That's why I'm doing this. Why not give to people who don't have it? That's what I like to do."

COLEMAN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Is a descendant of former Liberian president William David Coleman.
- Born weighing only three and a half pounds, arriving 10 weeks too early, his parents, Wister and Adlevia, were told that Tevin only had a 20 percent chance of survival. Coleman beat the odds, growing stronger each day. Due to his strength and tenacity from such an early age, Tevin's doctors granted him the nickname "Rock". Growing up, he found his strength competing in sports, from baseball and football to track. Now, Tevin supports charities in order to raise funds for the families of babies born prematurely.
- Was a talented track & field athlete at Oak Forest (IL) HS, setting school records of 10.5 and 21.4 seconds in the 100 and 200 meters, respectively, and 24 feet, 3 ¼ inches in the long jump.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Unlike their dad, Tevin's twins Nazaneen and Nezerah, born in 2017, were both perfectly healthy upon arrival. Tevin wanted to honor his and their mother's heritage, giving them Liberian-Palestinian names. His two additions have given him even more motivation in life and football in order to provide them with a great life. He said, "It was definitely good to know that they were healthy and that they didn't have to go through what I went through growing up. Just like with everything in the world, I have to keep myself safe for them. I'm always thinking about them and doing stuff for them."

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In June of 2017, Day held his Inaugural “Sheldon’s Daylight Camp” at Warren Central High School in Indianapolis, IN. Over 150 kids attended the free four-day football camp which Day had been anxious to host since the day he was drafted. “I know most of these kids out here on the east side are probably like I was,” said Day. “No way I’m going to charge them to come here. They should just have fun here and be with me.” The camp included a visit to Notre Dame so kids would not only gain football knowledge, but also be informed of different opportunities to further their education and attend college. “This is fun for me. It’s a chance for me to give back and have some fun with them. When I see the kids smiling, that’s a great thing. That’s why we are here.” Day has continued his camp over the past two offseasons.

FORD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- While at St. Clair County (Odenville, AL) High School, participated in the school's jazz band.
- When Ford was younger, his mother and father created a traveling band with Dee and his sister serving as backup singers and his cousin as a co-lead singer in the "Ford Connection."

- A multi-talented individual, in addition to playing football, Ford has a strong musical background. With his parents as his biggest role models, Ford grew up watching his mother and father as musicians with multiple gospel groups. He developed the ability to play the drums which later led to him picking up the piano. Said Ford, "Music was all I saw when I was little. Eventually it just grew into me. It became a part of me."

GOLDMINE

- Instead of spending opening night of the 2014 NFL Draft in New York City with fellow draft hopefuls, Ford was in Anniston, AL, gathered with family and friends just singing gospel and spending time together. The night was about more than Dee, as the entire Ford family was celebrating. His mother, Debbie, was recently certified as a registered nurse, while his brother had also received a new job offer.
- In celebration of his trip to the 2019 Pro Bowl, Ford brought more than 35 friends and family members down to the festivities in Orlando, FL. Said Ford, "I'm from down south, so there's some family that don't have a chance to come out to the Midwest. It's a real mixture of a lot of people. It'll cost a little penny, but I think the experience is worth it."

BEN GARLAND

OL

6-5 | 304 | AIR FORCE

4.6.88 | GRAND JUNCTION, CO | 6TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

2017: Falcons Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award

2018: NFL Salute to Service Award

GOLDMINE

- Garland was recognized in 2018 as the winner of the NFL's Salute to Service Award, honoring his efforts of support to former and present members of the military. As the winner of the award, Garland received $25,000 from the NFL to be donated to Ben's military charity of choice, with USAA donating an additional $25,000 to be spread across the five military branches. Following his college career at Air Force, Garland signed with the Denver Broncos. Shortly after, he was placed on the reserve/military list and served two years of active duty. Now as a veteran in the NFL, Garland has traveled on two USO tours, to Italy and Germany followed by Iraq and Kuwait. Additionally, he frequently donates tickets to military members, raises awareness about PTSD, and visits with young members of the military to inspire and encourage them. Garland spends his offseasons as a member of the Colorado Air National Guard, where he works in public affairs.

GARLAND'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was an element leader of Cadet Squadron 27 at the Air Force Academy. The element leader assists in assuring that members of the element comply with orders and instructions.
- Garland is one of four siblings, and his sister, Jessica, graduated from UNC with her PhD in exercise and sports science.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took park in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Garland and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

- Garland is known for his generosity, consistently giving back to the community and volunteering when he can. For this commitment, he was named a Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee during the 2017 season with the Falcons. From holiday hospital visits with his teammates to donating money to cancer patients, Garland epitomizes leadership and generosity in his community. The night of the ceremony, Garland displayed his kindness once more, inviting a family he met through charity on stage to give them tickets to the upcoming Super Bowl.

- Prior to the 2012 season, Garland was in his second week of training camp with the Denver Broncos, focused on impressing his coaches and teammates. In the midst of camp, he received tragic news: his grandparents' home, which was located near Denver, was destroyed in the Waldo Canyon Fire. When he went to survey the damage, he found that two of his prized possessions, his Air Force football helmet and his Academy sabers, presented to him at graduation, could not be salvaged. Upon hearing this news, his Broncos teammates decided to reach out to the Air Force Academy to replace the two items. "Some of those things are hard to get," Joe Mays, the linebacker who made the arrangements, said. "The fact that we were able to get them is awesome, and even better was that we were able to give them to him."
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Garland and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

JOSHUA GARNETT

6-5 | 305 | STANFORD

2.21.94 | PUYALLUP, WA | 4TH YEAR | ACQUIRED D-1B IN '16

GOLDMINE

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "There are 50,000 women nationwide living on the streets without access to pads or tampons, not including cis women, trans men, or gender non-conforming humans," said Garnett. "A person's socioeconomic status should not strip them of their dignity and access to what should be a basic human right, not a privilege."

- The 49ers partnered with Furry Friends Pet Assisted Therapy Services for animal therapy, while providing confidence building activities for students in the Leland High School special needs program in an effort to erase the stigma attached to special needs. Garnett and his teammates spent time with students with autism, mental illness and learning disabilities as they play board games, working on social skills including conversational queues and eye contact through the hands-on activity. Players will also partner with animal therapy dogs to uplift students through one-on-one interactions.

GARNETT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was teammates for two seasons (2014-15) with 49ers 2017 first-round selection (3rd overall), DL Solomon Thomas at Stanford.
- Garnett's father, Scott, spent three seasons in the NFL (1984-85, 1987) and played for the 49ers during the 1985 season.
- At Stanford, Garnett majored in human biology with the goal of becoming a trauma surgeon after his NFL career is over.
- As a senior at Stanford (2015), was the recipient of the Outland Trophy as the nation's most outstanding lineman and the Morris Trophy Award, a prestigious honor voted on by opposing Pac-12 defensive linemen.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In April of 2017, Garnett, along with fellow 49ers teammates, attended the Seventh Annual Prom at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco in Mission Bay, with over 200 teen patients and their friends. He enjoyed a "Masquerade Ball" with photo booths, music, dancing, dining and more. This special evening allowed patients to participate in a milestone that they may miss as a result of diagnosis or treatment. The children were decked out in prom fashions and left the event with a sweatshirt hoodie and a professional prom photo.

- Garnett's father, Scott (pictured right), played collegiately at the University of Washington and was drafted in the eighth round (218th overall) by the Denver Broncos in the 1984 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons in the NFL (1984-85, 1987) and played in three games for the 49ers during the 1985 season.

- At Stanford, Garnett majored in human biology with the goal of becoming a trauma surgeon after his NFL career is over. He has already shadowed staff in an ER, further fueling his interest, during which he says he got a better sense of the adrenaline and the way an emergency department works together. "I'm drawn to help someone that could be on the brink of death," Garnett said. "I'm a guy who can handle the gore and I feel like I have the aptitude where I can make a difference for people."

He finished 24 of 33 for 264 yds. and 1 TD.
- Helped the Patriots set a NFL record for fewest INTs in a single season (2 INTs on 550 atts. in 2016).

GOLDMINE

- As a kid in suburban Chicago, Garoppolo and his three brothers occasionally rose early to join their dad, Tony, at his job. Tony is now a retired union electrician, with his career spanning more than 40 years. Working hard to support his family of six, Tony instilled his work ethic he had into Jimmy. "But it was that blue-collar mentality. When you're raised like that, you don't know any different. All I knew was hard work, and it translates over to football." In May of 2019, Jimmy and Tony went to the Silicon Valley Career Technical Education Center in San Jose to speak to and congratulate over 90 recent high school graduates who decided to pursue a career in a skilled trade. A take on national signing day for high school athletes, each person would sign papers at a table, be rewarded with a cap and announce at the podium what trade they would follow. The event encourages students to take up a skill trade, something that doesn't require a four-year university. "This can help set the path earlier in kids' lives — they want to be in trades and they can get started in high school," Garoppolo said. "It can require a blue-collar mentality, and some people don't have that — but I'm glad I grew up that way."
- Garoppolo continued his giving theme in 2019, partnering with Men's Wearhouse on a suit drive, asking for donations of gently used suits, shirts, jackets, ties, slacks and shoes. The professional attire for men and women were passed along to local non-profit organizations, who provided them to those looking to re-enter the workplace. Done along with résumé-writing workshops, interview preparation courses and employment training programs, the objective is to create a confident job candidate, someone who shows up for an interview feeling well-prepared and looking the part. "It's kind of related to the football mentality of, look-good, feel-good, play-good," Garoppolo said of the drive. "You go in there with a suit and you're feeling good about yourself and your confidence is up, obviously you're going to perform better."
- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Garoppolo and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

- Garoppolo has quickly become integrated with the Bay Area and its sports franchises. Prior to Game 3 of the NHL's 2018 Western Conference Semifinals between the San Jose Sharks and Vegas Golden Knights, Garoppolo was asked to be the "honorary locker room door opener" at SAP Center in San Jose. The Sharks ask celebrities and well-respected sports figures to be the ceremonial door opener as the team heads out for final warmups and pregame introductions.
- Along with former Patriots teammate Julian Edelman, Garoppolo surprised students at Central Elementary and Cedar Elementary schools in Hanover, NJ in June of 2016. The two spent time at both schools reading to kids, sharing the importance of homework, and learning a few new touchdown dances.
- In May of 2016, Garoppolo, in partnership with AccessSportAmerica, volunteered at a football clinic for disabled high school students at Harvard Stadium. During the clinic, Garoppolo gave tips to participants on passing, blocking and other essential football skills. Garoppolo enjoyed the clinic so much, he returned to Harvard Stadium again in 2017 to hang out with the AccessSportAmerica students. Garoppolo said he felt honored to volunteer with AccessSportAmerica, and contribute to their efforts to inspire higher function and fitness for people living with challenges and disabilities through high-challenge sports and training.
- For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for one of the zoo's snow leopards, Jimmy G, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers quarterback. The zoo received both a male and female snow leopard in early 2018 and quickly found a new name. You can find Jimmy G in the enclosure outside the Lion House near the Lion Fountain.

March of Dimes leads the fight for the health of all moms and babies, supporting moms throughout their pregnancy, even when everything doesn't go according to plan.

- In June of 2019, Goodwin and his wife, Morgan, partnered with Proctor & Gamble to host a football camp at Travis Air Force Base where Goodwin finished the day mixing his passion of football with track & field, long jumping over some of the campers. Said Goodwin, "I always end the camp with a nice long jump over the kids. It gives them, as well as the parents, a visual of what the event is."

- On August 18th, 2017, as part of 49ers partnership with the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Goodwin spent the day with Austin DeMello, a 12-year-old 49ers fan from San Diego. The two toured the 49ers facility, had lunch together and even played a game of Madden 17, which Austin won. Austin was diagnosed with a brain tumor, but he and his family don't let that stop him from fighting and enjoying each day. "The fact that Austin's family comes out here, they're supporting him, loving him and not giving up on him, I love that," Goodwin said, "because my mom didn't give up on my sister." Goodwin's older sister, Deja, suffers from cerebral palsy and is unable to walk. Before Austin and his family went back to San Diego, Marquise left him with a message to remember when times get tough. "Just know that you've got a lot of people that love you and care about you," Goodwin told Austin, "including the 49ers."

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "My Cause, My Cleats are inspired by my sister, Deja, who's life has been impacted by Cerebral Palsy, a congenital disorder of movement, muscle tone or posture," said Goodwin.

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Goodwin and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- In 2012, Goodwin won the long jump title at the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials (27-4.25) and finished 10th in the London Olympics. By qualifying for the Olympics, he became the first collegian to win both the Olympic Trials and the NCAA Outdoor long-jump competition in the same year since 1960. Goodwin was a two-time NCAA long jump champion, seven-time All-American and five-time Big 12 champion in the long jump during his career at the University of Texas.
- Goodwin began his track & field career at Rowlett (TX) HS, where he was a two-time World Junior Champion (long jump, 4x100m), seven-time Texas 5A State Champion [long jump (3x), triple jump (2x) and 4x100m (2x)] and two-time Texas Gatorade Track & Field Athlete of the Year.
- During the 2013 NFL Combine, Goodwin posted the fastest 40-yd. dash time among all participants, running the distance in 4.27 seconds. His time is tied for the 5th fastest 40-yd. dash ever recorded at the Combine.

MARCELL HARRIS

6-0 | 215 | FLORIDA

6.9.94 | ORLANDO, FL | 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED D-6 IN '18

- Harris notes that his mother, Andrea Tate, is the most influential person in his life. He maintains that since an early age, she gave him the best advice he has ever received, which is having the ability to believe in yourself and not quit something that you start. "I've been through a lot of things, but it's about pushing through and facing adversity," Harris said.
- Harris and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace in November of 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility on October 23, 2018. Harris and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100-plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

HARRIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Followed in his father's football career path, as Mike Harris played defensive back at the University of Florida for four years (1994-97).
- In high school, Harris participated in Nike Football's "The Opening" series, which according to Nike is "the only national camp that offers athletes state-of-the-art education in both Nike Football Training and position-specific football from respected position coaches, while improving each player who attends, and does all of this free of cost to attendees."
- Harris grew up with former Gator teammates CB Duke Dawson, who was drafted in 2nd round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, and S Keanu Neal, who was drafted in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. All three played on the 7-on-7 team, the Rat Pak, that was coached by 8-year NFL veteran Keiwan Ratliff.

- Harris and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- On the top of Harris' bucket list is a trip to Dubai. He has an interest in the city, and would like to experience the culture, try new food, travel on a camel's back and ride dune buggies in the desert hills.

COLIN HOLBA

6-4 | 255 | LOUISVILLE

7.8.94 | LOUISVILLE, KY | 3RD YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '18

GOLDMINE

- Holba served as a substitute teacher for the Shelby County School District (KY) after the Steelers waived him prior to the 2017 season. Holba got into substitute teaching after he began to look for a way to occupy his time while searching for his next team. He took the advice of his mother, DeAnn, who is also a teacher. "It was very humbling because the kids are like, 'Oh, you must not have been that good if you're back here in high school,'" Holba joked. After Jacksonville signed him two months into the school year, his students had the opportunity to watch Holba and the Jaguars hit a winning stretch and fall a few plays short of reaching Super Bowl LII. "It kind of hit me when I got there. I knew it was an amazing opportunity," Holba said. John Leeper, the director of personnel at Shelby Schools, felt the same way for his students. "A child can have a teacher in the classroom with them, a substitute teacher like Colin, and then go home that evening and sit down, finish their homework and get out the video game and get to be Colin Holba in the video game."

- Members of the 49ers took part in the 2nd Annual Picnic on the Field, located in Levi's Stadium. Holba and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which will be distributed throughout the community to children in need.

HOLBA'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Comes from a football family, as his uncle, John Holba, played QB at Ohio University and Western Michigan, and his cousin, Andrew Holba, played on the offensive line at the Air Force Academy.

The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. Johnson is supporting Lucile Packard Children's Hospital for My Cause, My Cleats, where he is an active volunteer. "After connecting with a child undergoing treatment at the hospital, I realized these diseases affect the whole family," said Johnson. "My message to the children in treatment and their families: Your courageous fight and perseverance do not go unnoticed!"

- During the 2016 offseason, Johnson formed a special relationship with Will Randleman, a young man who suffered a traumatic neck injury while playing youth football in the Bay Area. Initially, Johnson was expecting his visit with Will to be a somber one. However, he was greeted by something unexpected. "He was in such amazing spirits. When I was talking to him, I saw his passion and love for football. We connected over that," said Johnson. When Johnson visits Will, the two talk about the injury, but also go much deeper into their friendship. "We're friends now. It's amazing that we've opened up to each other. I've honestly learned so much from him," Johnson continued. "His attitude has really made me cherish and value the opportunity that I have. I just want to help any way I can and let him know he's not fighting this alone."

JOHNSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His first name is pronounced don-TAY.
- When he got the call that he was being drafted by the 49ers, San Francisco's 2014 first-round draft pick DB Jimmie Ward was one of the first phone calls that he received to congratulate him and tell him how excited he was that the two were going to be teammates. Ward and Johnson were roommates at the 2014 Senior Bowl.
- During the 2017 offseason, Johnson visited Langston Hughes Elementary School in East Orange, NJ in an effort to speak to the students and share his words of wisdom. Said Johnson, "We all have a dream and what you decide to do to get there is your choice. Make the best of it!"

- In October of 2017, the 49ers partnered with Bags of Fun to deliver backpacks to children undergoing treatment at Lucile Packard Children's Hospital. Each bag was personalized with educational, interactive and fun toys to provide joy, laughter and relief from the stress and anxiety of being in the hospital. Johnson and his teammates spent time with patients receiving Bags of Fun and other families in the hospital to uplift them during a difficult time.

- The 49ers partnered with Furry Friends Pet Assisted Therapy Services for animal therapy, while providing confidence building activities for students in the Leland High School special needs program in an effort to erase the stigma attached to special needs. Johnson and his teammates spent time with students with autism, mental illness and learning disabilities as they play board games, working on social skills including conversational queues and eye contact through the hands-on activity. Players will also partner with animal therapy dogs to uplift students through one-on-one interactions. "Our job is a day-to-day job, if you want to put it that way," said Johnson. "Something like this allows you to be a human again, I guess you could say. You can put work to the side. When it's all said and done, this world should be about helping people. And everyone being respectful to each other, regardless of differences of race or ethnicity. That's what drives me to be out here. It brings me joy."

- As part of Salute to Service Month, Johnson, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Johnson, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- Hauling in 50 passes for 600 yards and 13 touchdowns is an impressive stat-line for a two-way player, which is exactly what Johnson was in high school. He split time as a receiver and defensive back during his time at Pennington Prep (NJ) High School. What made Johnson focus his attention on the defensive side of the ball moving forward? He credited a defensive mentality. Johnson said, "I was more of a physical player. Just the fact that I liked playing defense better. Playing basketball, I had a defensive mindset. So, I guess it just translated to football. I always had a defensive mindset."
- Johnson, a sports management and business administration major, spent the summer prior to his senior year as a sports marketing intern with French West Vaughan, a marketing/public relations firm based out of Raleigh, NC. During his internship, he worked with some high-profile athletes and clients which provided great experience. "I actually got to do a few things with MoGo, the flavored mouthpiece that [former 49ers QB] Colin [Kaepernick] wears. I did that and then I did a few things for [Cincinnati Bengals DT] Geno Atkins, getting him some suits for the ESPY's." Johnson believes if he weren't a professional football player, that he had found his calling in sports marketing. He said, "That was definitely something I would do. Just the interaction with players and businesses, I felt like that was cool."

Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979-88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102-63-1 and led the team to three Super Bowls. KITTLE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Named the recipient of the 2018 Bill Walsh Award, which was established in 2004 in honor of San Francisco's Hall of Fame Head Coach. The award, which is voted on by the coaching staff, is given to the 49er who has best represented the standard of professional excellence established by Walsh. Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979-88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102-63-1 and led the team to three Super Bowls. He was twice named Coach of the Year (1981, 1984) and was later named Coach of the Decade for the 1980s.
- His father, Bruce, was an offensive lineman at Iowa where he played in the 1982 Rose Bowl before suffering a career-ending injury in training camp with the Washington Redskins in 1982. Following his football career, Bruce went on to become an assistant coach at Oklahoma University (2010-12).
- Following more than five years as a criminal defense attorney, Bruce Kittle is currently the offensive line coach at Lipscomb Academy (Nashville, TN) HS, under former 49ers QB and current Lipscomb head coach Trent Dilfer.

47 ELIJAH LEE

LB

6-2 | 230 | KANSAS STATE

2.8.96 | BLUE SPRINGS, MO | 3RD YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '17

GOLDMINE

- Lee says he doesn't let a day go by without giving credit to his mother, ShaRon, for teaching him to always work hard and strive for more. "My biggest motivation is my mom and working hard for her," said Lee. After moving in with his mother in high school, he and his two sisters relied on their mother to play the role of both parents. Lee says he couldn't have asked for more from her as a child. "She got me to this point. I work as hard as I can every day to make her proud." After receiving a scholarship to play football at Kansas State University, ShaRon never let her son settle, pushing him to excel on the field and in the classroom as a business major. "I am a believer that if you want something, you have to work and sacrifice to get it," said ShaRon. "When I watch Elijah now and see how much he has grown as a football player and as a person, it makes it all worth it."

LEE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Earned First-Team All-Big 12 honors as a junior in 2016 by the Associated Press, ESPN.com and Big 12 coaches.
- Prior to his junior season in 2016, was named to the watch list for multiple national awards including the Bednarik Award, Nagurski Trophy and Butkus Award.
- Was teammates at Kansas State in 2016 with 49ers 2018 fifth-round draft choice (142nd overall), D.J. Reed Jr.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Lee and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

KAPRON LEWIS-MOORE

6-4 | 315 | NOTRE DAME

1.24.90 | WEATHERFORD, TX | 3RD YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

GOLDMINE

- Lewis-Moore went into his final season at Notre Dame with a lot to fight for. Coming off an injury, he returned to practice without a guaranteed spot on the team. Instead of counting himself out, Kapron committed himself to the team, putting in extra hours in the weight room and working harder than he had before. Because of his resilience, he was named one of four team captains heading into the season. "I got a little teary eyed," he said. "I knew this season was going to be special but to be captain is just something I can't really explain. It's speechless." Despite the added pressure, his production rose throughout the season, becoming a highlight to his college career.

LEWIS-MOORE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Excelled in basketball, football and track & field while in high school.
- Was the winner of the prestigious Francis Patrick O'Connor Award as a senior at Notre Dame. The award is presented to a student-athlete who possesses qualities of caring, courage, confidence, encouragement, humility, honesty, humor, kindness, and patience.

AWARDS & HONORS

2018: 49ers Community Relations Youth Football Ambassador Award

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Mabin and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. New Teacher Center is dedicated to improving student learning by accelerating the effectiveness of teachers and school leaders.

- Mabin and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- After earning a scholarship to Iowa as a wide receiver, Hawkeyes head coach Kirk Ferentz called Mabin into his office prior to his sophomore season and proposed an idea he had for a while. "He said my skill set would probably transition better for cornerback rather than a receiver in the NFL," said Mabin. Now as an NFL cornerback, Mabin has no complaints with coach Ferentz's decision. "It's working out for me so far."

MABIN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Played with 49ers teammates, QB C.J. Beathard and TE George Kittle at the University of Iowa.
- Transitioned from wide receiver to defensive back prior to 2013 spring practice at Iowa.
- Mabin comes from a family of successful athletes. His father, Wesley, played cornerback at the University of Nebraska, where he won two National Championships in 1970 and 1971. Mabin's family also has NFL ties, as his cousin, Jordan Mabin previously played cornerback for multiple NFL teams from 2012-15 and his cousin, Dorin Dickerson, also spent time in the NFL as a tight end from 2010-15. "Dorin says me and Jordan couldn't check him. We always go back and forth with each other, but they're just happy for me," said Mabin. "They just want me to succeed and do this for as long as I can."

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Mabin and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Mabin and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. 7.16.92 | MADISON, AL | 6TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

- When Jordan Matthews signed as a free agent with the 49ers this past offseason, he continued a family legacy that began over 30 years ago. Matthews' mother is a first cousin of 49ers great Jerry Rice, who Matthews lists as his favorite player. Before getting drafted by the Eagles in 2014, Matthews reached out to Rice and asked for advice. "He said 'everywhere you go, tell yourself you're the best person there and that you're supposed to be there,' said Jordan. "And that's what I did. I can (still) use that advice."

- Matthews established Matthews Mission in 2016 in order to give back and contribute to the different communities that affected him in life. The mission of the foundation is to FEED - feed the hungry, educate the children, empower the family and donate to those in need. Since its inception, the foundation has donated or raised more than $200,000 for different charities, ranging from Boys & Girls Clubs to the Vanderbilt Annual Fund. This past summer, Matthews teamed up with former Vanderbilt teammates and alumni to put on a charity baseball game, benefitting charities that spread awareness and aid the end of domestic abuse in Nashville.

Cheyna was a member of the Jamaican team for the 2019 FIFA World Cup.

DAVID MAYO

LB

6-2 | 240 | TEXAS STATE

8.18.93 | SCAPPOOSE, OR | 5TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

GOLDMINE

- Mayo has often been seen running around the football field with long, cascading blond hair draped across the back of his jersey. Mayo remembers his free-flowing hair being in the limelight even during his time at Texas State. "I got the Matthews comparison all the time in college," Mayo said. "I worked at a rental place in the summers – I would hand out tubes to float – and on a Saturday I'd get the 'You look like Clay Matthews' 50 times, at least." He has grown his hair out three separate times, with each haircut going to the benefit of the Locks of Love foundation, which takes the donations and manufactures wigs for children in need due to medical conditions that have caused them to permanently lose their hair.

MAYO'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- Was teammates with the only other alumni of Scappoose (OR) HS to reach the NFL, QB Derek Anderson, for three seasons (2015-17) with the Carolina Panthers.

GOLDMINE

- Mayo knew that he wanted to play in the NFL when he was in the fourth grade, but he did not receive a Division I offer after a successful high school career in Oregon. He elected to play at a junior college in Santa Monica, California, before attempting to transfer to a larger school. In Santa Monica, Mayo rented a shed located behind a woman's house for $450 a month. The 10-foot-by-15-foot shed, composed of cement and plywood, was powered by an extension cord that Mayo ran from the main house. "We were looking at places online for me to live and it was just so expensive. It was outrageous," Mayo said. "It was a nice shed, but it was still a shed. I had to duck to get in." After earning All-Pacific Conference honors his only year at Santa Monica in 2011, Mayo acquired a scholarship to Texas State and continued on his path to the NFL.

WR

MAX McCAFFREY

6-2 | 205 | DUKE

5.17.94 | HIGHLANDS RANCH, CO | 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '18

GOLDMINE

- Growing up, McCaffrey got a taste of the NFL at a very young age. His father, Ed (pictured below), was selected by the New York Giants in the third round (83rd overall) of the 1991 NFL Draft. During his 13-year career, he played for the Giants (1991-93), San Francisco 49ers (1994) and Denver Broncos (1995-2003). He also went on to win three Super Bowls (Super Bowl XXIX, XXXII, and XXXIII). "Watching his games, going to his training camps, it's always been a huge part of our life and our family," said McCaffrey. "We wanted to play because of our dad." After graduating from Duke University in 2016, McCaffrey followed in his father's footsteps, signing an NFL contract of his own. His younger brother, Christian, continued the trend the following year, being selected 8th overall by the Carolina Panthers in the 2017 NFL draft. "It's been a dream of ours since we were little," said Max. "We're competitive as brothers, but we all want to see each other succeed."

McCAFFREY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- McCaffrey's grandfather, Dave Sime, also attended Duke University where he played baseball and was a member of the Duke track & field team. He went on to earn a silver medal in the 100 meter dash at the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome, Italy.
- McCaffrey's father, Ed, played for the 49ers in 1994, earning a Super Bowl ring with the team after defeating the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX.

- With such an accomplished father in Ed McCaffrey, there is one element to the game of football that Max has a leg-up on his dad. Said Ed, "Max is faster than me. I'm not afraid to admit it. He's always been fast. Speed is something I always worked on really hard. He does have some God-given speed and I think that will serve him well."
- While hiking with his brothers and friends in Castle Rock, CO, McCaffrey came to a stranger's rescue, after the man fell nearly 20 feet on the hike. McCaffrey and others helped phone 9-1-1 after the fellow hiker suffered a broken femur, pelvis and neck and had nine fractured ribs, essentially saving the man's life.

MIKE McGLINCHEY

6-8 | 310 | NOTRE DAME

1.12.95 | PHILADELPHIA, PA | 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED D-1 IN '18

2018: PFWA All-Rookie Team, ESPN All-Rookie Team

GOLDMINE

- McGlinchey was so big for his age that as a child, his parents would make sure to bring his birth certificate to his basketball games. Later, at age eight, he was hoping to make his debut in youth football, but decided against it after the league's directors told his family that they would have to place him on a team with eighth and ninth graders due to his size. Embracing such a large frame as a child, McGlinchey constantly threw his weight around with his big family, which featured 22 cousins and 5 siblings. Even at his grandmother's wake, McGlinchey and his extended family engaged in a pickup football game while still dressed in their suits. As Mike puts it, "That's the way she would have wanted it."
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. McGlinchey and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Autism Speaks is dedicated to promoting solutions, across the spectrum and throughout the life span, for the needs of people with autism and their families.

McGLINCHEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- McGlinchey's uncle, John Loughery, played QB at Boston College (1979-82) as did his cousin, Matt Ryan (2004-07). Ryan currently plays for the Atlanta Falcons and earned 2016 NFL MVP honors under current 49ers head coach Kyle Shanahan, who was Ryan's offensive coordinator (Mike pictured top right).

- Despite being roughly six foot, eight inches tall, McGlinchey doesn't know where his large frame came from. Said McGlinchey jokingly, "My dad is about five foot, eleven inches. My mom is five foot, eight inches. So, it must have been a genetic mutation."

- McGlinchey and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. McGlinchey and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- McGlinchey and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

RB

JERICK MCKINNON

5-9 | 205 | GEORGIA SOUTHERN

5.3.92 | MARIETTA, GA | 6TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '18

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. McKinnon and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Silicon Valley Animal Control Authority has services and programs that include the care of sick, injured, lost and abandoned companion animals, animal cruelty investigations, enforcement of animal laws, education and outreach programs, volunteer and foster programs, and more.

- McKinnon and his new teammate Matt Breida were an integral part in the history of Georgia Southern football. The Eagles program was a FCS school for the majority of its existence. It wasn't until the success of the team with McKinnon at virtually every position, which led to the program officially moved to FBS play following his senior season in 2013. "Those two guys were very important in our transition from FCS to FBS and showed that Georgia Southern did belong in Division I football," said Georgia Southern head coach Chad Lunsford.

MCKINNON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Given the nickname 'Jet' at Georgia Southern after contributing early as a freshman. McKinnon's strength and conditioning coach was impressed with his abilities and presented him with two options, 'Jet' and 'Juke.' Jerick chose 'Jet', and the nickname has fittingly stuck with him throughout his career.
- Jerick's brother, Lester Norwood, was a defensive back at the University of Florida from 1998-2002.

- While at Sprayberry High, McKinnon's head coach Billy Shackelford showed confidence in him, playing him all over the field at quarterback, running back, wide receiver and defensive back. Shackelford urged schools to recruit McKinnon and proclaimed that he had zero red flags as a prospect, and would outwork any player on their current roster. Yet, despite a successful high school career, McKinnon was shunned by major schools who passed on him for taller or heavier prospects. Later, despite an extremely successful career at Georgia Southern, McKinnon's draft projection stated that he was a 'jack of all trades, but a master of none.' For McKinnon, the comments just served as additional motivation. "That kind of rubbed me the wrong way," he said. "I've got it as the screensaver on my phone. I look at it every day. It fuels me." Three years into his NFL career, McKinnon played in his hometown of Atlanta for the first time. For his homecoming, McKinnon made sure that Coach Shackelford, the man who always believed in him, had prime seats for the game.

TARVARIUS MOORE

6-2 | 200 | SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

8.16.96 | QUITMAN, MS | 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED D-3B IN '18

GOLDMINE

- Prior to the start of his senior year at Southern Mississippi, Moore's younger sister, TavyAnna, passed away suddenly at the age of 16. "My sister was basically my best friend," said Moore. "After every game, no matter what, she was always the first person I'd see. Even if it was a tough loss, she would just always try to encourage me or give me some words of wisdom. For her to be my younger sister, she was kind of like my big sister at times. So, it was pretty hard. But I know she would want me to go out and do my best." Moore, who changed his Twitter screen name to "#Dolt4Tavy" shortly before the 2017 season began, found it easier to keep his chin up his senior season because of the inspiration he's drawn from his sister. "When I think about her, it gives me the motivation to keep on going each and every day," he said. "When I'm on the field, if I'm tired or my teammates are tired, I just try to think what she would want me to do. I know she would never want me to quit or give up on anything. So I just try to find it within to go as hard as I can."

MOORE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Coming from a town with just two stop lights, Moore is looking forward to having the opportunity to travel. "I can remember as a kid, just going to any big city was a big deal for us," Moore said. GOLDMINE

- Mullens and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.
- The 49ers, in partnership with Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), visited the Santa Clara Juvenile Hall to work with residents on frustration management on October 9, 2018. Mullens and his teammates held a discussion with the young people, and later divided into groups to engage in football drills that demonstrated the proper way to focus negative energy in a positive manner. After the drills, they held another discussion centered on making right decisions when it comes to frustration management.

The One Love Foundation believes that love is a skill we can work on, and focuses on three main elements to convey their message: content, conversation and community action.

- In September of 2017, the San Francisco 49ers hosted the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy, in partnership with USA Football. Mullens and other notable 49ers rookies led local high school football players through an evening of leadership development. The three-step program is designed to develop the skills necessary for players to succeed and lead on and off the field. Players from Christopher High School, Gilroy High School, Lowell High School, Milpitas High School, Santa Clara High School, Westmont High School and Wilcox High School were in attendance.

KYLE NELSON

6-2 | 240 | NEW MEXICO STATE

10.3.86 | CHINA SPRINGS, TX | 8TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '14

- Always around football, in the summers, Kyle would help his dad, Mark, when he was coaching in the NCAA and CFL. At a young age, Kyle got to see tight knit locker rooms and learned how successful teams work together on and off the field. Mark's career as a football coach meant many moves for the Nelson family. Kyle was born in Norman, OK and growing up, the family moved between Tulsa, OK and Canada three times and Kyle spent time living in Georgia, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico before coming to California.
- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. For My Cause, My Cleats, Nelson is supporting JW House, which aims to provide a warm, comfortable "home away from home" for families facing medical crisis. "Families facing medical crises need rest and self-care while their loved one is in the hospital," said Nelson. "I want to bring hope and encouragement to those going through the unimaginable."

NELSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Comes from a football family where he is a third generation member. His father, Mark, is the linebackers coach for the Ottawa REDBLACKS in the Canadian Football League, with a quarter-century of coaching experience. Mark played in the CFL for six seasons and spent time coaching in the NCAA at Louisville, Arkansas Tech, Baylor and Kentucky. Kyle's grandfather, Roger, was drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1954. He played offensive tackle for 13 seasons for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from 1954-67 and was elected into the CFL Hall of Fame in 1985.
- Growing up in Canada, the first sport he played was ice hockey. Following a move to the United States in middle school, he began playing soccer before playing football for the first time his junior year of high school.

- The story of how Nelson became a long snapper goes back to his father's playing days. In the middle of training camp, Nelson's dad was extremely tired after grueling practices. Heading into his 11th season he thought to himself, "I wish I was a long snapper." He said, "If I ever have a son, I'm going to make sure he learns how to snap."
- In the past, Nelson has worked with middle school football players in Phoenix, AZ, teaching them the craft of long snapping as colleges begin recruiting students specifically to fill that role. "It helps the kids get into school," he said. "We do it to get them scholarships, get their school paid for so their parents don't have to."
- In his spare time, Nelson enjoys drawing, reading and going hiking. When Kyle was growing up, his family planned hikes on the weekends where he was able to witness the landscape of Arkansas, Georgia, Texas and Arizona. It translated to painting, where Kyle draws pictures of the outdoors such as oceans, forests and mountains. "I like turning color pictures into black and white, charcoal, Sharpies," he said. "It's a nice, relaxing hobby."
- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Nelson, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- Ahead of WrestleMania 32, which took place at AT&T Stadium in 2016, Nzeocha joined WWE superstars and spent the day with patients at Children's Health Medical Center in Dallas, playing games, coloring, and speaking to them about the benefits of staying positive throughout tough times. In December, he made a second trip to Children's Health Medical Center as he and his teammates made their annual Children's Hospital Christmas visits. Nzeocha and his teammates also visited Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children in Dallas, Cook Children's Medical Center in Fort Worth, and Medical City Children's Hospital. During each visit, he gave away numerous gifts to hundreds of children and signed autographs, making their Christmas holiday memorable.
- As a rookie in 2015, Nzeocha visited The Salvation Army along with other members of the Dallas Cowboys organization. He and other rookies served an early Thanksgiving meal in Fort Worth while veteran players on the team spread throughout Dallas to do the same. With food donations from Albertsons, he played a significant role helping feed over 500 Salvation Army patrons during the Cowboys early Thanksgiving meal, the signature event of the Cowboys-Salvation Army partnership.

NZEOCHA'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced nuh-ZAH-chuh.
- At 14, Nzeocha, who knew nothing about American football, was approached by a former coach to come participate in a practice. After that first day, he spent his free time watching games and clips on YouTube in order to learn the sport. Rising in the European ranks, Nzeocha went from playing on his school's club team to being voted first-team All Europe after his junior German national team made the European Championship. This helped get the attention of American coaches, which led him to Division I football.
- His brother Eric Nzeocha also attended the University of Wyoming and played LB for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In 2016, Nzeocha teamed with longtime Dallas Mavericks F Dirk Nowitzki and over 50 celebrities to play in the 2016 Dirk Nowitzki Celebrity Baseball Game. The annual family-fun event gave all proceeds to children's charities: Dirk Nowitzki Foundation and Heroes Foundation. Alongside Nowitzki, Nzeocha and various other athletes in Dallas continued to play a huge role helping the youth in the greater Dallas community.

D.J. REED JR.

DB

5-9 | 193 | KANSAS STATE

11.11.96 | BAKERSFIELD, CA | 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED D-5 IN '18

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Reed Jr. and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The National Multiple Sclerosis Society aims to help people affected by MS so they can live their best lives in an attempt to stop MS in its tracks, restore what has been lost and end MS forever.

- Reed Jr. and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- Reed Jr. played his final college football game against UCLA in the 2017 Cactus Bowl. While at the bowl game, he and his teammates were given fresh gear for their participation in the game. Later in the week, Reed wore his new white shoes while visiting a local Salvation Army in Phoenix, AZ. He struck a bond with Israel, a seven year-old who he could tell came from a bad background. Reed Jr. made his new friend's day by taking off his new shoes and giving them to him. He was happy to walk home barefoot, as he said that he was content in making someone else's day.

REED JR.'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- Reed Jr., having zero offers from a Division I school out of high school, walked on at Fresno State for one season before transferring to Cerritos College (Norwalk, CA). At Cerritos, Reed lived in a two-bedroom apartment with seven other teammates and split time sleeping on the couch and the floor. He then transferred to Kansas State, where he played under head coach Bill Snyder for two seasons and went on to earn All-America honors.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event in September of 2018. Reed Jr. and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- Reed Jr. and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

LARoy REYNOLDS

6-1 | 228 | VIRGINIA

11.3.90 | NORFOLK, VA | 7TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

GOLDMINE

- As a kid in Norfolk, Virginia, LaRoy Reynolds spent a majority of his time in Lakewood Park, playing football with the kids around his neighborhood. After breaking into the NFL, Reynolds wanted to give back to his hometown, creating his Dawg House youth football camp. "I grew up playing in Lakewood Park - so I wanted to bring that back. Bring the kids out to Lakewood and have a Saturday like it used to be. I want that energy back because it did a lot for me growing up." The annual camp is open to boys and girls, from kindergarten to 12th grade, with personal coaching from Reynolds and other NFL players. "This is where we started and I think for me, football gave me something greater than myself and it involved a lot of people. Outside of the game, the love that it brings me, I want to be able to extend that love," said Reynolds.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Reynolds and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

REYNOLDS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was high school teammates with former Seattle Seahawks S Kam Chancellor and former NFL OL Winston Painter at Maury High School in Norfolk, VA.
- When Reynolds is on the football field, he thinks about the people who helped get him there. Kita, LaRoy's older sister, is someone who taught him how to be tough on and off the football field. The tight-knit siblings spent nearly every day playing football together after school. LaRoy credits Kita for helping him grow into the person he is today. "I think she really helped me develop as a man," LaRoy said. These days, LaRoy plays on a different football field, but he doesn't forget where it all started. "Every time I put the jersey on, I think about it [family] and it kind of helps me stay focused," LaRoy said. "It helps me understand who I'm playing for, what I'm playing for."

Another source of motivation comes in the form of 49ers Defensive Coordinator, Robert Saleh. Saleh, who coached Reynolds in Jacksonville. Saleh offered LaRoy words of wisdom after he was cut from the Jaguars. "Everything comes full-circle' my linebacker coach Robert Saleh told me. It was a transition for me to say the least, but his advice kept me driven during the process, trusting that everything that happens is meant to happen."

SHERMAN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In addition to finding success on the football field, Sherman has consistently excelled in the classroom. He became the first Dominguez HS student in 20 years to earn a scholarship from Stanford University after finishing high school with a 4.2 GPA. At Stanford, Sherman carried a 3.7 GPA and graduated with a degree in communications.
- Sherman has also proved himself as a standout track & field athlete. In high school, he earned All-America honors from USA Today in the triple jump with a school and league-record jump of 50 feet, 8 inches. He later earned a spot on the Stanford track & field team and competed as a freshman, placing fifth in the triple jump at the Pac-10 Championships.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Since entering the NFL in 2011, Sherman has registered 32 INTs and 103 PDs. His 32 INTs lead the league, and his 103 PDs rank 2nd among all active players.

- As a rookie with Seattle in 2011, his 4 INTs in just 10 starts tied for the second-most by a rookie in franchise history.

GOLDMINE

- Sherman, born and raised in Compton, CA, epitomizes the idea of a success story and was heavily influenced by his parents, Beverly and Kevin. Beverly works with disabled, inner-city children, while Kevin works as a garbage truck driver. Kevin's day begins at 3:45 a.m. and he continues to work, even after Richard found success in the NFL. "It forced my brother and me to understand priorities and family," Richard said. For Kevin, it was about showing his children the value of finishing what you start. "I always tell my kids to finish," Kevin said. "It's all about finishing what I started."

- Sherman launched his own foundation, Blanket Coverage, in 2013. The foundation provides school supplies and clothing to students in low-income communities so they can more adequately achieve their goals. Sherman has hosted a variety of events with his foundation, including clothing drives, softball tournaments and trips to local schools. Sherman was influenced as a student at Dominguez HS after Magic Johnson gave an inspirational speech at his school, stressing the values of education. Information on Sherman's foundation can be found at <https://www.richardsherman25.com>.

- During the 2017 offseason, Sherman and his organization, Blanket Coverage, held their biggest backpack giveaway to date. Sherman's organization provided backpacks and free food on a first come, first serve basis to children in the Seattle area. Sherman and volunteers distributed backpacks, met with local families, took photos and participated in fun activities with the kids, which even included Sherman himself feeling the wrath of the dunk tank.

- After serving as the Seahawks team representative with the NFL Player's Association since 2014, Sherman was promoted to the organization's executive committee as vice president in 2016. The NFLPA serves as a union for professional football players and provides support for current and former players, while also enhancing their experiences in community-related organizations across the league.

- Since he was a child, Sherman has always thought about his future endeavors as a father, which became a reality with the birth of his son, Rayden, in February of 2015, and his daughter, Avery, in April of 2016. "I've thought about my kids since I was a kid. The greatest impact I could have on the world is raising good kids," Sherman said in a self-composed Players Tribune piece. "Football is something that I felt like I was born to do, and I was blessed with ability and the great fortune to be able to play it professionally, and I'm thankful for that and I take that very serious, and I want to be one of the best to ever do it. But in the end, being a great father, it's like the best thing you could ever be - to watch my son and daughter grow up to be incredible people and watch them make a greater impact on this world than I ever could."

- Sherman is one of five NFL players that holds a charitable partnership with Microsoft. In October of 2017, Sherman's organization was granted $25,000 from the company, which he intends to use by building a Microsoft Surface computer lab at Compton HS. Sherman, a Compton native, wants to utilize his partnership to prove to students in low-income areas that everyone has great potential, and with the power of proper technology and school supplies, students of all backgrounds have the ability to be successful in school and accomplish their goals.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranks 5th in franchise history for the most regular season games played by an offensive lineman (174).
- Became the 1st 49ers rookie O-Lineman to start every single game in a season since Cas Banaszek (1968-77), who started all 14 contests in 1968.
- Was 1 of only 3 NFL rookies (former 49ers LB Patrick Willis and Browns LT Joe Thomas) to line up for every single snap in 2007, and was 1 of 35 NFL players overall to accomplish the feat out of 1,898 total players.
- Recovered a fumble for a TD [vs. NYJ (12/7/08)], becoming the 6th offensive lineman in 49ers history to register a TD.
- Started the 150th game of his career vs. Dal. (10/22/17).

STALEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced STAY-lee.
- Was the 49ers 2018 Garry Niver Award winner, presented annually by the San Francisco Chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America to a 49ers player for his cooperation and professionalism in helping the pro football writers do their jobs.
- One of eight finalists for the annual Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award each year from 2015-18, presented to the NFL player who best demonstrates the qualities of on-field sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for the game and opponents, and integrity in competition.
- During the 2015 offseason, he and his teammates invited Anthony Pineda, a 13-year-old who battled Leukemia, to be a "Captain for the Day" as part of ESPN's "My Wish" program.
- While speaking at the team's 2019 State of the Franchise, Staley, joined by CEO Jed York, general manager John Lynch and head coach Kyle Shanahan, announced that he signed a two-year contract extension earlier that week to keep him on the team through the 2021 season. Staley has spent his entire NFL career with the team, and he doesn't plan on a change in scenery. "Jed, since the moment you guys drafted me in 2007, it's been my absolute honor to play for this franchise," Staley said. "And I want nothing more than to complete my entire career here." He added, "What we want to do is bring you a championship trophy. I want to because this is the only franchise that matters to me."

GOLDMINE

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Staley and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- After posing for a photoshoot, Staley and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Staley, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- In July of 2016, Staley, along with fellow NFL players, appeared on ABC's Family Feud as part of "Celebrity Family Feud." He was part of a team that competed on the iconic game show to win up to $25,000 for charity. On the show, he was teammates with Pierre Garçon, and the two were teammates on the field with the 49ers for two seasons (2017-18).

- In 2013, Joe was an ambassador for San Francisco's first Electric Run, a 5K race that benefits Smile Train, the world's largest cleft lip and palate charity. The race, which was held at Candlestick Park, raised $10,000 for Smile Train and more than 8,000 people participated in the event.
- Prior to Super Bowl 50 at Levi's Stadium, Staley gave away a pair of tickets and a signed game-worn jersey to single father Johnel Spivey and his seven-year-old daughter, Jordan. Spivey, 54, had been on dialysis three days a week for the previous six years. Despite surgery, he avoided pain medication so he could stay focused on his daughter's needs.
- Entering his sophomore season at Central Michigan, Staley and the football program experienced a coaching change. New head coach Brian Kelly and offensive line coach Jeff Quinn asked him to make the switch to offensive tackle. He agreed and the transformation began where he began to wake up at 2 a.m. to consume a 2,000 calorie weight-gaining shake and would work out twice a day to prepare his body for its new life in the trenches. In the first offseason, Staley added 20 pounds to his lean frame. By the time he was a senior, he reached 290 pounds and went on to become the first Chippewa to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.

KENTAVIUS STREET

6-2 | 287 | NORTH CAROLINA STATE

5.8.96 | GREENVILLE, NC | 1ST YEAR | ACQUIRED D-4 IN '18

- Street's grandfather, who served in the Marine Corps, gave him advice in the first grade that would last a lifetime. He told Kentavius that no matter the circumstance, he was going to have to outwork the competition. Street states that he has taken that mindset and carried it with him everywhere he goes - in the classroom, on the field, in the weight room and in the community.
- One of Street's favorite memories comes from a tightly-contested, 10-3 home victory over Notre Dame in 2016. The game was played under unique circumstances, as Hurricane Matthew had recently struck the east coast and transformed the field to a 100-yard slip and slide with a constant downpour in addition to 20-plus mile per hour winds attacking the field. "It was a battle to the very end," Street said. "It was such a fun, well-fought victory."

STREET'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Street's athletic ability was featured in a video of his 700-pound squat at a NC State workout, which went viral.
- Street has a cousin, Kiwauke Thomas, who played 8 seasons in the NFL with the Jaguars, Bills and Dolphins. After his playing career was over, Kiwauke got into coaching, and was recently named the head football coach at Middle Georgia State University.
- Along with Bradley Chubb (Denver Broncos - 5th overall), B.J. Hill (New York Giants - 69th overall) and Justin Jones (Los Angeles Chargers - 84th overall), Street became the final player from NC State's starting defensive line to be drafted in 2018. It marks the first time since 2013 that a school's complete starting defensive line was selected in the same draft (LSU - 2013).

- Street and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy in September of 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

AWARDS & HONORS

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Tardt and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The Epilepsy Foundation of Northern California is dedicated to providing information, resources, and support to the over 180,000 Northern Californians living with epilepsy.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event in September of 2018. Tardt and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

TARTT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His first name is pronounced juh-KWAH-skee.
- Teamed with Next Level Football Camp for his inaugural camp in his hometown of Mobile, AL, on July 9, 2016. The goal of the camp was to allow one day of football training to impact the other 364 days of the year by participants being partnered with a mentor/coach from the camp.
- Named the 49ers Thomas Herrion Memorial Award winner for the 2015 season. The award, as voted on by the coaches, was established in 2005 by 49ers owners Denise and John York and is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion.
- Became the sixth player selected in the NFL Draft in Samford school history and holds the distinction of being the first player drafted in the second round or higher.
- Reunited with high school teammate and 2014 49ers 1st round pick DB Jimmie Ward. Both are products of Davidson HS in Mobile, AL. The pair won the Class 6A Region 1 football championship as the school's starting safeties in 2009.

- While visiting his hometown of Mobile during his youth football camp in July of 2016, Tardt was given the key to the city. "If anybody would have told me I would be getting a key to the city of Mobile, I'd have thought they were crazy. It's a wonderful feeling."

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. Tartt chose NorCal Epilepsy Foundation as his My Cause, My Cleats initiative. Tartt was inspired by his close friend and manager whose daughter, Aria, was diagnosed with Epilepsy at four months old. No medicine was helping and Aria would have up to 100 seizures a day. But after brain surgery where a piece of her brain was removed, she is now seizure free. "I want to raise awareness for Epilepsy, a cause folks know little about," said Tartt. "My message to those affected by the disease: Stay strong and know that you are not in this fight alone!"

- Tartt provided 75 backpacks full of school supplies to 7th graders at Scarborough Model Middle School of Mobile in preparation for the upcoming school year. Said Tartt, "I met with the Mayor and his team and they decided that this would be the best thing to do. Every year, I'm just trying to do something to give back to my community. It was great to see how happy the kids were."

- Drafted by the 49ers in the second round of the 2015 NFL Draft, Tartt reunited with best friend and former high school teammate DB Jimmie Ward. Both products of Davidson High School in Mobile, AL, the pair won the Class 6A Region 1 football championship as the school's starting safeties in 2009.
- In April of 2018, Tartt and his teammates attended the eighth annual Prom at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco in Mission Bay, with more than 200 teen patients and their friends. Patients and 49ers players enjoyed a fun-filled "Vintage Circus" prom with photo booths, music, dancing, dining and more. This special evening allowed patients to participate in a milestone that they may miss as a result of sickness.

- A two-time All-American and All-Southern Conference selection, Tartt was the first player in Samford school history to be invited to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl. Just the sixth player selected in the NFL draft in school history, Jaquiski holds the distinction of being the first player drafted in the second round or higher from Samford University.
- Tartt's young football career has been heavily influenced by his family. He played his first year of organized football in 2009 at Davidson HS in Mobile, AL, to honor his grandfather, Alfred Lewis, who passed away during the summer before his senior year. "The football coaches and my friends wanted me to come out and play, and he really wanted me to play. I really wanted to play again ever since he passed away, so I do this in his memory." Additionally, Jaquiski chose to attend Samford University at the urging of his mother, a traveling nurse who wanted to go there herself because of their pharmacy program.

The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

6-3 | 280 | STANFORD

GOLDMINE

- Each year, Thomas walks to raise money for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. "I lost one of the most important people in my world to suicide earlier this year," said Thomas. "I will be walking for her and for everyone who suffers from the pain she felt. Ella was my sister. Ella was my best friend. She loved harder than she could breathe. She filled a room with such a strong presence that it would light up the room. She made my life go. Having Ella as my sister was the greatest gift this life has given me. She taught me to be myself, to make everyone feel loved, to appreciate everything in front of me, and so much more. She was so perceptive and so compassionate. I will live every day for my amazing sister."

"I walk not only because of what happened to Ella and our family; I walk because I want to help others. I want others to have better information and resources. It's time to talk about mental health. It's time to acknowledge that everyone is going through something that we don't know about and might not understand. It's time to have empathy for those things we don't understand. The funds raised at this walk will benefit the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. Net proceeds will help those affected by suicide and mental health conditions by supporting research, advocacy, survivor resources, education and awareness programs. "Be meaningful in every conversation, seek to show others you care. You never know what you could say that might save someone's life. I want to make this a better world. Please help me in support of those who suffer." Each year, the Thomas family gets together a group of family and friends which will be known as team "Ella's Sunflowers."

If you are in crisis, please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255) or contact the Crisis Text Line by texting TALK to 741741.

THOMAS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Born in Chicago, IL, Thomas moved and spent part of his childhood living in Australia. His father, Chris, was an international sales manager for Procter & Gamble and he was stationed there. Thomas grew up learning to surf and enjoyed playing on the beach and eating fish and chips. He didn't begin playing football until he moved to Coppel, TX.

- One of Thomas' two career touchdowns at Stanford came at Levi's Stadium, returning a fumble recovery 34 yards for the score in the Cardinal's 41-22 victory over USC in the 2015 Pac-12 Championship Game.
- As a junior at Stanford, Thomas earned the Morris Trophy, a prestigious honor voted on by opposing Pac-12 offensive linemen. He joins 49ers teammates DL DeForest Buckner and G Joshua Garnett as Morris Trophy winners on the roster.

- The 49ers partnered with CASSY (Counseling and Support Services for Youth) for a mental health awareness event at Monroe Middle School (Campbell, CA) on December 18, 2018. Thomas and his teammates joined the 6th, 7th and 8th grade students who were pre-identified as having mental health struggles, and held group discussions centered on managing stress and destigmatizing mental health matters.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Thomas and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP) gives those affected by suicide a nationwide community empowered by research, education and advocacy to take action against this leading cause of death. Thomas also included the phrase "Bad Boys for Life," as a tribute to he and his sister Ella's favorite movie, Bad Boys.

- After posing for a photo-shoot, Thomas and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.
- In partnership with the One Love Foundation, Thomas, his 49ers teammates and their significant others participated in a film-based workshop with local high school students about healthy and unhealthy relationships. The group watched a film together, and thereafter, held group discussions about the implications of the relationship behaviors depicted in the film. The One Love Foundation believes that love is a skill we can work on, and focuses on three main elements to convey their message: content, conversation and community action.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Thomas and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- Thomas comes from an athletic family. His father, Chris, and mother, Martha, each attended the College of Wooster (OH) where Chris played basketball and Martha ran track. Solomon's uncle, Jon Thomas, ran track at Indiana University where he was a four-time Big Ten 400m hurdles champion.
- Thomas spent part of his life living in Australia. Says Solomon, "My dad was an international sales manager for Proctor & Gamble, and they had him out there. It was an amazing experience to be there from two to seven or eight. It definitely gave me a different perspective on life and definitely shaped me for life." Thomas' family moved back to the United States and spent a few years living in Connecticut. It wasn't until his family prepared to move to Texas that Thomas was introduced to football, when his parents had him watch 'Friday Night Lights.'
- During his childhood, Thomas grew up speaking with a thick Australian accent. When he moved back to the States, no one in school could understand him, so he took three years of speech therapy classes to remove the accent. However, if it was up to Thomas, he would have kept the accent. Said Thomas, "It's unfortunate, because I'd love to still have my Australian accent."
- In October of 2017, the 49ers partnered with Bags of Fun to deliver backpacks to children undergoing treatment at Lucile Packard Children's Hospital. Each bag was personalized with educational, interactive and fun toys to provide joy, laughter and relief from the stress and anxiety of being in the hospital. Thomas and his teammates spent time with patients receiving Bags of Fun and other families in the hospital to uplift them during a difficult time.

- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show in October of 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Thomas, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Thomas is supporting 10 Books A Home for his My Cause, My Cleats initiative. Thomas' mom was a teacher and his family instilled the importance of having an education. 10 Books A Home is an early childhood education non-profit whose mission is to send all high poverty preschoolers to kindergarten prepared to perform above grade level. "Knowledge is power, an through constantly learning and growing, an education can bring you to places you never thought you could go," said Thomas.

DL

CEDRIC THORNTON

6-4 | 290 | SOUTHERN ARKANSAS

6.21.88 | STAR CITY, AR | 7TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '18

GOLDMINE

- Cedric Thornton comes from a small town, with a population of just over 8,000. Following the 2015 season, he returned to Star City, Arkansas, in order to serve as principle for the day at Jimmy Brown Elementary. Thornton partnered with a nonprofit to distribute almost 1,000 new books to the schoolchildren, hoping to encourage them to read more. While inspiring the kids academically, Thornton looks to teach on the football field as well. Each summer, he hosts a football camp at his former high school, open to kids from the surrounding communities. "I am passionate about God, family, football and uplifting my community," Thornton said. "It is a blessing to be able to travel back to my hometown to help motivate and inspire the youth to excel in life. I am living my dream and want to inspire others to achieve the same and then some."

THORNTON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Assisted in funding the indoor practice facility and weight room at Star City High School. Because of this, the facility was named the Cedric Thornton Athletic Complex.
- One of only six players in history to attend Division II Southern Arkansas and play in the NFL.
- Played as a running back and wide receiver in high school before transitioning to the defensive line.
- In addition to football, Thornton played baseball and basketball for Star City (AR) High School.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Thornton is used to long days of hard work. Before making it to the NFL, or even playing football, Thornton spent his summers picking peas on the farms near his home in rural Arkansas. His day lasted from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., spending every 90 minutes filling one bag. Each bag could have earned Cedric $50 depending on the weight of each bag, though he rarely reached that amount. According to him, he wasn't the fastest worker, but he was always an ethical one. "Some people would put rocks in the bottom of their bags to make them heavier, but I could never bring myself to do it," he said.

TE

LEVINE TOILOLO

6-8 | 268 | STANFORD

7.30.91 | LA MESA, CA | 7TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '19

- Toilolo isn't the first of his family to make it to the NFL. In fact, three of his uncles accomplished that feat before he did. His uncle, Dan Saleaumua, played for the Lions, Chiefs, and Seahawks from 1987-1998. A year later, uncle Edwin Mulitalo joined the Ravens, followed by the Lions, with his career spanning from 1999 to 2008. Joe Salave'a, who is currently a coach at the University of Oregon, played from 1998 to 2003, with his most recent team being the Chargers. Though Toilolo and his uncles are the only ones in his family to play in the NFL, that's not where the athleticism stops. Two of Levine's cousins played college football, another played college basketball and his sister, Chasity, ran track at the University of Utah.
- Levine, along with his brother and several cousins, sports a full arm of tattoos dedicated to his Polynesian heritage. Though Toilolo was born in California, his grandparents hail from Samoa. From the different symbols or representations of spearheads and shark teeth, his tattoos represent the strength that his family takes pride in. "When you think of Polynesia culture, you think bigger, and that warrior spirit has been around from our ancestors. And any Polynesian takes pride in that."

TOILOLO'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His name is pronounced luh-VEEN toy-LOW-low.
- Excels at playing the ukulele.
- Prior to the 2017 season, Levine and his teammates took part in Rally on the Runway, where Rally Kids composed of children fighting or who have fought cancer model down the runway with a player. The event raised more than $280,000 for childhood cancer research.

- Standing at 6'8", Toilolo is one of the tallest players in the NFL, towering over his competitors and fans alike. This was even more evident prior to Super Bowl LI, when the Atlanta Falcons participated in Opening Day. Levine was interviewed by Olympic gold medalist Simone Biles, a gymnast who measures in at 4'9". Biles was working as a special correspondent for "Inside Edition" following her appearance in Rio. In reference to the interview, Toilolo said, "Pretty cool getting the chance to speak with [a] U.S. Olympian and all around boss."

LAKEN TOMLINSON

6-3 | 315 | DUKE

2.9.92 | CHICAGO, IL | 5TH YEAR | ACQUIRED TR IN '17 - DET.

2018: Bobb McKittrick Award

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Tomlinson and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The National Alliance on Mental Illness is dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness.

- Tomlinson and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.
- Growing up in Jamaica, Tomlinson always aspired to serve in the healthcare industry. After his football career, he plans to become a neurosurgeon. Tomlinson has always taken education seriously, commuting 90 minutes each day to and from school to receive a quality education in high school. He went on to graduate from Duke University with a bachelor's degree in evolutionary anthropology and psychology. While currently focused on football, Tomlinson still finds time to shadow doctors to help prepare for a career in the medical field after his retirement from the NFL. Athletes everywhere can look to Tomlinson as proof that balancing academics and athletics can be difficult but achievable. He enjoys being a role model for kids, but plans to take it a step further. "I want to improve the healthcare system in Jamaica. I believe it is the best way to directly help people in need and make a difference," said Tomlinson.

TOMLINSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Moved to America from Jamaica when he was close to 11 years old, where he was raised by his single mother in the Rogers Park section of Chicago, IL.
- In 2018, was selected as the Bobb McKittrick Award winner, which is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the longtime offensive line coach, during his 21 years of service to the 49ers. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999, and is voted on by the offensive line.
- Was on the Track & Field team in high school where he participated in both the discus and shotput competitions.
- Named Academic All-ACC all four years of his college career at Duke (2011-14).

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Tomlinson and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In 2014, Tomlinson won the Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award which is presented by a select group of writers from the FWAA to an athlete that displays courage on and off the field, including overcoming an injury or living through hardship. "My mother has been the greatest influence on my life, and none of this recognition would be possible without her sacrifice, love and support," said Tomlinson as he received the award. After growing up in Jamaica and moving to the United States when he was 10, he gives all the credit for who he is today to his mother. "It means the world to me to make her proud. If not for her, I could still be in Jamaica, living a life of poverty. Every time I go home or have an opportunity to talk to my mother, she always tells me before she hangs up, 'Laken, I love you and I'm extremely proud of you and everything that you do for our family. Keep doing what you are doing. The Lord has a plan for you, Laken.'"

"That was something I did when I was younger. I just kept my dream alive, all about football. Making sure I took care of my body. All the right things to keep me going."

- Marvel's blockbuster Black Panther is a favorite of many, including cornerback Jason Verrett. When the film debuted in February of 2017, Verrett took 350 local students from Rodriguez High School to a screening. Verrett, a 2009 graduate of the school, acted like a superhero himself, hoping to uplift the kids who might not have been able to afford to see the film otherwise. The movie, which is set in Oakland and a fictional country in Africa called Wakanda, is highlighted by an African superhero and sports a primarily African-American cast. "I just think it's great. It's Marvel, first of all, plus it's so great for young kids to be able to have a superhero they admire and draw inspiration from," Verrett said.
- In December of 2018, Verrett spent his time with the Vacaville Neighborhood Boys and Girls Club, providing the kids with 50 winter coats, gift cards, and a bounty of toys. "Our Christmas party brings together the best in our community, especially the kids. They never know what gifts they will receive, or if they will even receive a gift," said Anna Eaton, executive director of the club. "[they] all were especially warmed to know that a community member thought of them."

VERRETT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Is distant cousins with ESPN SportsCenter anchor Stan Verrett.
- In June of 2019, Verrett held "Feeva's Fun Fest" in Fairfield, CA, which hosted free activities such as bubble soccer, kickball, Jenga, cornhole and connect four, among others.
- Appeared on an episode of The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon prior to the 2014 NFL Draft at Radio City Music Hall. Verrett starred alongside seven other Draft hopefuls, such as Odell Beckham Jr. and Teddy Bridgewater.
- Grew up playing football in the East San Francisco Bay Area with Detroit Lions RB C.J. Anderson

- Prior to the 2016 spring workouts, Verrett attempted to break a Guinness World Record. To break the record, Verrett needed to have some pretty decent speed. Evidently, he was too fast. On National High Five Day, the cornerback tried to break the world record for most high fives in one minute. In order to break the record, his attempt needed to be captured on video with a clear shot of each high five. Three hundred fans lined up to help him with the feat. Reaching every hand in 40 seconds, Verrett ran too quickly for the camera to follow him on a golf cart. Sadly, Verrett had to return to his workout and wasn't able to officially beat the previous record.

AWARDS & HONORS

2015: Hazeltine Iron Man Award

GOLDMINE

- Ward and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- Growing up in Mobile, AL, Ward knew when to separate himself from others in his neighborhood. Said Ward, "From where I come from, the neighborhood that I grew up in, a lot of people don't make it out. There's a lot of stuff. They either flunk out of school, end up having a child so they have to drop out of school and raise that child, or end up going to jail. It really just made me want to do something more than what my peers were doing." Ward would later surround himself with positive influences.

WARD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Named the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man Award winner for the 2015 season. The award is named for former linebacker Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS, and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches.
- On the day he was selected by the 49ers in the 1st round of the 2014 NFL Draft, drove three hours to New Orleans to purchase a new purse for his mother's birthday. He said, "I never really bought her anything expensive, because you're a kid. Growing up you would write a card, color a card or just buy a card or simple flowers. That's the most I ever did. She likes purses, so I just decided to get her a purse. It really didn't matter how much it cost, you just wanted to see that smile." His act of generosity shows his true character. "I'm not a selfish person. I just like to see and make other people smile too. It makes me feel better as a person."
- Was best friends growing up with 49ers 2015 2nd round draft pick, S Jaquiski Tarta. The two were teammates at W.P. Davidson High School in Mobile, AL.

- Ward's family is no stranger to professional athletics. He is the cousin of former NBA player, Caron Butler. Butler, 10 years older than Ward, watched him grow up in Racine, WI, prior to Ward's move to Mobile, AL.
- While playing youth football, Ward went by the nickname 'Neko' and was teammates with former Alabama QB AJ McCarron with the Mobile Youth Football's Municipal Raiders. He played linebacker for the team that won multiple Youth Bowl Championships in Mobile.

6-3 | 230 | BRIGHAM YOUNG

11.19.96 | SAN MARCOS, CA | 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED D-3A IN '18

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Became the first NFL rookie since 2000 to begin his career with 4 consecutive games of at least 10 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics.

GOLDMINE

- Warner credits his mother, Laura, as the number one influence in his life. He notes that his mother raised him and his siblings all by herself while making sacrifices along the way. "She taught all of us about hard work," Warner said. On draft day, Laura was by Fred's side as he was selected by the 49ers in the third round. "She was right next to me," he said. "She got the first hug."

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Warner and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

WARNER'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Caught the attention of BYU coaches after a die-hard BYU fan and family friend sent Warner's highlight tape to the coaches and was later offered a scholarship.
- At BYU, was roommates with his younger brother Troy, who plays cornerback for the Cougars.
- Warner participated in BYU's True Blue Heroes program, which visited the Utah state prison, and traveled to Harlem, NY with BYU head coach Kalani Sitake, who spoke at schools in the area and held football clinics for Harlem Jets Athletics. Said Warner, "Some of the prisoners follow football and actually know about some of the guys on the team. And they want to get better. So we speak to them about life and hardships. We talk about overcoming adversity. Hopefully, we help someone."

- Warner and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace in November of 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- Warner and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Warner and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

DL

10.23.97 | FORT LAUDERDALE, FL | ROOKIE | ACQUIRED D-1 IN '19

Early in his football career, Cheryl watched from the sideline at practice as Nick approached a coach. "I find out later they'd put Nick with the offense," she recalled. "And he walked up to this guy, totally by himself, tugged on his shirt and said, 'I don't want to play offense. I want to play defense.'"
- Participated in the 49ers Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere.

DEEBO SAMUEL

6-0 | 215 | SOUTH CAROLINA

1.15.96 | INMAN, SC | ROOKIE | ACQUIRED D-2 IN '19

- A retail management major at South Carolina, Samuel is passionate about fashion and his appearances in front of the camera. His fashion flair became something he was known for during his time in Columbia, usually with help from his stepmom, Precious Martin. Martin and Samuel would often video chat while he was away from home so she could help pick out his outfits. "I love it. It makes me feel like he needs me," she said. "I can't get enough of it. I don't know if he does it more for me or more for him." Samuel was even referred to as the best dressed player at SEC Media Day. When asked about Samuel's style, a former coach remarked that his style doesn't always coincide with his personality. "Coming through here he'd always be dressed to the max. It's surprising knowing how humble he is and soft-spoken he is, but it's almost like his clothing is his alter-ego," said Steven Fusaro, who coached Deebo during his time at Chapman High. Following his football career, Samuel hopes to start his own clothing line.

- Samuel, a South Carolina native, knew he wanted to stay close to home when he went to college. Growing up with eight siblings, family has been a staple in his life. Mom, Precious, noted that Deebo and his siblings were always hanging out at the house and encouraging each other to accomplish their goals. One of her goals was to finally get her college degree after struggling in college in her youth. Deebo, like with the other members of his family, was there to support her, often helping her with her homework. "Deebo used to help me a lot with my math courses, he's real good in math," said Martin. "They've seen me working hard as far as working and working hard at school, a lot of sacrifices I had to make and a lot of things I had to miss out with them. I think that plays a major part in my children wanting to further their education." Her goal was accomplished when both she and Deebo graduated from college.
- Took part in the 49ers Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere.

SAMUEL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His father, Galen, gave him the nickname "Deebo" after a bully in the 1995 movie Friday because he was always taking things away from people as a toddler. In high school, his stepmother, Precious Martin, gave him another nickname, "Sweet Feet," due to his speed.
- Lists his favorite player growing up as Reggie Bush.

GOLDMINE

- While working as a glazier, a glass installation specialist, in his native Australia, Wishnowsky's friends began showing him NFL games. After a couple years, he decided to leave his job and move to Melbourne to join ProKick Australia, a training academy for aspiring punters. Founded by Nathan Chapman, an Australian who once had an opportunity with the Packers, the academy has had massive success, with about 50 punters on Division I scholarships. Though the technique required for punting is a learning process, Wishnowsky thinks he and his fellow Australians have the ability to excel thanks to the sports he played growing up, like Australian rules football, track, and soccer. "While Americans grow up wanting to throw the ball, we grow up trying to kick 60-yard goals," he said. "Sure, the techniques are slightly different, but the swing of your leg is pretty much the same. We have that muscle memory drilled into us from a young age."

- Wishnowsky is a naturally talented athlete, whether it is something that requires pure strength or skill. In Australia, he was constantly getting involved in various sports from a young age. While he participated in universally popular athletics, like soccer and rugby, he enjoyed any sort of competition. When he was 12 years old, he won a major West Australian Billiards tournament. Before shifting to football in the United States, he was a member of a local semi-pro team in the West Australian Football League. While at Santa Barbara Community College, he found that his ideal conditioning was a mix of hitting the weight room and playing beach volleyball with his teammates.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Greenlaw and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

- Since he was eight years old, Greenlaw had been living in group homes and shelters across Arkansas. Six years later, he met Brian Early, who was the defensive coach at Fayetteville High, while Greenlaw was getting treatment for an injury he suffered in football practice. After learning about Dre's situation, Brian and his wife, Nanci, began spending more time with him, and soon he became like a son. When they were informed that his group home was going to be shut down, they invited Dre to live with them and their two daughters, AJ and Camryn. The family later made his adoption official shortly after Greenlaw turned 21. "Even though it wasn't legal until July, he's always been my son," said Brian. "He's felt the same way. 7.31.95 | RICHMOND, VA | ROOKIE | ACQUIRED D-6C IN '19

- Harris Jr. is no stranger to adversity. As he began his high school career, Harris was described by his coach as “tall and lanky.” Stu Brown, his coach at Varina High School, knew he had the skill and work ethic, but didn’t know if he was strong enough. However, not everyone agreed with that assessment. Michael Robinson, current analyst on the NFL Network and draft pick of the 49ers, hosted a football camp at Varina, his former high school, when Tim was 15 years old. Richard Sherman was at the camp and immediately knew the impact Harris Jr. could have. “Richard Sherman looked at his body and the first thing he told Tim was, ‘You’ve got an NFL body,’” Brown said. “He was telling him that at 15 years old.” With that encouragement, Harris Jr. took off, training harder than he had before, garnering multiple scholarship offers.
- Harris Jr. credits his family and friends for his motivation on and off the football field. Particularly, Tim has a close relationship with his dad, Tim Harris Sr. “Me and my dad have been close ever since I was young. He taught me the steps of life, not just football, but life after football. He continues to believe in me, and that’s something I can always appreciate that from him,” said Harris Jr. When it comes to life after football, Harris Jr. has thought about coaching or potentially working in the FBI, anything where he can help others. “My dad’s best friend is an FBI agent and him hanging out at the house and talking to him made me interested in that field.”
- Participated in the 49ers Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere. The meals, along with groceries and backpacks, were distributed to those most in need in East San Jose.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9
U.S. BANK STADIUM

The 49ers fell to the Minnesota Vikings, 24–16, in the first game of the 2018 regular season at U.S. Bank Stadium in Minneapolis. After both team's opening drives ended in punts, the Vikings struck first with a 48–yd. FG by Minnesota K Daniel Carlson. San Francisco was forced to punt on the ensuing drive and the Vikings increased their lead as Minnesota QB Kirk Cousins connected with WR Stefon Diggs on a 22–yd. TD. The 49ers then took the ball and responded with a 7–play, 51–yd. drive that resulted in a 42–yd. FG by K Robbie Gould. The teams traded possessions before rookie LB Fred Warner popped the ball loose from Vikings RB Dalvin Cook which was recovered by CB Richard Sherman. The 49ers drove down the field but RB Alfred Morris fumbled at the 1–yd. line and entered halftime with Minnesota holding on to a 10–3 lead. After both teams traded punts to open the second half, Minnesota CB Mike Hughes intercepted a Garoppolo pass and returned the ball 28 yds. for a TD to push their lead to 17–3. The 49ers responded on the first play of the following drive, as Garoppolo found FB Kyle Juszczyk for a career–long 56–yd. reception to place the 49ers offense at Minnesota's 19–yd. line. The 49ers offense could not punch it in, but Gould converted on a 33–yd. FG, his 2nd of the day, narrowing the Minnesota lead to 17–6. The Vikings answered right back as Cousins found Minnesota TE Kyle Rudolph for a 11–yd. TD pass and extended the home team's advantage to 24–6. Looking to make a 4th quarter push, Garoppolo led the team on a 75–yd. drive that was capped off by a 22–yd. TD recept. by rookie WR Dante Pettis, which marked the first catch and TD of his career. Pettis' 22–yd. recept. marked the first time a member of the 49ers saw their first career recept. result in a TD since 2006 [TE Vernon Davis – at Arz. (9/10/06)]. The teams traded possessions to open the fourth quarter before Gould connected on a 22–yd. FG, his 3rd of the day to pull the 49ers within one score. The conversion also pushed Gould's streak of converted field goals to 26, 2nd in franchise history behind K Phil Dawson (27 FGM from 10/6/13 – 12/29/13). With the Vikings clinging to a 24–16 lead, the 49ers defense held their ground and forced Minnesota to punt with 1:49 remaining in the contest, but Minnesota S Harrison Smith stepped in front of a Garoppolo pass on the 2nd play of the drive and spoiled the 49ers' chance at a game–tying drive.

NOTES: DL DeForest Buckner set a career high with 2.5 sacks on the day ... His 2.5 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 11/19/12 (LB Aldon Smith – 5.5 sacks vs. Chi.). He became the first member of the 49ers to register 10–or–more tackles, 1–or–more FF and 1–or–more PD in a game since 2013 [LB NaVorro Bowman – at Arz. (12/29/13)] ... FB Kyle Juszczyk connected on a career–long 56–yd. recept. from QB Jimmy Garoppolo ... WR Dante Pettis registered a 22–yd. TD recept. from QB Jimmy Garoppolo for his 1st career recept. and 1st career TD. Pettis' 22–yd. recept. marked the first time a member of the 49ers saw their first career recept. result in a TD since 2006 [TE Vernon Davis – at Arz. (9/10/06)] ... K Robbie Gould converted all 3 FGAs on the day from 42, 33 and 22 yds. Gould extended his streak of consecutive FGAs successfully made to 26, which ranks 2nd in franchise history behind K Phil Dawson (27 FGM from 10/6/13 – 12/29/13) ... DETROIT 27, SAN FRANCISCO 30

LEVI'S STADIUM

The 49ers earned their first regular season victory in the team's home opener at Levi's Stadium, 30–27, versus the Detroit Lions. After forcing the Lions to punt on their opening possession, the 49ers embarked on a 63–yd. drive and registered the game's first score thanks to a 45–yd. FG from K Robbie Gould. On the ensuing possession, Detroit secured a 7–3 lead after Lions QB Matthew Stafford found WR Kenny Golladay for a 30–yd. TD pass. The 49ers got the ball back and immediately responded, as QB Jimmy Garoppolo led the offense down the field on a 13–play, 88–yd. drive that was capped off by a 4–yd. TD pass to WR Kendrick Bourne. With the 49ers holding on to a 10–7 lead in the 2nd quarter, LB Elijah Lee recorded his first career sack and FF after knocking the ball free from Stafford. The ball was recovered by DL Cassius Marsh, marking his 2nd career FR, which gave the 49ers the ball on the Detroit 24–yd. line. San Francisco then pushed their lead to 13–7 after Gould connected on a 42–yd. FG. With the made FG, Gould set the franchise record for most consecutive FGs made (28), passing former 49ers K Phil Dawson (27 FGM, 10/6/13–12/29/13). After trading punts throughout the remainder of the 2nd quarter, Lions K Matt Prater converted a 27–yd. FG to push the score to 13–10 on the last play of the first half. 49ers DB D.J. Reed Jr. opened the second half with a bang as his return set up the offense in great field position at Detroit's 26–yd. line. Garoppolo successfully navigated the red zone and found TE Garrett Celek for a 11–yd. TD pass to increase the home team's lead to 20–10. After the Lions returned the ensuing kickoff 45 yds., Prater narrowed the 49ers' lead to 20–13 after connecting on a 43–yd. FG. The 49ers ended the 3rd quarter with a 3–play, 97–yd. TD drive, highlighted by a career–long, 66–yd. rushing TD from RB Matt Breida. With 138 rushing yds. on the day, Breida eclipsed 100 rushing yds. marking his first career 100–yd. game. The 66–yd. run was also the longest by a 49ers player since 2014 (QB Colin Kaepernick – vs. SD, 12/20/14). After the 49ers defense forced a punt on Detroit's next possession, Gould again extended the team's lead to 30–13 with a 36–yd. FG, his 3rd of the day. With the FG, Gould extended his franchise–leading streak of consecutive FGM to 29. The Lions would not go away as they scored TDs on back–to–back drives to pull within 3. After the 49ers could not gain a 1st down to run out the clock, the Lions got the ball one last time with 1:08 to go, but the 49ers defense closed the door on a potential comeback and secured their first regular season victory on the year, 30–27.

FG with just 0:04 remaining in the first half. After the 49ers punted to open the 2nd half, Rivers tossed a 6–yd. TD pass to Gordon. Los Angeles now held on to a 23–17 lead, as they were unsuccessful on the extra point attempt again. The Chargers intercepted Beathard on the following possession at the 1–yd. line and returned the ball to the 49ers' 12–yd. line, which set up a 25–yd. FG from Sturgis. The 49ers then got the ball back and countered with an 82–yd. TD pass from Beathard to TE George Kittle. The score, which was the longest by a 49ers TE in franchise history, narrowed the Los Angeles lead to 26–24. The 49ers opened the scoring in the 4th quarter after Gould converted a 33–yd. NEW YORK GIANTS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 23

In a game that came down to the final play, the 49ers fell short to the New York Giants, 27–23, at Levi's Stadium on ESPN's Monday Night Football. After San Francisco forced a three-and-out on the game's opening possession, QB Nick Mullens, making his second career start, led the offense on a scoring drive that was capped off by a 53-yard FG from K Robbie Gould. The kick improved Gould's career kicking percentage from 50+ yards to 78.4 percent, which ranks 1st in NFL history (min. 20 FGM). Later in the first quarter, the Giants found the end zone on a 10-yard TD pass from QB Eli Manning to WR Odell Beckham Jr., taking a 7–3 lead. However, on the initial possession of the 2nd quarter, RB Matt Breida finished a 7-play, 75-yard drive by propelling into the end zone for a 3-yard rushing TD to take a 10–7 advantage. While Giants K Aldrick Rosas knocked in a 20-yard FG to tie the game, Gould responded with a 36-yarder of his own with seconds remaining in the quarter to secure the lead again heading into halftime, 13–10. Mullens opened the 2nd half by marching the offense down the field and finding Breida in the end zone for an 11-yard TD pass. With the catch, Breida became the first 49ers player to register a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since 2014. The Giants responded on the next possession, as Beckham Jr. hauled in a 20-yard TD, narrowing the San Francisco lead to 20–17. Later in the 3rd quarter, the Giants tied the game at 20 points each with a 31-yard FG from Rosas. The teams found themselves tied with minutes to go in the 4th quarter after trading possessions. Mullens commanded the offense on a 54-yard drive that ended with a 30-yard FG from Gould to take back the lead, 23–20, with less than three minutes to go. However, Manning embarked on a drive of his own and connected with WR Sterling Shepard on a 3-yard TD pass to obtain the advantage, 27–23. The 49ers offense found themselves within striking distance of the end zone with seconds remaining, but could not connect and were ultimately bested by the Giants, 27–23, in a back-and-forth battle on Monday Night Football.

SAN FRANCISCO 16, SEATTLE 43

CENTURYLINK FIELD

The 49ers were bested by the Seattle Seahawks at CenturyLink Field, 43–16. After trading possessions to begin the game, Seahawks QB Russell Wilson was able to connect with WR Jaron Brown for a 4–yd. With just 1:10 remaining in the first half, 49ers QB Nick Mullens brought the offense within scoring range, and K Robbie Gould connected on a 45–yd. FG to cut into the Seahawks lead, 20–3, at the half. Lockett was able to register an 84–yd. kickoff return to open the 2nd half, which set up room for Seahawks RB Rashaad Penny to punch in a 20–yd. However, Seattle answered again to score the 4th quarters first points with an 18–yd. TD pass from Wilson to Brown. The 49ers immediately eradicated the score on the first play of their next drive, as Mullens hit Pettis on a post route that he took for a 75–yd. score, his second of the game. DENVER 14, SAN FRANCISCO 20

LEVI'S STADIUM

San Francisco clinched a hard-fought victory over the Denver Broncos, 20–14, at Levi's Stadium to lead the overall regular season series 8–7. The 49ers received the opening kick and marched down the field when as K Robbie Gould knocked in a 40–yard FG to open the game with a 3–0 lead. The 49ers offense erupted in the second quarter, scoring 17 points while the defense continued to hold the Broncos scoreless. After a 29–yard FG from Gould, TE George Kittle continued his dominant first half against the Broncos by recording and 85–yard reception from QB Nick Mullens on the first play of the drive. Kittle, faking a block on the line, slipped past the Denver defenders and outran everyone on the field to match the 7th–longest pass play in team history, and the longest since the 2005 season. In the first half alone, Kittle hauled in 7 receptions for 210 yards and 1 touchdown. He racked up the most yards in a single game by a tight end in franchise history and the 3rd–most in league history. During the first half, Kittle also became the first 49ers TE in franchise history to eclipse the 1,000 yard–receiving mark. With one minute left in the half, Mullens orchestrated a 72–yard drive that was completed with a 1–yard touchdown pass to WR Dante Pettis. The touchdown reception was Pettis' 5th on the year, which matched RB Jimmy Thomas (1969) and HB R.C. Owens' (1957) total for the 2nd–most by a rookie in franchise history (Dave Parks, 1964 – 8 TDs). With the score, the 49ers held on to a 20–0 lead at halftime, marking the first 49ers shutout in the first half of a game since 9/12/16 vs. LAR. In the second half, the Broncos attempted to bring the game back within reach, first with a 1–yard touchdown rush from RB Philip Lindsay, and then through a 1–yard touchdown pass from QB Case Keenum to WR DaeSean Hamilton, but they were unable to catch up to the 49ers and the score settled at 20–14 in favor of the home team.

NOTES: TE George Kittle registered 7 receipts. for a career–high 210 yds. and 1 TD. His 210 rec. yds. are the most in a single game by a TE in franchise history and the 8th–most among all players. Kittle's 210 rec. yds. are the 3rd–most by a TE in a single game in the NFL since 1960. Kittle hauled in an 85–yd. TD, which is tied for the 11th–longest play from scrimmage in franchise history, tied for the 7th–longest pass play in team history [QB Jim Plunkett to RB Delvin Williams – 85t vs. Was. (11/7/76)] and the longest since 9/25/05 (QB Tim Rattay to WR Brandon Lloyd – 89t vs. Dal.).

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Kittle's 210 rec. yds. in the 1st half were the most in the 1st half of an NFL game since Seattle Seahawks WR Steve Largent registered 224 rec. yds. in the 1st half at Det. (10/18/87). With 210 rec. yds. on the day, Kittle has set the franchise record for the most rec. yds. With 3 receipts. of 70–or–more yds. this season, Kittle joins WR Odell Beckham Jr. (3 in 2015 with NYG) and WR Torrey Smith (3 in 2015 with SF) as the last players to have 3–or–more receipts. of 70–plus yds. in a single season ... WR Dante Pettis hauled in 3 receipts. for 49 yds. and 1 TD. Pettis' 1–yd. TD receipt. made him the first member of the 49ers to register 1–or–more TD receipts. in three–consecutive games since TE Vernon Davis accomplished the feat in Weeks 11–15 of the 2013 season. Pettis' 5 rec. SEATTLE 23, SAN FRANCISCO 26 (OT)

LEVI'S STADIUM

On a rainy day at Levi's Stadium, the 49ers defeated the Seattle Seahawks for the first time since 2013 in a hard-fought, overtime battle, 26–23. The game was a back and forth affair all afternoon and started with Seattle scoring the game's first points after QB Russell Wilson found WR Doug Baldwin for a 5–yd. TD pass, but K Sebastian Janikowski missed the extra point attempt thereafter. On the following play, the 49ers seized a 7–6 lead after rookie WR Richie James Jr. took the kickoff return 97 yards for a touchdown. James Jr.'s return marked the first time a member of the 49ers has registered a kickoff return for a TD since WR Ted Ginn Jr. took it 102 yards for a touchdown in 2011 [vs. Sea. (9/11/11)]. James Jr. also became first 49ers rookie to register a kickoff return for a TD since 1981 [RB Amos Lawrence – 92–yd. KR TD at LAR (11/22/81)]. The 49ers opened the scoring in the 2nd quarter with a 10–play, 98–yard touchdown drive that was completed with a 41–yd. TD pass from QB Nick Mullens to TE Garrett Celek. The scoring drive was the team's longest since 2002 when the 49ers capped off a 12–play, 99–yd. drive with a 6–yd. TD rush by RB Kevan Barlow at Sea. (10/14/02). With the score, the 49ers were able to extend their lead to 14–6. On the next possession, Wilson found Baldwin for another touchdown to bring the score to 14–13. Next, Mullens took the ball back and led the offense down the field to set up a 28–yd. FG from K Robbie Gould to extend the team's lead to 17–13 going into the half. After the teams traded punts to open the second half, Mullens again moved the 49ers offense within scoring range to set up a 33–yd. FG from Gould, pushing the San Francisco lead to 20–13. Seahawks RB Chris Carson kicked off a dramatic fourth quarter with a 1–yd. TD rush on 4th down to tie the game at 20 apiece. On the next possession, the 49ers offense provided room for a game–long, 45–yd. FG from Gould to take a 23–20 lead. Seattle then tied the game on the subsequent drive with a 48–yd. FG from Janikowski. In a tie game, late in the 4th quarter and OT, the 49ers defense forced the Seahawks offense to punt on each of their final three possessions of the game. Seattle won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but the 49ers defense held their ground and forced a three–and–out, turning the ball back over to the offense at the 38–yd. line. The 49ers offense ran the ball effectively in their overtime drive and again moved the ball within range for Gould, who knocked in a 36–yd. FG, his fourth of the day, to clinch the victory over their division foe, 26–23. With 14 points on the day, Gould became the 23rd kicker in NFL history to register at least 1,500 points in his career. He has also registered 111 points this season, marking the first time he has scored 100–or–more points in consecutive seasons since he did so in six straight years with Chicago from 2006–11.

NOTES: K Robbie Gould connected on all 4 FGAs and 2 PATs, including the game–winning 36–yd. FG in OT. This marked Gould's 6th–career game–winning FG in OT and his first since 11/17/13 as a member of the Chicago Bears vs. Bal. With 14 points on the day, Gould became the 23rd kicker in NFL history to register at least 1,500 points in his career (1,513). Gould has now scored 111 points this season, marking the first time he scored 100–or–more in consecutive seasons (145 points in 2017) since he accomplished the feat in 6 straight seasons from 2006–11. He is also the first member of the 49ers to score 100–or–more points in consecutive seasons since 2013–14 [K Phil Dawson – 140 points (2013) and 108 points (2014)]. Gould has now connected on 19 consecutive FGAs, which tied for the 3rd–longest streak in franchise history ... WR Richie James Jr. registered a 97–yd. kickoff return for a TD. It marked the first time a member of the 49ers registered a kickoff return for a TD since WR Ted Ginn Jr. registered a 102–yd. kickoff return for a TD vs. Sea. (9/11/11). James Jr. became the first 49ers rookie to register a kickoff return for a TD since 1981 [RB Amos Lawrence – 92–yd. KR TD at LAR (11/22/81)]. James Jr.'s kickoff return for a TD was just the 4th in the NFL this season (Jakeem Grant, Mia.; Darius Jennings, Ten. & Cordarrelle Patterson, NE) ... The 49ers offense engineered a 10–play, 98–yd. drive that was capped off by a 41–yd. TD pass from QB Nick Mullens to TE Garrett Celek, marking team's longest TD drive since 2002 when the 49ers capped off a 12–play, 99–yd. drive with a 6–yd. TD run by RB Kevan Barlow at Sea. (10/14/02) ... QB Nick Mullens completed 20 of 29 atts. for 275 yds., 1 TD and a QB rating of 110.6 ... This season, Mullens threw for 689 yds. against the Seahawks [414 yds. at Sea. (12/2/18)], the most passing yds. allowed by any QB in a single–season since their franchise inception in 1976 ... In a tie game, late in the 4th qtr. and OT, the 49ers defense forced the Seahawks offense to punt on each of their final 3 possessions of the game, including setting up the 49ers offense for the game–winning FG in OT ... DL DeForest Buckner registered a career–high 11 tackles and 2.0 sacks on the day. He extended his single–season career high to 11.0 sacks, becoming the first member of the 49ers to register double–digit sacks since LB Aldon Smith finished with 19.5 sacks in 2012 ... LB Mark Nzeocha recorded his 1st sack and FF of his career after bringing down Seahawks QB Russell Wilson for an 8–yd. loss.

CHICAGO 14, SAN FRANCISCO 9
LEVI'S STADIUM

San Francisco fell short in a back-and-forth game against the Chicago Bears, 14-9, in their final game of the season at Levi's Stadium. The teams exchanged multiple possessions in the first quarter, however neither team was able to find the scoreboard. In the first drive of the 2nd quarter, 49ers K Robbie Gould converted a 33-yd. FG to open the game's scoring and give San Francisco a 3-0 advantage. On the next drive, DL DeForest Buckner picked up a Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky fumble, which set up room for a 30-yd. FG from Gould to extend the team's lead to 6-0. Buckner also notched 1.0 sack on the day, moving his season sack total to 12.0, the fourth-most by a 49ers' defender since 2000. Trubisky then found WR Anthony Miller on the next drive for a 4-yard TD pass to take a 7-6 lead. With less than two minutes to go in the second half, QB Nick Mullens was able to orchestrate an 8-play, 63-yd. drive that set up a 23-yd. FG from Gould, providing San Francisco with a 9-7 lead at the half. Gould connected on all 3 FGAs on the day, extending his streak of consecutive made to 22 FGs, the third-most in franchise history. The Bears opened the third quarter by scoring on their initial drive, thanks to a 2-yd. TD rush from RB Jordan Howard. The 49ers defense, though, was able to hold the Bears scoreless for the remainder of the game. While Chicago was looking to run the clock down late in the fourth quarter, DB Tarvarius Moore caught up to Bears WR Allen Robinson II and knocked the ball free, which was recovered by DB Greg Mabin. Mullens next took the reins on the two-minute drive and pushed the team into Chicago territory. The 49ers offense was unable to find the end zone and failed to convert on 4th and 4, losing a close game to the Bears, 14-9. Mullens registered 241 passing yds. on the day, the third-most by any QB in their first seven career games.

NOTES: QB Nick Mullens completed 22 of 38 atts. for 241 yds. today. With 241 passing yds., he became the first 49ers quarterback to register 220-or-more passing yds. in seven-consecutive games since QB Jeff Garcia accomplished the feat in Weeks 5-11 of the 2000 season. Mullens has now thrown for 1,995 yds. in his first 7 career games, the 3rd-most in the NFL since 1970 ... DL DeForest Buckner registered 3 tackles and 1.0 sack on the day. He extended his single-season career high to 12.0 sacks. Buckner's 12.0 sacks on the season are the 4th-most by a 49ers defender since 2000. Buckner also recovered a Bears fumble, marking the 3rd FR of his career and the first since 11/13/16 at Arz. ... DL Cassius Marsh brought down Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky twice on the day, increasing his single-season career high to 5.5 sacks. Marsh now has two career games with 2.0-or-more sacks [2.5 sacks vs. Oak. (11/1/18)] ... Late in the 4th qtr., DB Tarvarius Moore registered his first career FF, punching the ball out from Bears WR Allen Robinson II. The loose ball was picked up by DB Greg Mabin, which was his first career FR ... K Robbie Gould connected on all 3 FGAs on the day. SAN FRANCISCO 32, LOS ANGELES RAMS 48

LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The 49ers dropped their 2018 season finale, 48–32, against the Los Angeles Rams at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marked the first time the 49ers lost at The Coliseum since the Rams moved back to L.A. The Rams capitalized on their scoring chances early in the 1st quarter, notching two touchdowns to take a 14–0 lead. San Francisco countered with a 30–yd. FG from K Robbie Gould to narrow the Rams' lead at the end of the quarter to 14–3. Gould's lone FGA on the day settled his FG pct. at a league-leading and franchise-best 97.1 pct. The Rams would continue to take advantage of their chances and scored two more touchdowns to open the 2nd quarter and seize a 28–3 lead. The 49ers remained persistent all throughout the game, though, and QB Nick Mullens responded by orchestrating an 8–play, 75–yd. drive that was capped off by a 9–yd. TD pass to WR Richie James Jr. Although, the Rams were able to tack on one last FG before the half came to a close, expanding their lead to 31–10. On the opening drive of the 2nd half, Rams QB Jared Goff found WR Josh Reynolds for a 29–yd. TD pass. Mullens took the ball and responded by again leading the offense on a 75–yd. drive that resulted in a 1–yd. TD rush by RB Alfred Morris. The Rams responded, however, with another TD pass to Reynolds to increase their lead to 45–17. Rams K Greg Zuerlein later opened the 4th quarter with a FG that expanded their lead to 48–17. San Francisco continued to fight back, as Mullens connected with WR Kendrick Bourne on a 3–yd. TD pass. After forcing the Rams to punt on the ensuing possession, TE George Kittle set the NFL's all-time single-season record for receiving yards by a tight end after catching an out route and taking it 43 yards for the score. With the catch, Kittle also established the single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 88 passes hauled in. His 88 receptions were the most in a single season by a member of the 49ers since WR Terrell Owens brought in 100 receptions in 2002. The 49ers successfully converted the two-point attempt after Mullens linked up with WR Trent Taylor, narrowing the deficit to 48–32. Afterward, San Francisco attempted an onside kick, but was unsuccessful. The Rams were then able to run out the clock and secure the victory.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott, who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles. Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana, who completed 20–of–31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight–yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58–yard strike in the second. In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28–27. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six–yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six–point deficit. “The Catch,” as it would come to be known, capped a 13–play, 89–yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22–of–35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark posted eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20–0 lead at the half and held on for a 26–21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship. Montana scored on a one–yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12–play, 92–yard drive that resulted in an 11–yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14–of–22 passes for 157 yards. Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Mark Moseley connected on a 25–yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24–21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21–0 deficit with 21 fourth–quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five–yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. The Redskins went three–and–out on their next possession, which led to another Montana–to–Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six–minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season. Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27–of–48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown. DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16 Super Bowl XXIII January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown drought. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41–13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park. The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor. K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half. Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig, who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. NFC Divisional Playoff
January 7 at Candlestick Park

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game. The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 39-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away. San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play. The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters. QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17

NFC Divisional Playoff

January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutsy nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyrone Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defended to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. The 49ers trailed 28–6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory. Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive. San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia. Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out. Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams. 49ers 36, New Orleans Saints 32
NFC Divisional Playoff
(San Francisco, CA)

A 14-yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49-yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madiou Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25-yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14-yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25-yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41-yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44-yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28-yd. rushing TD. A missed two-point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66-yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two-point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game-winning 14-yd. TD.

New York Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT)
January 22 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, 'Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue-collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain-soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73-yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34-yd. line. On 3rd-and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69-yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6-yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54-yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24-yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17-yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40-yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game-tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season-ending 31-yd. FG through the uprights.

49ers 45, Green Bay Packers 31
(San Francisco, CA)

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992–94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he had all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8–play, 80-yd. drive that he capped off with a 20-yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd and longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9-yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12-yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned his 2nd career postseason INT. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20-yd. TD strike, making the score 21–14. Crabtree led the team with 9 receipts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56-yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56-yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single-game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. RB Frank Gore finished off the following drive on the first play of the 4th qtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38–24. Gore notched his first career 100-yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100-yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100-yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2-yd. TD run to finish off the 11–play, 93-yd. drive to make the score 45–24. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single-game postseason rushing record.

49ers 28, Falcons 24
(Atlanta, GA)

The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17–0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15–yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. repts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. repts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15–yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first-career TD. The 49ers next possession began on their own 18–yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48–yds. on 3 repts., including a 4–yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 14–17 at the 2–minute warning. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs rank 1–4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays capped off on a 5–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21–24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half. CB Chris Culliver picked-off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Bosher punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38–yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go-ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9–yd. burst to the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28–24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14–play drive down to the 49ers 10–yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th and 4 with 1:13 remaining. WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35–yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17–point comeback led by Kaepernick was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 – Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points).

Baltimore 34, 49ers 31
Super Bowl XLVII
February 3 at Superdome
(New Orleans, LA)

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowls where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st qtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12–play 62–yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36–yd. FG, making the score 7–3. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21–3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2–minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27–yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21–6. Following a Ravens kickoff return for a TD to open the 2nd half, the Superdome went dark with 13:28 remaining in the 3rd qtr. A power failure at 7:38 p.m. CT caused a 30–minute delay and was not resolved until 8:08 p.m. On the Niners' next possession, Kaepernick tossed a 31–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, making the score 28–13. San Francisco forced Baltimore into a 3–and–out with a sack by LB Ahmad Brooks on 3rd–and–10. P Sam Koch's 43–yd. punt was returned 32 yds. by WR Ted Ginn Jr., setting up the 49ers offense to takeover at the Ravens 20–yd. line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore capitalized on the short field with a 6–yd. TD run. On the second play of Baltimore's ensuing possession, CB Tarell Brown forced and recovered a fumble that he jarred loose from RB Ray Rice on the Ravens' 24–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 34–yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd of the game. With their next possession, WR Randy Moss hauled in a 32–yd. repts., followed by a 21–yd. run by Gore, which led to a 15–yd. TD run by Kaepernick. An incomplete pass on the 2–point try made the score 31–29 with the Ravens still hanging on as San Francisco continued its fierce comeback. Kaepernick's 15–yd. TD run marked the longest TD run by a QB in Super Bowl history. With 4:23 remaining in the game, Baltimore's K Justin Tucker tacked on a 38–yd. FG to extend their lead to 34–29. A 24–yd. completion to Crabtree and a 33–yd. rush by Gore put the 49ers offense in position for the go-ahead TD with 2:39 remaining, on the Ravens' 7–yd. line. The 49ers were unable to get into the end zone and turned the ball over on downs. After taking a safety to run the game clock down to :04, the Ravens were forced to punt to the 49ers. Ginn returned the kickoff 31–yds. to the 50–yd. line as time expired for the last play of the game.

The Packers countered with an 11–play, 61–yd. drive as K Mason Crosby tied the score at 20–20 with a 24–yd. FG. On the fifth play of the ensuing drive, Panthers QB Cam Newton’s pass was deflected into the air and intercepted by LB Patrick Willis. San Francisco turned the takeaway into points when Dawson made a 33–yd. FG with 4:38 remaining in the 1st qtr. The Panthers put together an 8–play, 65–yd. drive before the 49ers made a spectacular goal–line stand and forced a turnover on downs at the SF 1–yd. line. On the Panthers next possession, they drove 73 yds. in 13 plays and K Graham Gano made a 24–yd. FG to extend their lead to 10–6. The 49ers and Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0–0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7–6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike–Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13–7 win.

San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7–0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10–3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10–10 tie.

Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10–3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10–6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13–6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6–0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and drove all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20–7 at the half and 31–17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14–0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia scored on a seven-yard run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20–7 at halftime. Terrell Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31–24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out to tie the game at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. A mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San

After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31–16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25–22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19–14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22–14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22–20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25–22 overtime victory.

San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three-yard touchdown to take the lead at 20-13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40-yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth-and-three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13-play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27-yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. In an early-season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game-tying 13-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29-yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48-yard line. After a one-yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. With five seconds remaining in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game-winning 50-yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22-yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game-winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victories in a 31-28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly directed two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a career-high 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career-high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay started off with a nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14-yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two-point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game-winner.

First-year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139-yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17-yard gain that set-up K Todd Peterson's game-winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30-yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19-yard catch to keep the 49ers game-winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game-winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third-and-13 situation with a 14-yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31-yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17–10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17–17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21-yard line. The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come-from-behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28-yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal-line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first-and-goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first-and-goal inside the five-yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46-yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32-yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12-yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game-winning drive at their own 39-yard line. San Francisco 37, Arizona 31

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight-game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta-Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32-yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine-yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14-yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59-yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three-yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100-yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35-yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one-yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19-yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62-yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game-saving tackle at the 14-yard line. That set up Rackers game-winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41-yard line. QB Trent Diller moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37-yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55-yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48-yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57-yard touchdown pass from Diller to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two-yard touchdown on a fourth-down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. Gore's 35-yard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

San Francisco 33, Seattle 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14-point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40-yard game-winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41-yard line to help set up the go-ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back-to-back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22-yard line to help get into position for a two-yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15-play, 74-yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12-yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49-yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23-yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game-winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41-yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33-yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third-and-seven and a five-yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third-and-two situation to push the 49ers to the 23-yard line where Nedney connected on a 40-yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300-yard game, finishing 20-of-32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100-yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63-yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three-yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10-yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

San Francisco 23, St. Louis 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back-to-back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense.

All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29-yd. game-winning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42-yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an extra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career-high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers totaled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32-yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65-yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1-yd. line, setting up a 1-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26-yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5-yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13-yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47-yd. line. Smith then connected on back-to-back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16-yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33-yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game-winning FG.

September 18, 2011 Dallas 27, San Francisco 24

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new but experienced staff, entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first-half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st

qtr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21-yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After exchanging the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68-yd. drive, capped off by a 1-yd. TD by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14–0 lead. The 12-yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71-yd. drive, capped off by a 53-yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury – occurring on the 3rd play of the game – had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go-ahead TD entering the 4th qtr. K David Akers connected on a 55-yd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10-pt. cushion. The Cowboys charged back from the 24–14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25-yd. TD, and then directed a 10-play, 44-yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime-forcing, 48-yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77-yd. gain that set up 19-yd. game-winning FG.

January 22, 2012 New York Giants 20, San Francisco 17 NFC Championship Game

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, 'Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue-collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain-soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. "They stand toe-to-toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be forever proud of our players and coaches the way they compete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73-yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd-and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69-yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6-yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54-yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24-yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on the 49ers 29 yard line. Manning connected on a 17-yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40-yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game-tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season-ending 31-yd. FG through the uprights.

November 11, 2012 St. Louis 24, San Francisco 24

The 24–24 stalemate marked the 14th tie for the 49ers since joining the NFL in 1950 and first since 1986 [10–10 at Atl. (10/19)]. It also marked the 49ers first tie at Candlestick Park since 1972 [20–20 vs. NO (10/22)]. St. Louis got off to a fast start, scoring on a 36-yd. TD pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brian Quick. The Rams next possession went 7–plays, for 93–yds., ending with a 7-yd. TD run by RB Steven Jackson to make the score 14–0 at the end of the 1st qtr. The 49ers answered on their next possession, driving 78–yds. on 12–plays, capped off by QB Alex Smith's 14-yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree. Crabtree's TD recept. came on 3rd-and–7, marking his 3rd TD on 3rd down this season, ranking t–3rd in the NFL. Crabtree has tallied a TD in each of his last 5 games against St. Louis. Following the TD drive, Smith left the game due to injury. The San Francisco defense stiffened following the offense's TD, forcing two consecutive three–and–outs and what would have been a third if not for P Johnny Hekker's 1st down completion on a Rams fake punt. Three plays after the fake punt, LB Aldon Smith ended the Rams drive and the 1st half with his first of 2.0 sacks in the game. Smith has recorded 9.5 sacks for the season and 23.5 for his career. Smith's 9.5 sacks ranks 3rd in the NFL and 1st in the NFC. The first possession for each team to start the 3rd qtr. resulted in no change on the scoreboard. With 8:43 remaining in the 3rd qtr., St. Louis began a 16–play drive that milked 8:25 off the clock and resulted in a 27-yd. FG by K Greg Zuerlein, stretching the lead to 17–7. On the 49ers next possession, Alex Smith's backup, QB Colin Kaepernick, led the Niners down the field, completing 5 of 5 pass attempts for 67-yds. Kaepernick finished the drive with a 7-yd. TD run, as he successfully dove inside the pylon with 8:48 remaining in the 4th qtr. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Isaiah Pead fumbled the ball at the St. Louis 28-yd. line. CB Tramaine Brock (1st career FF) forced the fumble, it was recovered by S Darcel McBath (1st career FR) and returned 8-yds. to the Rams 20-yd. line. The 49ers first play following the fumble resulted in a 20-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. Gore rushed for 97-yds. on 21 carries. The 20-yd. TD run marked his 5th TD of the season and 48th of his career. He finished the game trailing just RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. The TD made the score 21-17 in San Francisco's favor with 8:29 left in the 4th qtr. The Rams answered the 49ers score with a score of their own, going 14-plays, for 81-yds. capped off by a 2-yd TD pass from Bradford to WR Austin Pettis. The long St. Louis drive left only 1:13 on the clock, as the 49ers trailed 24-21. Kaepernick engineered an 8-play, 63-yd. drive under pressure, accounting for 54 yds. to set K David Akers up for a 33-yd. game-tying FG to force overtime. In the extra period, St. Louis won the toss and elected to receive. On the Rams first play, Amendola recorded an 80-yd. recept. down to the 49ers 2-yd. line, but an illegal formation penalty against the Rams erased the long catch and brought the ball back to the St. Louis 13-yd. line. A few plays later, San Francisco forced a Rams punt, setting up good field position for the 49ers offense. The 49ers drove down to the St. Louis 23-yd. line, to set Akers up for a 41-yd. FG attempt that was wide left. The Rams took the ball, drove to the San Francisco 40-yd. line and Zuerlein also missed the potential game-winning FG as neither team was able to score before the clock ran out, resulting in a tie.

The 49ers and Rams had to play deep into overtime for the second time this season, as St. Louis outlasted San Francisco in a tough divisional matchup. Both defenses played well, resulting in only one scoring play during the 1st half. After forcing a Rams 3-and-out, the 49ers took over on their own 40-yd. line. On the first play of the drive, RB Frank Gore gained 23-yds. on the ground, putting the ball at the St. Louis 37-yd. line. The offensive line continued to open up holes for Gore, as he ran for 18 more yds. on 3 carries and capped off the drive with a 1-yd. TD run, making the score 7-0 with 3:01 remaining in the 1st qtr. After the San Francisco TD, the Rams offense was held to its second consecutive 3-and-out. With 2:31 remaining in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers defense recorded its third 3-and-out in four defensive series, with LB Aldon Smith forcing a long 3rd down after registering his 17.5 sack of the season. His 17.5 sacks ties the 49ers single-season franchise record (Fred Dean - 1983). Smith now has 31.5 career sacks, surpassing Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (31.0) for the most sacks by a player in their first two years in NFL history. On the 49ers second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone, which resulted in a safety making the score 7-2 with 4:36 left in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco answered with its next offensive possession, marching 94-yds. on 13 plays to setup K David Akers for a 23-yd. FG. WR Michael Crabtree caught 4 passes for 69 during the drive. For the game, Crabtree tallied 7 receipts. for 101 yds., marking his 2nd 100-yd. game of the season and 5th of his career. The Rams were unable to get on the scoreboard with their next offensive possession, but they did after recovering a fumble by Kaepernick on 3rd-and-3 and CB Janoris Jenkins returned the loose ball 2 yds. for a TD. QB Sam Bradford completed the 2-point conversion attempt to TE Lance Kendricks to knot the score at 10 apiece with 3:04 remaining in the 4th qtr. Kaepernick showed poise on the next possession, following the fumble, as he rushed for 50 yds. down to the St. Louis 14-yd. line. Kaepernick rushed for 84 yds. on 9 carries. His 84 yds. on the ground are the most by a 49ers quarterback since Steve Young rushed for 102-yds. vs. NO (12/23/90). Akers was able to put the 49ers up by 3 with a 33-yd. FG with 1:38 remaining. The Rams managed to drive 45 yds. on 7 plays to set Zuerlein up for a 53-yd. FG that sailed through the uprights as the clock expired to send the game into overtime. In overtime, it took 14:30 of 15 minutes to decide the outcome of the game, as Zuerlein made a 54-yd. FG to end the game with a final score of 16-13.

A late-game sack and forced fumble by LB Ahmad Brooks setup a game-winning FG in overtime by K Phil Dawson, as the 49ers defeated the Saints, 27-24, at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. On the opening drive of the game, QB Drew Brees' pass intended for WR Marques Colston was picked off by S Antoine Bethea and returned to the Saints' 19-yd. line. Three plays later, RB Frank Gore scored from four yards out to give the 49ers an early 7-0 lead. On the drive, Gore moved past RBs Eddie George and Tiki Barber for the 24th most rushing yds. in NFL history. A three-and-out by the Saints gave San Francisco the ball at its own 21-yd. line. The 49ers offense pieced together a 13-play, 79-yd. drive that was capped off by a 9-yd. TD run by RB Carlos Hyde. With the 49ers leading 14-0, the Saints responded with a scoring drive of their own, as K Shayne Graham connected on a 40-yd. FG to make the score 14-3. Early in the 2nd qtr., Brees found WR Brandin Cooks for a 31-yd. TD pass to bring the score to 14-10. San Francisco's offense countered with a 15-yd. TD pass from QB Colin Kaepernick to WR Anquan Boldin to extend his streak of at least one TD pass to 16 consecutive games, the 2nd longest streak by a QB in franchise history. Boldin recorded 6 receipts. for 95 rec. yds. and 1 TD, and now has 635 recept. yds. this season, becoming one of 12 players in NFL history to register 12 seasons with 600-or-more rec. yds. Both teams exchanged punts before the Saints drove down to the 49ers 22-yd. line, where CB Chris Culliver picked off Brees' pass in the end zone to close the first half. On New Orleans' second drive of the 3rd qtr., Brees led the Saints offense on a 10-play, 64-yd. drive and found TE Jimmy Graham for an 11-yd. TD. With the 49ers leading 21-17 late in the game, Brees connected with Graham for the duo's 2nd TD of the game to give the Saints a 24-21 lead with 1:55 remaining. Unable to gain ground on its first three plays, San Francisco's offense faced a critical 4th-and-10 on its own 22-yd. line. Kaepernick scrambled to his right and found WR Michael Crabtree on a 51-yd. reception. Three plays later, K Phil Dawson kicked the game-tying FG from 45 yds. out to send the game into overtime. After both teams failed to score points on their first drives, the Saints regained possession with 7:43 left in OT. On 2nd-and-15, Brooks sacked and stripped Brees and the fumble was recovered by LB Chris Borland. On the ensuing play, Dawson kicked a game-winning, 35-yd. FG to give the 49ers the victory on the road.

December 20, 2014 San Diego 38, San Francisco 35

San Francisco fell to San Diego, 38-35, in overtime in a game that saw the 49ers rush for a franchise-record 355 yds. On the opening drive of the game, RB Frank Gore ripped off a 52-yd. TD to give the 49ers an early 7-0 lead. Two possessions later, CB Perrish Cox intercepted QB Philip Rivers' pass intended for WR Seyi Ajirotutu, which marked his team-leading fifth INT of the season. Soon after, QB Colin Kaepernick drove the offense 67 yds. on 10 plays before finding WR Bruce Ellington on an 8-yd. TD pass. On San Diego's very next drive, S Antoine Bethea intercepted Rivers' pass and returned it 49 yds. for a TD to extend San Francisco's lead to 21-0. It marked the longest INT return and the first TD of Bethea's career. The Chargers responded on their next drive, as Rivers led an 8-play, 73-yd. drive that was capped off by a 15-yd. TD pass to WR Eddie Royal. Up 21-7, the 49ers held the ball for the final possession of the first half. San Francisco converted a 3-and-1 from San Diego's 1-yd. line on a reverse to Ellington, who scored on a 1-yd. TD run. With the score, Ellington became the first 49er to record both a rushing TD and receiving TD in the same game since Gore vs. NO (9/20/10), and the first 49ers rookie to accomplish the feat since RB Amp Lee at Min. (12/13/92). On San Diego's third drive of the 3rd qtr., Rivers found TE Antonio Gates on a 1-yd. TD pass. Following a nullified 70-yd. TD pass to TE Vernon Davis on San Francisco's next drive, Kaepernick was sacked and stripped and the fumble was recovered by Corey Liuget in the end zone to cut the 49ers' lead to 28-21. Following the turnover, Kaepernick ran 90-yds. for a touchdown to give San Francisco a 35-21 lead. His run marked the second-longest TD run by a QB in NFL history. In the 4th qtr., Rivers connected with Gates for a 21-yd. TD pass to cut the lead to 35-28. One drive later, Rivers orchestrated a late, 14-play, 80-yd. drive that was capped off by an 11-yd. TD pass to WR Malcolm Floyd to tie the game with 0:32 remaining in the game. The 49ers held the final possession of the game, but K Phil Dawson was unable to connect on a 60-yd. field goal to win the game. In overtime, the Chargers capitalized on a 49ers turnover and K Nick Novak kicked a game-winning 40-yd. FG to lead San Diego past San Francisco, 38-35.

San Francisco 26, Chicago 20

In Week 13, San Francisco traveled to the Windy City where they defeated the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field in overtime, 26–20. QB Blaine Gabbert completed 18-of-32 atts. for 196 yds. and 1 TD, while adding a career-high 75 (12.5 avg.) rushing yds. and his first career rushing TD. WR Anquan Boldin recorded 5 re-cpts. for 37 yds. on the day, becoming the 18th player in NFL history to record 13,000-or-more rec. yds. in their career. The Bears jumped out to an early 6–0 lead in the first quarter, as K Robbie Gould connected on 40–yd. and 51–yd. FGs on Chicago's first two possessions. On the third Bears possession, 49ers DB Jimmie Ward stepped in front of a QB Jay Cutler pass and returned it 29–yds. for his first career INT and first career TD. It marked the first INT for a TD by the 49ers defense since 12/20/14 vs. SD (S Antoine Bethea – 49–yd. INT return). However, a blocked point after attempt kept the score at 6–6. Chicago would take a 13–6 lead on their next possession, as RB Matt Forte found the end zone on a 5–yd rush early in the second quarter. The 49ers were quick to respond, as Gabbert engineered a 16–play, 81–yd. drive that took over eight minutes off the clock, and ended with a 1–yd. TD run from RB Shaun Draughn, his first TD as a member of the 49ers. It marked Draughn's 3rd career rushing TD and first since 11/1/12 at SD as a member of the Kansas City Chiefs. The game remained tied at 13 until midway through the fourth quarter, when Bears RB Ka'Deem Carey gave the home team the 20–13 advantage with a 4–yd. TD run. On the ensuing possession, Gabbert took over at his own 36–yd. line with 3:27 remaining in the game. On the 6–play drive, Gabbert rushed for 60 yds., including a career-long 44–yd. TD, the first of his career, to tie the game at 20–20. On the following kickoff, Chicago WR Deonte Thompson recorded a 74–yd. return, setting the Bears up with prime field position for the win. However, after running the game clock down to two seconds, Gould missed the 36–yd. FG wide left to send the game to overtime. After winning the coin toss and choosing to receive, the 49ers were forced to punt only to force the Bears to punt three plays later. On the first play of the second possession of overtime, Gabbert connected with WR Torrey Smith on a 71–yd. TD pass, his 3rd TD receipt. of 70-or-more yds. this season, to give San Francisco the 26–20 road victory. According to Elias, Smith became the first 49ers player to register 3 rec. TDs of 70-or-more yds. in the same season since WR John Taylor accomplished the feat in 1989.

The win marked the ninth-consecutive regular season home finale win by the 49ers, the longest winning streak in home finales in the NFL. The San Francisco offense amassed 458 net yds. of total offense (108 rushing, 350 passing), the most by the 49ers since 9/8/13 vs. GB (494 net yds. – 90 rushing, 404 passing). On the first play of the second quarter, Gabbert finished off a 7–play, 70–yd. drive with a 33–yd. TD pass to WR Anquan Boldin, his 4th TD receipt. of the season and 74th of his career. Boldin finished the game with 5 receipts. for 71 yds. and 1 TD. On the ensuing possession, the San Francisco defense held strong, forcing a Rams punt. However, St. Louis attempted a fake, but WR Bruce Ellington, deep for the punt return, ranged to his left and broke up the pass from Rams P Johnny Hekker in the end zone. Three plays later, Harris broke off a career-long 47–yd. run, setting up a 26–yd. FG by K Phil Dawson. St. Louis would respond on their next possession, as Zuerlein connected on a 32–yd. FG to make the score 10–6. After a 49ers turnover, Rams RB Tre Mason gave St. Louis a 13–10 lead with a 4–yd. TD run. Closing out the first half, Zuerlein converted from 44–yd. to give the Rams a 16–10 halftime advantage. Opening up the third quarter, Gabbert connected on a 44–yd. pass to Ellington to set up Dawson's second FG of the day, this time a 28–yd. conversion. On the following possession, Zuerlein would miss a 52–yd. FG to keep the score at 16–13. With less than five minutes remaining, Dawson finished off a 12–play, 60–yd. drive with a 38–yd. FG to tie the game at 16 heading into overtime. Receiving the ball first, the 49ers were forced to punt on their opening possession. Taking over with the game on the line, St. Louis drove into 49ers territory to attempt a game-winning FG, but Zuerlein's 48–yd. FG att was blocked by CB Dontae Johnson. Looking to finish the season on a high note, Gabbert connected with WR Quinton Patton for 33–yds. to set up the game-winning 23–yd. FG by Dawson to give San Francisco the 19–16 overtime win. Dawson connected on all 4 FGAs on the day, giving him 386 career made FGs, ranking t–9th in NFL history. In tying his season-high of 13 points scored, Dawson became the 16th player in NFL history to reach 1,600 career pts. [1,611].

On the opening possession of the game, DB Jimmie Ward intercepted Petty and returned it 8–yds. deep in Jets territory, marking his 1st INT of the year and 2nd of his career. Capitalizing on the Ward takeaway, Hyde hauled in a 7–yd. TD pass from QB Colin Kaepernick on the 49ers first offensive play from scrimmage, his the 2nd receiving TD of the season and of his career. After forcing a Jets punt, RB Shaun Draughn finished off the 4–play, 81–yd. drive that was set up by a career-long 47–yd. run by Hyde with a 4–yd. With :43 seconds remaining, Folk converted a 50–yd. FG to send the game to overtime. After the 49ers couldn't convert on fourth down at the Jets 37–yd. line, Powell rushed left for a 19–yd. TD to give New York a 23–17 victory.

Arizona 18, San Francisco 15

In a back and forth NFC West battle, San Francisco fell to Arizona 18–15 in overtime at University of Phoenix Stadium. 49ers K Robbie Gould was perfect on the day, connecting on all 5 of his FGAs (49, 39, 47, 48, 23) and has now made each of his first 11 FGs on the season. Gould is the first 49ers kicker to make each of his first 11 FGs of a season since K Jose Cortez made 11 consecutive to begin the 2001 season. The Cardinals drove down the field on their first possession, but San Francisco made a big stop as LB Ray-Ray Armstrong intercepted Cardinals QB Carson Palmer in the end zone. The INT is the 2nd of Armstrong's career and his 1st since (9/12/16) vs LAR. Later in the 1st quarter Gould made a 49-yd. FG to give the 49ers an early 3–0 lead. Arizona K Phil Dawson made a 29-yd. FG to even the score at 3 apiece early in the 2nd quarter. Both kickers would continue to exchange FGs as Gould made a 39-yd. FG, and Dawson answered with a 43-yd. FG to even the score, 6–6, at halftime. San Francisco received the opening kick to start the 2nd half but had to settle for a 47-yd. FG by Gould to give the Niners a lead 9–6. On the Cardinals' next drive, DL DeForest Buckner sacked Cardinals QB Carson Palmer for a 7-yd. loss on 3rd down to force a 50-yd. FG by Dawson, tying the game at 9–9. Buckner has now recorded a sack in back-to-back games when facing the Arizona Cardinals [1–9 sack (11/13/16)]. Gould then nailed in a 48-yd. FG to put San Francisco ahead 12–9 at the end of the 3rd quarter. Dawson would then make a 32-yd. FG early in the 4th quarter to tie the game once more, 12–12. As the 49ers defense ramped up late in the game LB Ray-Ray Armstrong sacked Cardinals QB Carson Palmer for a 5-yd. loss and is the first 49ers player to record 1.0 sack and 1 INT in the same game since DB Jimmie Ward vs. NYJ (12/11/16). Two plays later DL Elvis Dumervil sacked Palmer for a 11-yd. loss, the 100th sack of his career. Dumervil is now the 32nd player to reach 100 career sacks since 1982 and currently has the third-most sacks among active players. Neither team would score again in the 4th quarter as the game would go to into overtime. San Francisco received the ball first and orchestrated a 17-play, 73-yard drive resulting in a Robbie Gould 23-yd. FG to put the 49ers ahead 15–12. After some late-game heroics, Larry Fitzgerald caught a 19-yd. TD from Palmer with 38 seconds remaining to give Arizona the win, 18–15.

Indianapolis 26, San Francisco 23

San Francisco fell on the road to the Indianapolis Colts in a closely contested overtime battle, 26–23, the 49ers' second consecutive overtime loss. To begin the game, Colts K Adam Vinatieri made a 52-yd. FG to put the Colts ahead 3–0. On the 49ers' next drive, K Robbie Gould made a 28-yd. FG to even the score at 3–3. With a minute to go in the first half Vinatieri connected on a 23-yd. FG to put Indianapolis ahead 6–3, but the Colts didn't hold a lead for long as the 49ers offense moved quickly down the field where Gould made a 43-yd. FG to even the score 6–6 going into the half. The Colts would score twice in the 3rd quarter as Vinatieri made a 38-yd. FG and RB Marlon Mack scored on a 22-yd. TD run to put Indianapolis ahead 16–6 going into the 4th. Gould would then make a 40-yd. FG, trimming the Colts lead to 16–9. On the Colts' ensuing possession, QB Jacoby Brissett ran for a 3-yd. TD to increase their lead to 23–9. The 49ers offense answered quickly as QB Brian Hoyer connected with WR Marquise Goodwin for 51-yds. Three plays later, Hoyer shoveled the ball to FB Kyle Juszczyk for a 6-yd. TD pass, his first of the season and the 6th TD receipt. of his career. After forcing the Colts to punt, Hoyer led a 14-play, 89-yd. drive resulting in a 5-yd. TD pass to TE George Kittle on 4th down, tying the game 23–23 with :20 to force overtime. Indianapolis won the overtime coin toss and received the ball first, driving all the way to the SF 8 yd. line where LB Ray-Ray Armstrong intercepted Brissett and returned the INT 29-yds. San Francisco was unable to capitalize on the turnover and punted the ball back to Indianapolis. The Colts got into field goal range a few plays later and K Adam Vinatieri nailed a 51-yd. FG to give the home team a 26–23 victory.

San Francisco 26, Seattle 23

On a rainy day at Levi's Stadium, the 49ers defeated the Seattle Seahawks for the first time since 2013 in a hard-fought, overtime battle, 26–23. The game was a back and forth affair all afternoon and started with Seattle scoring the game's first points after QB Russell Wilson found WR Doug Baldwin for a 5-yd. TD pass, but K Sebastian Janikowski missed the extra point attempt thereafter. On the following play, the 49ers seized a 7–6 lead after rookie WR Richie James Jr. took the kickoff return 97 yards for a touchdown. James Jr.'s return marked the first time a member of the 49ers has registered a kickoff return for a TD since WR Ted Ginn Jr. took it 102 yards for a touchdown in 2011 [vs. Sea. (9/11/11)]. James Jr. also became first 49ers rookie to register a kickoff return for a TD since 1981 [RB Amos Lawrence – 92-yd. KR TD at LAR (11/22/81)]. The 49ers opened the scoring in the 2nd quarter with a 10-play, 98-yard touchdown drive that was completed with a 41-yd. TD pass from QB Nick Mullens to TE Garrett Celek. The scoring drive was the team's longest since 2002 when the 49ers capped off a 12-play, 99-yd. drive with a 6-yd. TD rush by RB Kevan Barlow at Sea. (10/14/02). With the score, the 49ers were able to extend their lead to 14–6. On the next possession, Wilson found Baldwin for another touchdown to bring the score to 14–13. Next, Mullens took the ball back and led the offense down the field to set up a 28-yd. FG from K Robbie Gould to extend the team's lead to 17–13 going into the half. After the teams traded punts to open the second half, Mullens again moved the 49ers offense within scoring range to set up a 33-yd. FG from Gould, pushing the San Francisco lead to 20–13. Seahawks RB Chris Carson kicked off a dramatic fourth quarter with a 1-yd. TD rush on 4th down to tie the game at 20 apiece. On the next possession, the 49ers offense provided room for a game-long, 45-yd. FG from Gould to take a 23–20 lead. Seattle then tied the game on the subsequent drive with a 48-yd. FG from Janikowski. In a tie game, late in the 4th quarter and OT, the 49ers defense forced the Seahawks offense to punt on each of their final three possessions of the game. Seattle won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but the 49ers defense held their ground and forced a three-and-out, turning the ball back over to the offense at the 38-yd. line. The 49ers offense ran the ball effectively in their overtime drive and again moved the ball within range for Gould, who knocked in a 36-yd. FG, his fourth of the day, to clinch the victory over their division foe, 26–23. With 14 points on the day, Gould became the 23rd kicker in NFL history to register at least 1,500 points in their career. He has also registered 111 points this season, marking the first time he has scored 100–or–more points in consecutive seasons since he did so in six straight years with Chicago from 2006–11.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER ANTHONY J. (TONY) MORABITO (1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation-wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California—Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All-America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D-Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast-growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All-America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand-picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation’s Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers. With the award established, McKittrick retroactively chose winners that he coached each season dating back to 1981.

“Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979,” Walsh said. “He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don’t receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements.”

The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named after linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 14-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS COMMUNITY/TEAM AWARDS

POP WARNER LITTLE SCHOLARS TEAM OF THE YEAR

In 2017, the 49ers were named the Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. Throughout the year the 49ers Youth Football Program promotes grassroots football with youth camps, a local Coach of the Year award, Player of the Week awards, and its USA Football partnership. The efforts by the 49ers also include hosting the unique 43-year old local prep football tradition known as the Charlie Wedemeyer High School All-Star Football Game, the annual Friday Night Lights High School Football double-header, and free youth football camps. Additionally, the 49ers Youth Football Program has consistently grown youth participation 18 percent year over year.

In 2016, DL DeForest Buckner participated in the 49ers annual Mentorship Academy. In partnership with USA Football, 49ers rookies host several high school football captains and coaches from local area schools. The event focuses on leadership development, while educating the young athletes on the NFL Player Engagement's Prep "Character Development" curriculum, including social media awareness, leadership and decision making.

ESPN SPORTS HUMANITARIAN TEAM OF THE YEAR

After being recognized as a finalist for the third consecutive year, the San Francisco 49ers were awarded Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year Award in 2017, presented by ESPN. In addition to the San Francisco 49ers collectively donating over 1,200 hours of volunteer time to 75 community events and committing $4 million to local non-profits in 2016 alone, the team is also at the forefront of two innovative and highly impactful programs that use football to make lasting changes in the Bay Area.

First, the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute is a six-year curriculum that begins in 7th grade and continues through high school and seeks to prepare students with high academic potential in STEM. Second, the 49ers STEAM Education Program – which opened in 2014, provides informal learning experiences for K–8 students through its program that teaches standards-aligned (Common Core and Next Generation Science) lessons using the STEAM principles of science, technology, engineering, art, and mathematics. Housed within the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium, the program has reached over 150,000 participants since inception – free of charge – with over 50 percent of students coming from Title I designated schools.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers franchise is arguably one of the most fabled in sports history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

JOHN BRODIE

Quarterback, 1957–73

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009

Holds the team record with 17 years of service. Ranks second in team history with 31,548 passing yards and third with 214 touchdown passes. Guided the 49ers to back-to-back NFC Championship games in 1970 and 1971. Was named NFL Most Valuable Player in 1970. Born August 14, 1935 in San Francisco, CA.

DWIGHT CLARK

Wide Receiver, 1979–87

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009

Drafted by the 49ers in the 10th round (249th overall) of the 1979 NFL Draft, Clark spent his entire nine-year playing career with San Francisco (1979–87), appearing in 134 regular season games, the third-most among 49ers wide receivers, and registered 506 receptions for 6,750 yards (13.3 average) and 48 touchdowns. He also appeared in nine postseason contests, adding 48 receptions for 726 yards and three touchdowns while helping to bring the first two Super Bowl championships to the 49ers organization.

ROGER CRAIG

Running Back, 1983–90

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2011

A member of three Super Bowl Championship teams, Craig ranks third in franchise history with 7,064 rushing yards and first in career rushing attempts (1,686). He also ranks third in franchise history in receptions (508) and total touchdowns (66). Craig became the first running back in NFL history to register 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in a single season (1,050 rushing yards and 1,016 receiving yards in 1985). He was also selected to the Pro Bowl four times. Born July 10, 1960 in Davenport, IA.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

During Alumni Weekend on October 11, 2009 against the Atlanta Falcons, the 49ers honored the automatic enshrinement of the above players during halftime of the game.

The 49ers organization will enshrine new members each season.

FRED DEAN

Defensive End, 1981–85

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 2008

One of the first true pass-rushers in the game, Dean's revolutionary play made an immediate impact upon joining the 49ers in a 1981 mid-season trade. Went on to help 49ers win Super Bowl XVI and Super Bowl XIX. Recorded 93.5 sacks in career, including 40 sacks in five seasons with 49ers to rank 7th on team's all-time list. Posted career-high 17.5 sacks in 1983. Was a four-time Pro Bowler (1979–81, 83) and All-Pro (1979–81, 83). Earned UPI's NFC Defensive Player of the Year (1981). Born February 24, 1952 in Arcadia, LA.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL Player Of The Year and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second–worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trail–ing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up–and–down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacerations at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963

A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—CB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, FB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL's Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selections.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with CB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, CB Jimmy Johnson was the club's first ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2–14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with “old veterans” Dean and LB Jack “Hacksaw” Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title “Team of the 1980s.” The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch—and—run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defended (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia

Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL's Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defended.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five-touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER

OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defended during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history.

The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns.

Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense.

WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a newfound running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers.

The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12–15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34–17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12–4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4–12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24–22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3.

During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards.

The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991–92. The 49ers also led the league with a per-rush average of 5.0 yards.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9–19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6–10.

The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL's Most Improved Player.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12–4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team-record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career-high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed.

San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career-high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career-high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003.

The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2–1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000-yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2–14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16-game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best-ever by a 49ers' tight end.

WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career-best 417-yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16-point fourth-quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team-record 38 passes en route to his first 400-yard game.

DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi-sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career-high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third-longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100-tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season-ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second-year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the start—ing lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defended. Second-year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career-high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6-yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11–21–04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth-longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail-biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston.

The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL-record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league-high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson).

On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket.

WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan

Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100-yard single-game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Snyder and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center.

Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi-sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all-time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co-MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100-yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each.

The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co-MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56-yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third-best ratio of touchbacks-to-punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75-yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first-ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

Under the direction of second-year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale-boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All-Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13-year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second-year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second-year starting QB Alex Smith.

The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters.

Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first-ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth-quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise-record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212-yard performance against Seattle was the highest single-game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100-yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co-MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31-yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona.

The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full-time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven-time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career-high eight interceptions including a 28-yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12-yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second-highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onside kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33-yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000– yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All-Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting seasons in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20-yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler.

The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a 2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113-of-219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54-of-79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season.

Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17-of-19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all-time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all-time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season.

After a promising 2–1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5–4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5–3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense.

Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team-highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358).

On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3–4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team-high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles.

As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span.

For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career-high and team-record 47.8 gross average.

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8–8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5–1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career-high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20–16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go-ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2–score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000–yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2–TD performance the following week in a 23–10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game.

With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action-packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4–point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32–yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35–0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002.

Following a crushing 45–10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career-high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career-highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single-season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury.

Behind the crafty play-calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime-time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory-sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat.

The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20–9 victory. Despite a career-high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20–17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24–9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th-best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard-beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27–13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20–6.

San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non-losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73-yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record-tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100-yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 season with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and having five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss.

The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play-caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them, 16–14.

San Francisco returned home for its 2nd prime-time matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sunday Night Football pitted them against the Philadelphia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the visiting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds. rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9.

The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late-game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game-winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week-long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the "home team" defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat division foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big-play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game.

The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, inspired the squad for a prime-time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a fractured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season-high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thursday night matchup.

Despite a 5–9 record, San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that evening. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.

The San Francisco 49ers 2011 season began with great hope surrounded by as much, if not more, uncertainty, due in large to the arrival of head coach Jim Harbaugh and the lack of an offseason for the new coaching staff to gel with its players. By season's end, Harbaugh had led his team to a 14–4 record, a NFC West Division Title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Although the 49ers became a blue collar unit focused solely on wins, individual honors were plentiful for the team in 2011. Harbaugh was named AP Coach of the Year at season's end and the team boasted a league-high five First Team AP All–Pros – DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). San Francisco also posted a NFL-high nine Pro Bowl selections – Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rogers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for Defensive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks and a Defensive Rookie of the Year finalist, LB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing TD in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL-high 38 takeaways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team-record turnover differential (plus–28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked 1st in the NFL against the run, 2nd in points allowed, and 4th in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and made plays when it was ultimately needed. Six times in 2011, QB Alex Smith, RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come-from-behind wins. The offense tied NFL single-season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Gore became the franchise's all-time leading rusher surpassing Joe "The Jet" Perry. Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest interception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter come-from-behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana – 4 in 1989).

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record-setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL record for most field goals made (44) and most points in single-season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record. KR Ted Ginn Jr. became the first player in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the season opener versus Seattle.

Inside the friendly confines of Candlestick Park, San Francisco posted a 7–1 record. The Niners never trailed by more than 3 points at home all season and averaged 27.6 points per game, ranking 6th in the NFL. The 49ers also boasted a 6–2 record away from home. The 6 wins on the road were the most by the team since 1996 (6–2).

In the 49ers first postseason game since 2002, they defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. TE Vernon Davis shined as he registered 7 receptions for 180 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the game-winning 14 yarder from Alex Smith with :09 remaining.

A magical season came to an end in the NFC Championship game, as the 49ers fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion New York Giants in overtime, 17–20.

Carrying the heavy expectations from a trip to the NFC Championship in 2011, the 2012 San Francisco 49ers took a step further and won the NFC for the first time since the 1994 season. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 11–4–1 regular season record, a second straight NFC West Title, and the sixth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

For the second consecutive season, accolades accompanied team achievement. The 49ers led the NFL with six First–Team AP All–Pro selections – LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Aldon Smith, G Mike Iupati, S Dashon Goldson, P Andy Lee and three Second–Teamers DT Justin Smith, LB Ahmad Brooks and T Joe Staley. In addition to the All–Pros, the 49ers also had nine players selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team – Bowman, Goldson, RB Frank Gore, Iupati, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, Staley, S Donte Whitner and Willis. The Niners offensive line was also awarded the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Pro–tectors Award, which recognizes the best offensive line in the National Football League.

The 49ers defense picked up where they left off in 2011, dominant. The unit, which returned 10 of 11 starters from 2011, finished 2nd in the NFL in total points allowed (17.1 pts. per game) and 3rd in total defense (294.4 yds. per game). Aldon Smith broke Hall of Fame DE Fred Dean's franchise sack record (17.5 in 1983), with 19.5. That mark was 2nd in the NFL in 2012 and t-10th in NFL history. A stone-wall rush defense held opponents to an average of just 94.2 yds. per game, which ranked 4th in the NFL and a pass defense that allowed 200.2 yds. per game that also ranked 4th. The defensive unit was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all four categories (Denver).

A dynamic and physical rushing attack complemented the Niners defense in 2012. Gore surpassed RB Roger Craig and RB Joe Perry's franchise record of 50 career rushing TDs by punching in his 51st TD vs. Arz. (12/30). Entering the starting lineup in Week 11 due to an injured QB Alex Smith, QB Colin Kaepernick left opposing defenses in a daze with his versatility. In the Divisional Round of the playoffs vs. GB (1/12/13), Kaepernick set the NFL single-game rushing record by a quarterback with 181 yds. rushing and 2 TDs on 16 carries, as well as completing 17 of 31 atts. for 263 yds., and 2 TDs. Big plays from Kaepernick not only came on the ground, but through the air as he completed 21, 25+ yds. completions, which was good for 2nd in the NFL since taking over the starting job.

Special teams started the season off with K David Akers tying a NFL record long FG when he nailed a 63-yd. kick at GB (9/9). Andy Lee sat atop the NFL with a 43.2 net punting average and landed 36 punts inside the 20-yd. line, 3rd most in the NFL in 2012 and the second highest single season total of his career.

The 49ers were 6-1-1 at Candlestick Park this season, with the defense allowing just 9 TDs, the best in the NFL.

In addition to Kaepernick's record-breaking performance in the 49ers 45-31 Divisional Round victory vs. the Packers, San Francisco also became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100-yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100-yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. The following week, the Atlanta Falcons jumped out to a 17-0 lead in the NFC Championship Game at the Georgia Dome and Kaepernick led the charge by hitting 16 of 21 passes for 233 yds. and 1 TD with a QB rating of 127.7 as the 49ers came back to win 28-24. It was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship in NFL history.

The curtains closed on the biggest stage for the 2012 49ers as they fell to the Baltimore Ravens 34-31 in Super Bowl XLVII. The 49ers became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300-yd. passer, a 100-yd. rusher and two, 100-yd. receivers in a single game. Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds.

Following a trip to Super Bowl XLVII in 2012, the San Francisco 49ers battled through adversity and high expectations to reach the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 12-4 regular season record as the team closed out historic Candlestick Park and moves to its new home in 2014, Levi's® Stadium.

Possessing a deep, talented roster, the 49ers had nine players selected to the 2014 Pro Bowl, the second most in the NFL – LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Ahmad Brooks, TE Vernon Davis, RB Frank Gore, G Mike Iupati, S Eric Reid, DT Justin Smith, T Joe Staley and LB Patrick Willis. San Francisco also had one First-Team AP All-Pro selection – Bowman, and four Second-Teamers – Brooks, V. Davis, J. Smith and Staley.

The 49ers defense continued its dominance under defensive coordinator Vic Fangio. The unit finished 3rd in the NFL in scoring defense (17.0 pts. per game), 4th in rushing defense (95.9 yds. per game), 5th in total defense (316.9 yds. per game) and 7th in passing defense (221 yds. per game). They were also the only team to not allow a 100-yd. rusher during the regular season.

In 2013, the Niners featured a balanced offensive attack. Frank Gore rushed for 1,128 yds. and 9 TDs, which ranked t-6th in the NFL, and WR Anquan Boldin registered team-highs in receptions (85) and rec. yds. (1,179). It marked the first time since 2003 that the 49ers have had a 3,000-yd. passer, 1,000-yd. rusher and 1,000-yd. receiver in the same season. QB Colin Kaepernick passed for 3,197 yds., the most for a 49ers QB since 2002 (Jeff Garcia – 3,344). He also rushed for 524 yds. during the regular season, which is the 2nd highest single-season rushing total by a quarterback in franchise history (Steve Young, 1992 – 537). During the postseason, Kaepernick rushed for 98 yds. at GB (1/5/14 – NFC-WC) and 130 yds. at Sea. (1/19/14 – NFC-C). He now owns three of the top five rushing performances by a QB in NFL postseason history.

The 49ers special teams unit was spectacular all season long. Veteran K Phil Dawson made 32 of 36 FG atts., including a franchise-record 27 in a row, en route to recording the 2nd-most made FGs in franchise history. He made two game-winning FGs [vs. Sea. (12/8) and at Arz. (12/29)] and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks 14 and 17 for both performances. Andy Lee finished the season with the 3rd-highest gross avg. (48.2 yds.) and 4th-highest net avg. (41.7 yds.) in the NFL.

San Francisco took part in the NFL International Series, defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars, 42-10, at Wembley Stadium in London. With the win, the 49ers became the second team to win multiple games at Wembley Stadium (New England).

The 49ers hosted the final regular season game at Candlestick Park against the Atlanta Falcons on Dec. 23. The game marked the 350th played by the 49ers in their longtime home, "It's an iconic venue," said Harbaugh when asked to sum up his feelings before the farewell game. "It'd be an honor to be on that sideline for the last game at Candlestick, and we want to win it." The 49ers would go on to win the game, 34-24, in epic fashion. In the 4th quarter, after closing the gap to 3 points and recovering a crucial onside kick, the Falcons seemed poised to score a go-ahead touchdown and threaten the festivities of the final game at Candlestick. However, The 'Stick had one last moment left when CB Tramaine Brock broke up a Matt Ryan pass and NaVorro Bowman made the interception and returned it 89-yds. for the score, sealing the legacy of the historic venue and sending the 49ers into the playoffs.

The season came to an end after dropping a back-and-forth contest with the division-rival Seattle Seahawks, 23-17, in the NFC Championship Game at CenturyLink Field. Jim Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to lead his team to a conference title game in each of his first three seasons.

The San Francisco 49ers inaugurated Levi's® Stadium as their new home in 2014, a season that saw key legends RB Frank Gore and WR Anquan Boldin reach career milestones. With an 8-8 record, the 49ers overcame a slew of injuries to register their fourth-consecutive season with a .500-or-better record for the first time since 1998.

In the final game of 2014, Gore rushed for 144 yds. on 25 carries to become just the 20th running back in NFL history to eclipse the 11,000-yd. mark for his career. He finished the 2014 season with 1,106 rushing yds., becoming the 11th player in league history to rush for 1,000 yds. or more in eight seasons. Boldin also joined the NFL's elite ranks, becoming just the 17th player in league history to reach 900 career receptions. and the 24th player to record 12,000 receiving yds. He is now one of only four players to record 500-or-more rec. yds. in 12 consecutive seasons, joining the likes of Jerry Rice, Terrell Owens and Randy Moss. Boldin finished the season with 83 catches for 1,106 yds. and five touchdowns.

San Francisco was represented again at the 2015 Pro Bowl as T Joe Staley and G Mike Iupati were selected. Five other players – S Antoine Bethea, G Alex Boone, LB Chris Borland, RB Frank Gore and DT Justin Smith – were named as Pro Bowl alternates.

Defensively, no other team worked through adversity as efficiently as the San Francisco 49ers. Under the direction of defensive coordinator Vic Fangio, the 49ers defense ranked near the top in several categories for the fourth-consecutive season despite injuries to many key players, including All-Pro linebackers Patrick Willis and NaVorro Bowman. San Francisco finished with the league's 5th best unit overall (321.4 YPG), allowing the 7th fewest rushing yds. per game (100.8) and the 5th fewest passing yds. per game (220.7), and finished the season with a league-leading 23 INTs.

On the other side of the ball, San Francisco relied on bell cow running back Frank Gore to be the focal point of the NFL's 4th-best rushing attack, which averaged 136.0 yds. per game. The 49ers managed 62 plays of 10-or-more rushing yds. – 4th-most in the league – as Gore pieced together his eighth season of 1,000-or-more yds. QB Colin Kaepernick threw for a career-high 3,369 yds., 19 TDs and 10 INTs. He tied the franchise record for the most consecutive games with a TD pass (18) following a Week 12 victory over Washington [Steve Young – 18 (10/9/94 – 11/26/95)]. He also rushed for a QB franchise record 639 yds.

Led by K Phil Dawson and P Andy Lee, the 49ers special teams unit maintained its reputation as one of the league's finest. Dawson connected on 25-of-31 FG attempts, including the 2nd most made FGs of 50-or-more yds. among all kickers en route to becoming one of 19 players in NFL history to surpass 1,500 pts. scored. Lee finished the season with the 6th highest punting average (46.8).

San Francisco bid an end to the 2014 season with back-to-back home games. Against the Chargers in Week 16, the 49ers rushed for a franchise record 355 yds., with Gore and Kaepernick both registering 150-or-more yds. on the ground. The duo became just the fourth pair of teammates to accomplish that feat in a single game in NFL history.

In the team's final home game, the 49ers topped the Cardinals, 20-17, in a tightly contested match-up. Gore eclipsed the century mark for the fourth time in 2014 and for the 39th time in his career, which is the second-most among all active players.

The 2014 season was full of highs and lows, ultimately resulting in the team missing the playoffs for the first time since 2010.

The 2015 season for the San Francisco 49ers was full of ups and downs, but ended on a high note as the team earned an overtime victory over division-rival St. Louis. LB NaVorro Bowman returned to the field after missing all of the 2014 season due to injury and started all 16 games as he led the NFL in tackles with 154 and earned First-Team All-Pro honors. Along with T Joe Staley, Bowman was one of two 49ers selected to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers opened the season with a 20-3 win on Monday Night Football over the Minnesota Vikings led by RB Carlos Hyde, who rushed for a career-high 168 yards and two touchdowns. After a win at home over the Baltimore Ravens in Week 6, the 49ers dropped two division games to fall to 2-6 at the midway point in the season. Heading into Week 9, head coach Jim Tomsula tabbed QB Blaine Gabbert as the starter, as he promptly led the team to a 17-16 victory over the Atlanta Falcons who were 6-2 prior to the matchup at Levi's® Stadium. Two weeks later, San Francisco earned their fourth win of the season in dramatic fashion, as Gabbert connected with WR Torrey Smith for a 71-yard touchdown pass in overtime to beat the Chicago Bears on the road.

On offense, WR Anquan Boldin continued his Hall of Fame career by becoming the first player in NFL history to register 50-or-more receptions and 600-or-more yards in each of his first 13 seasons in the NFL. As the team's leading receiver for the third consecutive season, Boldin became just the 13th player in NFL history to record 1,000-or-more receptions in their career (1,009) and moved into 12th place all-time in receptions and 17th in NFL history in receiving yards (13,195).

Gabbert started the final eight games of the season for the team and threw for 10 touchdowns with a career-high completion percentage of 63.1%. In his first year with the 49ers, WR Torrey Smith showed off his speed and big play potential in becoming the first player in franchise history to register three receiving touchdowns of 70-or-more yards in the same season since WR John Taylor accomplished the feat in 1989. In hauling in 33 receptions for 663 yards and four touchdowns, he averaged 20.1 yards-per-catch, the highest in the NFL.

Under the guidance of running backs coach Tom Rathman, the team did not miss a beat in the rushing game throughout the season. Following an injury to Hyde, RB Shaun Draughn was brought in and registered career-bests in both rushing yards (273) and receiving yards (176) during his six games with San Francisco.

Defensively, NT Ian Williams, who suffered a season ending injury in 2014, returned to set a career-high in tackles while being named a team captain. DT Quinton Dial set a new career-high in tackles and 2015 first-round pick DL Arik Armstead registered two sacks while appearing in every game during his rookie season.

Second-year players made their mark on the defense in 2015 as LB Aaron Lynch built off his rookie season to post a career-high 6.5 sacks coming off the edge. DB Jimmie Ward also stood out, setting a career high with 65 tackles and recording the first pick-six of his career, playing all over the field.

On special teams, the ever-reliable K Phil Dawson continued his impressive career and led the team in points scored with 92. From Week 1 through Week 15, Dawson knocked through 19 consecutive FGs, the second longest streak in 49ers history. In Week 17, he became the 16th player all-time to reach the 1,600 career points mark and now made 386 career field goals, ranking 1-9th in NFL history.

The 2016 San Francisco 49ers were a team that had some highs and lows throughout the year, but the team's young talent showed bright spots, including setting individual milestones.

Under the guidance of head coach Chip Kelly, the 49ers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 28-0 on ESPN's Monday Night Football at Levi's Stadium to open the season, marking the first shutout in franchise history on opening weekend.

Offensively, the 49ers finished with the fourth ranked rushing offense, averaging 126.2 yards per game on the ground. RB Carlos Hyde led the team with 217 carries for 988 yards and six touchdowns. In Week 14 vs. NYJ, Hyde put himself into the 49ers record books with 193 rushing yards, the sixth-highest total in a single game in franchise history. WR Jeremy Kerley, who joined the team via trade late in training camp, quickly found his groove in Kelly's offense and posted a career-high 64 receptions. T Joe Staley, who started 13 games and moved into the top ten for most games played by an offensive lineman in franchise history, earned the Bill Walsh Award as the team's MVP.

Defensively, DL DeForest Buckner, whom the 49ers selected seventh overall in the 2016 NFL Draft, quickly established himself as a rising star in the NFL. Buckner led all rookie defensive linemen with 73 tackles and tied for the team lead with 6.0 sacks. LB Ahmad Brooks registered 6.0 sacks as well, his eighth consecutive season with 5.0-or-more sacks as a member of the 49ers, and moved into sole possession of third place on the team's all-time sack list.

On special teams, K Phil Dawson became the 10th kicker in NFL history to record 400-or-more made field goals in his career and the 10th player in 49ers history to surpass 400 total points scored with the franchise.

The San Francisco 49ers began a new era in 2017 as the team welcomed the leadership of John Lynch as general manager and Kyle Shanahan as head coach to the organization. The 49ers completed the season on a five-game win streak to finish with a 6-10 record. The season got off to a rough start as the team lost five of their first six games by three points or less in each of the games, but finished as the hottest team in the NFL as winners of six of their final seven games and were the only team in the NFL to post a perfect 5-0 record in December.

The 49ers used both free agency and the NFL Draft to add key contributors in 2017. LB Brock Coyle, LB Elvis Dumervil, OL Brandon Fusco, WR Pierre Garçon, WR Marquise Goodwin, K Robbie Gould, FB Kyle Juszczyk and CB K'Waun Williams were some of many free agents that helped the team immediately, with Juszczyk earning Pro Bowl honors in his first year with the team. San Francisco selected DL Solomon Thomas with the 3rd overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft after making a draft-day trade with the Chicago Bears. The 49ers then moved back into the first round to select LB Reuben Foster at 31st overall. The team's late-round picks in CB Ahkello Witherspoon, QB C.J. Beathard, TE George Kittle, WR Trent Taylor and DB Adrian Colbert, along with undrafted rookie free agents in RB Matt Breida and WR Kendrick Bourne, also made several starts throughout the year and were among the team's statistical leaders.

On October 31, 2017, the 49ers completed a trade with the New England Patriots to acquire QB Jimmy Garoppolo. Following the team's first win of the season against the New York Giants, Garoppolo made his Niner debut in the final drive versus the Seattle Seahawks. On the final play from scrimmage, Garoppolo tossed his first touchdown with the 49ers, a 10-yard pass to WR Louis Murphy. The following week, he made his first start with San Francisco in the team's Week 13 matchup against the Chicago Bears near his hometown of Rolling Meadows, IL. He would go on to lead the 49ers to five consecutive victories in the month of December after becoming the full-time starter. The 49ers won five consecutive games for the first time since 2013, and became the first team with 10-or-more losses prior to December to go undefeated from December 1st until end of season since the 1986 Indianapolis Colts. Garoppolo's 1,542 passing yards through his first five starts with the 49ers were the most by a quarterback in franchise history in their first five starts with the team and ranks fourth among all quarterbacks in their first five starts with a new team since the merger in 1970.

Defensively, San Francisco excelled under first-year defensive coordinator Robert Saleh. After battling through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, the 49ers defense got better as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held opponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while giving up 100 rushing yards just once in that span. LB Elvis Dumervil registered a team-high 6.5 sacks on the season, becoming the 32nd player to register 100-or-more sacks and joined John Abraham as the only players to register at least 0.5 sack against all 32 teams in the NFL.

In his first season with the 49ers, K Robbie Gould had arguably the best season of his 13-year NFL career, and got better as the season went on. Registering a single-season career-high 145 points on the season, Gould connected on a career-high 39 field goals, which led the NFL. He joined K David Akers (44 FGs in 2011) as the only players in franchise history to lead the NFL in made field goals while his 39 made field goals tied for the 3rd-most in a single season in NFL history. In the month of December, Gould connected on each of his 18 field goal attempts and had a three-game stretch in December which he made 15 field goals, becoming the first player in NFL history to make 15 field goals in a three-game span, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Against the Bears and in his first trip back to Chicago, Gould accounted for each of the team's 15 points, including the 24-yard game-winning field goal with four seconds left in the game. Two weeks later against the Titans, he set a single-game career high with six made field goals which tied the franchise record for most made field goals in a single game. Gould won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for both Week 13 and Week 15 and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December.

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2018 season with a third-place finish in the NFC West, improving from fourth the previous season. Despite the team's 4-12 record, the 2018 season produced NFL records and franchise milestones from both the team and individual performances. The organization welcomed back the duo of general manager John Lynch and head coach Kyle Shanahan for their second season, as well as newly re-signed QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who led the team to wins in each of the final five games at the conclusion of the 2017 season. In an injury plagued season that included losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo and newly signed RB Jerick McKinnon to ACL injuries, the young core of the team stepped up to win two of their final four games in the month of December to close out the season. Over the past two seasons, the 49ers are tied for the second-most victories in the month of December with seven wins.

The 49ers were able to find several contributing members of the 2018 team through both free agency and the draft. The team acquired key pieces such as C Weston Richburg, RB Alfred Morris and CB Richard Sherman, a four-time All-Pro defensive back that helped provide veteran leadership and productivity to the team. With the ninth-overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the team selected T Mike McGlinchey, who started all 16 games for the team at right tackle. The 49ers then selected WR Dante Pettis in the second round (44th overall), who hauled in 27 receptions for 467 yards and five touchdowns. Pettis' five touchdowns are tied for the second-most in franchise history by a rookie. With their third-round pick (70th overall), San Francisco selected LB Fred Warner, who started all 16 games and logged the third-most tackles (122) among all rookies. The team's late-round picks of DB Tavarious Moore, DB D.J. Reed Jr., S Marcell Harris, DT Jullian Taylor and WR Richie James Jr., along with undrafted rookies RB Jeff Wilson Jr. and TE Ross Dwelley, also made several starts and provided substantial contributions throughout the year.

Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started all eight games he appeared in and accumulated the fourth-most passing yards by a quarterback in their first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). In his NFL debut versus the Oakland Raiders on Thursday Night Football in primetime, Mullens threw for 262 yards and the second-best quarterback rating (151.9) by a passer in their NFL debut since 1973. The offense received an abundance of firepower from second-year TE George Kittle, who exploded onto the national scene and set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377). Kittle also proved himself as a weapon in the open field, recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. On the ground, the 49ers were led by second-year undrafted RB Matt Breida who carried the ball 153 times for 814 yards and three touchdowns, while adding 27 receptions for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Breida finished the season with a 5.3 rushing average, which was fourth-best in the NFL.

On the defensive side of the ball, the 49ers fought through an assortment of injuries that included a different starting lineup in all 16 games, but came together as a unit towards the end of the season as they began to find continuity and success. DL DeForest Buckner led the pass rushing unit by collecting a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs behind Los Angeles Rams DT Aaron Donald and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000. Ronald Blair III (5.5) Cassius Marsh (5.5) and Arik Armstead (3.0) also provided support in the pass rush and set career highs in sacks on the season. Robert Saleh's unit also proved themselves to be a force against the run, ranking seventh in the NFL on the season with just 4.1 yards per carry allowed.

K Robbie Gould continued to shine in his second season with the 49ers both on and off the field as he was nominated the 49ers' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Gould expanded on his streak from the previous season and set the franchise record with 33 consecutive field goals made 10/29/17 to 10/7/18. Gould finished the season leading the NFL with a 97.1 field goal percentage (33-34), which also set a franchise record. Over the past two seasons, Gould leads the entire league in field goals made (72) and field goal percentage (96.0).
